

Contents

Preface

vii

1

Wilson the Diplomatist

1

2

Wilson and the Problems of Neutrality, 1914–1917

21

3

Wilson and the Decisions for War

47

4

Wilson and the Liberal Peace Program

72

5

Wilson and the Fight for the League of Nations

104

Bibliographical Essay

129

Index

133

Index

- Adams, John Quincy, 2
 Alsace-Lorraine, 25, 50, 57, 74, 83, 85, 89-90, 102
 Anglo-French loan of 1915, 35, 54-55
 Archangel, 97
 Armed ship crisis, 43-44
 Austria-Hungary, 11, 64, 66, 79, 83, 84, 85, 95
 Axson, Stockton, 74
- Bailey, Thomas A., 78n, 107n, 122
 Bailey, Thomas A., Woodrow Wilson and the Great Betrayal, 107n
 Bailey, Thomas A., Woodrow Wilson and the Lost Peace, 78n
 Baker, Ray Stannard, 102
 Balfour, Arthur, 62, 78n
 Belgium, 22, 27, 50, 61, 65, 83, 85, 102
 Bemis, Samuel Flagg, 34
 Bemis, Samuel Flagg, Diplomatic History of the United States, 100n
 Benedict XV, 80-81
 Bernstorff, Johann Heinrich von, and Arabic negotiations, 42; and peace discussions, 56; and Wilson's negotiations for peace, 60-61, 63-64; given passports, 65, continued efforts for peace, 66-67
 Bethmann Hollweg, Theobald von, unresponsive to Wilson's overtures during Lusitania negotiations, 41; eager for Wilson's peace moves, 49, 55-56; peace offer, 57; yields to pressure for all-out submarine campaign, 58-60; and Wilson's negotiations for peace, 60-61, 64-65
 Bolsheviks and the Bolshevik Revolution, 12, 19; urge peace negotiations, 81; separate peace with Germany, 82; Bolshevik question at Paris Peace Conference, 88; Wilson's attitudes and policies toward, 95-97
 Borah, William E., 108
 Brest-Litovsk, Treaty of, 85
 Bryan, William Jennings, 14, 16, 126; helps lay foundations of American neutrality, 28; and end of ban on loans, 35; and policy toward submarine war, 40-41; urges compromise in treaty fight, 124
 Bryn Mawr College, 1
 Butler, Nicholas Murray, 109
- Casement, Roger, 53
 Chile, 74
 China, 9; and Shantung Province, 93, 114
 Churchill, Winston S., on Wilson, 20
City of Memphis, S.S., 68
 Clarke Amendment, 10

