

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface. ix

Introduction: Identities without Guarantees 1

PART ONE

SITUATING RACE, ETHNICITY, AND IDENTITY

Chapter 1: Representations of the Other
Robert Miles and Malcolm Brown 19

Chapter 2: The Social Construction of Primordial Identities
Anton Allahar 31

Chapter 3: Race, Ethnicity, and Cultural Identity
Carl E. James 43

Chapter 4: Postmodern Race and Gender Essentialism or a
Post-mortem of Scholarship
Radha Jhappan 57

PART TWO

IDENTITY, NATION, MEMORY, AND BELONGING

Chapter 5: The Origins of National Consciousness
Benedict Anderson 83

Chapter 6: Re-membling and Forgetting
Ron Eyerman 89

Chapter 7: The Racial State
Michael Omi and Howard Winant	101

Chapter 8: Identity, Belonging, and the Critique of Pure Sameness
Paul Gilroy	117

PART THREE THE NEGOTIATION OF DIFFERENCE

Chapter 9: Optional Ethnicities: For Whites Only?
Mary C. Waters	137

Chapter 10: Between Black and White: Exploring the "Biracial" Experience
Kerry Ann Rockquemore	147

Chapter 11: Interrogating the Hyphen-Nation: Canadian Multicultural Policy and "Mixed Race" Identities
Minelle Mahtani	163

Chapter 12: Formation of Ethnic and Racial Identities: Narratives by Young Asian-American Professionals
Pyong Gap Min and Rose Kim	179

PART FOUR MULTICULTURALISM, POLITICS, AND BELONGING

Chapter 13: Immigration, Multiculturalism, and Citizenship: The Development of the Canadian Social Justice Infrastructure
Charles S. Ungerleider	201

Chapter 14: "Canadian" as an Ethnic Category: Implications for Multiculturalism and National Unity
Rhoda E. Howard-Hassmann	217

Chapter 15: From Redistribution to Recognition? Dilemmas of Justice in a "Post-Socialist" Age
Nancy Fraser	233

Chapter 16: The Future of Identity
Stuart Hall	249

Appendix: Relevant Websites	275
-----------------------------------	-----

Copyright Acknowledgements	277
----------------------------------	-----