

Contents

Konrad Pędzwiatr

Introduction.....	9
--------------------------	----------

Part I - Socio-cultural aspects of the EU enlargement

Zanda Raiskuma

Reasons for Continued Existence of a Divided Public Sphere and Possible Solutions in Latvia.....	17
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------

Audrius Poviliūnas

Lithuanianness in the EU Integration Debate.....	30
---------------------------------------------------------	-----------

Saulė Mačiukaite

The European Union and Lithuanian Immigration Policy.....	40
------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------

Part II - Political aspects of the EU enlargement

Joanna Placzek

New Eastern Policy of the EU after Enlargement.....	51
------------------------------------------------------------	-----------

Diana Eriksonaite

Cross-Border Co-operation in the Baltic Sea Region in the Context of European Union Enlargement.....	64
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------

Ave Poom

How Enlarged Europe Should be Managed? Estonian Position in the European Convention: Towards Intergovernmentalism or Supranationalism?.....	72
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------

Part III - Economic aspects of the EU enlargement

Lukasz Dróżdż

The Role of Small and Medium Enterprises Sector in Closing the Gap between Prospective EU Members and the Rest of the Union.....	109
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------

Liudmila Mikalayeva

The New Member States of the European Union: "Second Class" or "Third Class" Citizens?.....	124
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------

Aušra Nausėdienė

Lithuania's Preparation for the Structural Policies of the European Union.....	139
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------

Egle Rimsaite

Possible Structural Funds Absorption Problems: Human Resources Problem.....	145
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------

Instead of Conclusion - What lies ahead?

Alastair Rabagliati

Wider Europe – An Eastern and a Southern Dimension to the EU?.....	153
---------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------