- Clemenceau, Georges, demands for French security at Paris Peace Conference, 89-90; reparations demands, 90-91; and Col. House, 101; power at peace conference, 101
- Cobb, Frank I., 93
- Collective security, passim, 104-21
- Cooper, John Milton, Jr., vii
- Czech National Council, 11
- Czechoslovakia, 95
- Czernin, Ottokar, 66-67, 82, 84, 85
- Danube River, 11, 95
- Danzig, 94
- Dardanelles, 50
- Davidson, Harlan, viii
- Davidson College, 1
- Dawes Commission, 92
- Declaration of London, 30, 38
- disarmament, see limitation of armaments
- Falaba* incident, 40-41
- Federal Reserve Board, 55
- Foch, Ferdinand, 86, 87, 89
- France, refuses to permit Wilson's mediation, 48-49, 50; responds to Wilson's peace note, 58; mutinies in army, 80; territorial claims, 81; adamant against liberal peace terms, 81-82; and armistice negotiations, 87-88; demands for security at Paris Peace Conference, 89-90; and disarmament, 97; failure to halt aggression, 103; see also Clemenceau, Georges, and reparations
- Freedom of the seas, 41, 42, 75, 83
- Galt, Edith Bolling, 42
- German-Americans, 22, 29, 108
- Germany, atrocities, 22, 27; reasons for submarine campaign and problems created by it, 38-40; announces submarine campaign against armed ships, 43; and Sussex crisis, 44-46; cruiser-type U-boat campaign, 46; peace offer, 56-57; responds negatively to Wilson's peace note, 58; decision to launch all-out submarine campaign, 58-60; announces all-out campaign, appeals to Wilson, 64; war aims, 64-65; rejects Bernstorff's efforts for peace, 66-67; warns U. S. against armed neutrality, 69; Wilson's loss of faith in, 70-71; Wilson offers generous terms to, 79-80, 83-84; Reichstag no-annexation, no-indemnities resolution, 80; responds to Fourteen Points Address, 84-85; and Treaty of Brest-Litovsk, 85; second Marne offensive, 85-86; and armistice negotiations, 86-88; criticizes peace treaty, 89; admitted to League of Nations, 102
- Graves, William S., 96-97
- Grayson, Cary T., 78n
- Great Britain, maritime and economic warfare, 31-34; refuses to implement House-Grey Memorandum, 47-51; deterioration in relations with U. S., 51-55; responds to Wilson's peace note, 58; apparent willingness to accept Wilson's mediation, 62-63; adamant against liberal peace terms, 81-82; and armistice negotiations, 87-88; failure to halt aggression in 1930s, 103; see also Lloyd George, David; Grey, Edward; and reparations
- Grey, Edward, on anti-British sentiment in Washington, 29; on necessity of American good will, 31; and House-Grey Memorandum, 36;

- and modus vivendi on armed ships, 43; refuses to implement House-Grey Memorandum, 48-51; and League of Nations, 74
- Harbaugh, William H., vii
- Harding, Warren G., 126, 127
- Hearst newspapers, 108
- Helfferich, Karl, 59
- Hertling, Georg F., 84, 85
- Hirst, David W., vii
- Hitchcock, Gilbert M., 121, 122
- Hitler, Adolf, 100n, 103
- House, Edward M., 14, 16, 29; and House-Grey Memorandum, 36-38; and armed ship controversy, 43-44; and failure to implement House-Grey Memorandum, 47-51; and discussions over independent peace move, 56; and negotiations with Great Britain and Germany for Wilson's mediation, 60-63; and break with Germany, 65; and liberal peace program, 74; and secret treaties, 78n; futile efforts to persuade Allies to announce liberal peace terms, 81-82; and Fourteen Points Address, 82; and armistice negotiations, 87-88; betrays Wilson at Paris Peace Conference, 88-89; captive of Clemenceau, 101; urges Wilson to conciliate senatorial critics, 106; urges compromise in treaty fight, 124
- House-Grey Memorandum, see House, Edward M.; Wilson, Woodrow; Grey, Edward; Great Britain; and France
- Hughes, Charles Evans, 105n, 109
- Illinois, S.S.*, 68
- Indemnities, see reparations
- India, 110
- Inquiry, The, 78n, 81, 82, 93
- International Peace Bureau of Belgium, 73
- Ireland, 10, 74, 110; Irish Easter Rebellion, 52-53
- Irish-Americans, 22, 53, 108
- Italian-Americans, 108
- Italy, territorial claims, 81, 83; and Fiume controversy, 93-94
- Izvestiya*, 84
- J. P. Morgan and Co., 35, 55
- Japan, 9, 92, 97, 103; and Shantung Province, 93; and Siberian intervention, 96-97
- Jewish-Americans, 22
- Johns Hopkins University, The, vii, 1
- Johnson, Hiram W., 108
- Johnson, Lyndon B., 18
- Joint State and Navy Neutrality Board, 28
- Jones Act of 1916 (Philippine Islands), 10
- Jones Act of 1917 (Puerto Rico), 10
- Jusserand, Jean Jules, 75, 107n
- Kellogg, Frank B., 109
- Kennedy, John F., 18
- Keynes, John Maynard, 100-101, 100n
- Keynes, John Maynard, The Economic Consequences of the Peace, 100n, 101
- Labour party, British, 84
- Laconia, S.S.*, 68
- Lansing, Robert, 14, 27, 28; Wilson's loss of confidence in, 16-17; and Falaba case, 40-41; and Lusitania negotiations, 42-43; modus vivendi on armed ships, 43-44; and Sussex crisis, 44-45; and discussions over independent peace move, 56; attempts to torpedo Wilson's peace

- Lansing, Robert (cont'd.)
 move, 57-58; and break with Germany, 65
- Lausanne Conference, 92
- League of Nations, 10-11, 11, 73-76, 83, 86n, 88, 89, 91, 94; mandate system, 92; French plan, 98; Wilson's plan, 98; organization of, 98-99; Article 10, 98-99, 109, 110, 115; Wilson on importance of Article 10, 119-20; peacekeeping machinery, 109, 114-16; Wilson on necessity of American membership in, 117-18, 120-21; Wilson on enemies of League, 118-19; post-war failure of peacekeeping machinery, 128; see also Versailles, Treaty of, controversy over in U. S.
- League of Nations Association (British), 74
- League to Enforce Peace, 73, 75, 105
- Lenin, V. I., 84
- Levin, N. Gordon, Jr., 10
- Liberal peace program, 72-74
- Limitation of armaments, 73, 76, 83, 97, 102-103
- Link, Arthur S., Wilson the Diplomatist: A Look at His Major Foreign Policies, vii
- Link, Margaret Douglas, iii, vii
- Lippmann, Walter, 93
- Lloyd George, David, new British Prime Minister, 62; and French demands for security at Paris Peace Conference, 90; reparations demands, 90-91; and Poland, 94; power at peace conference, 101
- Lodge, Henry Cabot, denies that Wilson represents U. S., 101; and American Peace Commission, 105n, 106; and Round Robin resolution, 106; strategy in treaty fight, 111-12; and reservations, 112; and parliamentary struggle over treaty, 121; refuses compromise, 124
- London, Treaty of, 78, 93-94
- Louvain, 22
- Ludendorff, Erich von, 86
- Lusitania*, S.S., sinking, 41; German-American negotiations over, 41-42, 42-43
- Mandate system, 10, 92
- Mantoux, Étienne, The Carthaginian Peace, 100n
- Mexico and the Mexican Revolution and Wilson, 9-10, 12, 16, 18, 19, 70
- Monroe Doctrine, 74-75, 106, 111, 114, 119
- Murmansk, 97
- Mussolini, Benito, 103
- New Republic*, 53
- Nicolson, Harold, Peacemaking 1919, 101
- Nixon, Richard M., 18
- Open diplomacy, 73, 83, 86n, 102, 102n
- Orlando, Vittorio, 94, 101
- Ottoman Empire, 83
- Pan-American Pact, 74-75
- Paris Peace Conference, stages of, 88-89; and, passim, 89-103
- Parrini, Carl P., 7
- Permanent Court of International Justice, 99
- Pershing, John J., 87
- Philippine Islands, 10
- Poland, Wilson and, 19, 83, 94, 102
- Poole, Frederick C., 97
- Pre-Armistice Agreement, 86-88, 90, 100
- Princeton University, 1
- Puerto Rico, 10

- Reed, James A., 108
 Reparations, 74, 80, 81; as an issue at Paris Peace Conference, 90-92; impact of reparations settlement, 99-100
 Reparations Commission, 91-92
 Roosevelt, Theodore, 53, 87
 Root, Elihu, 105n, 109, 110, 111
 Round Robin resolution, 106
 Russia, 63, 65, 83
 Russian Revolution, 12, 70; see also Bolsheviks and the Bolshevik Revolution
 Saar Valley, 91
 Self-determination, 10-11, 74, 82, 83, 85, 94, 96, 100, 102
 Shantung Province, 9, 93, 110, 114
 Ship purchase bill, 29
 Siberia, 96-97
 Sonnino, Sidney, 94, 101
 South, cotton panic in, 32-33
 South German Social Democrats, 73
 Soviet Union, 103
 Spring Rice, Cecil, 27, 51, 62
 Stewart, George E., 97
Sussex, S.S., torpedoing of, 44; German-American crisis over, 44-46
 Swem, Charles Lee, 15
 Taft, William Howard, 105, 105n, 106, 124
 Tarbell, Ida, 2
 Tumulty, Joseph P., 15
 Union of Democratic Control, 73
 United Nations, 19
 United States Senate, rivalry with President over control of foreign policy, 14, 105
 United States Senate, Committee on Foreign Relations, 65, 78, 111, 112-13
 Upper Silesia, 94
 Versailles, Treaty of, passim, 88-103
 Versailles, Treaty of, controversy over in U.S., importance of, 104; partisanship and, 104-105; Wilson presents treaty to Senate, 107; hyphenate and isolationist opposition, 108; nature of debate over, 108-11; Lodge's strategy in treaty fight, 111-12; Lodge reservations, 112; Wilson's western tour in defense of, 113-21; first Senate vote on treaty, 121-22; efforts to find a compromise, 124; second Senate vote, 126-27
Vigilancia, S.S., 68
 Virginia, University of, 1
 Weinstein, Edwin A., 89n, 122, 131
 Wesleyan University, 1
 White, Henry, 105, 106
 William II of Germany, 42, 58-59, 64, 80, 81n, 100
 Wilson, Joseph Ruggles, 5
 Wilson, Woodrow, background and early scholarly work, 1-3; increased interest in foreign affairs, 3-4; religious beliefs, 4-5, 7; belief in democracy and capacity of all peoples for self-government, 5-6; on role of U. S. in world affairs, 6-7; international economic policies, 7-8; anti-imperialist and decolonizer, 8-11; attitudes toward war and revolutions, 11-12; idealism, 12; limitations as diplomatist, 12-13; methods as diplomatist, 13-17; achievements in foreign policy, 17-20; thinking about European war, 23-27; lays foundations of American neutrality, 28-29; policies toward Great Britain, 1914-15, 29-36; and House-Grey Memorandum, 36-38; first response to German submarine campaign, 40-41; and Lusitania negotiations, 41-42, 42-43; and Arabic affair, 42; and armed ship controversy, 43-44; and Sussex crisis, 44-46; presses implementation of House-Grey Memorandum, 47-49; and deterioration in Anglo-American relations, 52-53; prepares to launch independent peace move, 50-57; peace note, 57; determined to avoid war, 60; pressure on British and German governments for his mediation and peace conference, 60-64; "Peace without Victory Address," 61-62, 75, 76, 77, 99; breaks relations with Germany, 65-66; continued efforts for peace, 66-67; adopts armed neutrality, 67-68; decision for war, 68-71; and the liberal peace program, 72-76; and Pan-American Pact, 74-75; "Bases of Peace," 76-77; war aims, 77-80; and secret treaties, 78; responds to Pope's peace appeal, 81; futile efforts to persuade Allies to announce liberal peace terms, 81-82; Fourteen Points Address, 82-84, 86, 87, 92, 99, 102; Four Supplementary Points Address, 85; "Force to the utmost," 85; Four Additional Points Address, 86n; Five Additional Points Address, 86n; and armistice negotiations, 86-88; appeals for Democratic Congress, 88; decides to head American peace commission, 88; struggles at Paris Peace Conference, 88-89; failures and achievements at Paris, 99-103; and background of treaty fight, 104-107; tries to win support for treaty in Senate, 112-13; western tour on behalf of ratification, 113-21; collapse and stroke, 121; rejects Lodge reservations, 121-22; reasons for refusal to accept Lodge reservations, 122-24; makes treaty leading issue in campaign of 1920, 124-26

Wilson, Woodrow (cont'd.)

Wiseman, William, 62

Women's Peace Party of the United States, 73

World War I, and American public opinion, 21-22, 53, 70

World War II, 103, 128

Young Commission, 92

Yugoslavia, 94

Zimmermann, Arthur, 61, 70

Zimmermann Telegram, 70