

CONTENTS

Author's Note	xiii
1 The Better World 1812-1822 aet. 1-10	I
2 Warren's Blacking 1823-1824 aet. 11-12	35
3 Wellington House Academy 1824-1827 aet. 12-15	81
4 Messrs Ellis & Blackmore 1827-1828 aet. 16	95
5 Miss Maria Beadnell 1828-1833 aet. 17-21	121
6 The Chronicle Reporter 1833-1835 aet. 21-23	149
7 Miss Catherine Hogarth 1835-1836 aet. 23-24	163
8 The Inimitable Boz 1836-1837 aet. 24-25	171
9 Miss Mary Hogarth 1837 aet. 25	185
10 The Novelist Triumphant 1837-1839 aet. 25-27	203
11 Mrs Charles Dickens 1839-1845 aet. 27-33	221
Epilogue: 'You don't object to an aged parent, I hope?'	247
References and Notes	271
Sources	303
Index	309

Index

- Adrian, Arthur A., 287
 Ainsworth, William Harrison (1805-82), 206, 224; and C.D., 158, 183; Macrone asks him for advice, 180; editor of Bentley's Miscellany, 217
 Alphington, 229
 American Notes, see Works of Charles Dickens
 Austin, Henry, 161, 206, 230
 Barnaby Rudge, see Works of Charles Dickens
 Barrow, Charles, 4
 Barrow, John Henry, 128, 152
 Barrow, Mary ('Aunt Fanny'), 6, 22, 23
 Barrow, Thomas, 40-1
 Battle of Life, The, see Works of Charles Dickens
 Bayley, John, 77-8
 Beadnell, Anne, 126, 138; engaged to Henry Kolle, 139; C.D. and, 161
 Beadnell, George, 125, 126, 127, 285
 Beadnell, Mrs George, 126, 127
 Beadnell, Margaret, 126
 Beadnell, Maria (later Mrs Henry Winter), 156, 161, 165, 251, 260; C.D. in love with, 125-7; sent to Paris, 129-30; encourages C.D., 130, 139; returns from Paris, 136; cruel to C.D., 138; Mary Anne Leigh makes trouble between C.D. and, 140-1; and C.D. in middle age, 144, 146-7, 285
 Beard, Frank, 266, 267, 269
 Beard, Thomas, 183, 189, 223; C.D. friendly with, 130, 206; recommends C.D. to Morning Chronicle, 152; lends money to C.D., 161; John Dickens and, 161; C.D.'s best man, 170
 Bentley, Richard (1794-1871), 184, 229; and C.D., 179, 188, 206, 210, 212, 215-18; and John Forster, 181; character and appearance, 217-18
 Bergonzi, Bernard, 74
 Blackmore, Edward, 93-4, 103
 Bleak House, see Works of Charles Dickens
 Blessington, Marguerite, Countess of (1789-1849), 213, 214, 226
 Bonny, Jane, 6
 Boulogne, 143
 Bowes Academy, Greta Bridge, 209
 Boyle, Mary, 238
 'Boz', origin of pseudonym, 156; most famous author in London, 178; Giles names C.D. 'The Inimitable Boz', 184
 Bradbury and Evans, 242, 252, 258-9
 Braham, John, 178
 Brain, Walter Russell, Lord (1895-1966), xiv; on C.D.'s attacks of 'spasm', 273; on C.D.'s probable cyclothymia, 302
 Brighton, 88, 200, 207
 British Museum, 187; C.D. in Reading Room of, 127; Mrs Dickens gives C.D.'s letters to, 299
 Broadstairs, 210, 223; C.D. able to work at, 136, 207; C.D. visits his children at, 200; C.D. on the delights of, 207; C.D.'s mock love-affair at, 227, 232; C.D.'s parents at, 228, 229
 Brother-sister relationship, 193-5, 198-9, 291
 Browne, Hablot Knight ('Phiz', 1815-82), 206; to illustrate Pickwick, 176; travels with C.D., 208-9, 210, 224
 Browning, Robert (1812-89), 74, 180, 181
 Bulwer, Edward, see Lytton, Edward Bulwer-
 Burnett, Henry, 187-8
 Buss, Robert William, 176
 Butt, John, and Tillotson, Kathleen, Dickens at Work, 284-5, 291; on C.D.'s social criticism, 300-1
 Canning, George, xiv, 4
 Carlton, William J., 271, 276; quoted, on chambers at 5 Holborn Court, 97; on John Dickens, 284
 Carlyle, Jane Welsh (1801-66), does not accompany her husband to Holland House, 214; on C.D., 245-6, 293; on dining with the Dickenss, 297
 Carlyle, Thomas (1795-1881), 181; on Samuel Rogers, 213; on C.D.'s face, 225-6
 Cattermole, George (1800-68), 224
 Cecil, Lord David, 301
 Chalk, Kent, C.D.'s honeymoon spent at, 173; Dickenss and Mary Hogarth at, 184, 187
 Chapman and Hall, 217, 226; ask C.D. to write a serial, 168; C.D. gets his own way with, 169; Pickwick not an initial success, 174, 175-6; advance C.D. £2,250, 183; make C.D. a present, 188; their generosity to C.D., 218-19

Chapman and Hall—contd.

Chatham, 53, 56; Dickens family moves to, 5, 6; life in, 6-8, 15; Pickwick's description of, 12; little C.D. wanders about in, 14, 26-8; family move to 18 St Mary's Place, 25; revisited, 28-30; family leave, 37; unchanged 50 years later, 272-3; Tom-All-Alone's at, 275-6

Children, C.D. on injustice to, 35; in C.D.'s books, 73; C.D. and the child-parent relationship, 74-5; C.D. and his own, 244-6; refined speech of children in C.D.'s books, 277

Chimes, The, see Works of Charles Dickens

Christmas, C.D. enjoys, 245-6, 256

Christmas Books, see individually under Works of Charles Dickens

Christmas Carol, A, see Works of Charles Dickens

Clark, Sir James, 199

Clothes, of C.D., 41, 97, 112, 126, 153, 161, 228, 239, 283, 296; of Poll Sweedlepipe, 42; of Copperfield, 112; C.D.'s interest in describing, 112-13; of the Doctor of Civil Law, 125; of Maria Beadnell, 126; the Beadnell girls' cloaks, 127; Disraeli's waistcoat, 158; of Christiana Weller, 239

Clowns, 20

Cobham Park, 9, 254

Cockshut, A. O. J., on C.D., 208; on C.D.'s religious attitude, 275; on C.D.'s social criticism, 301

Colden, Mrs David Cadwallader, 238-9

Collier, John Payne (1789-1883), quoted on C.D.'s clothes, 112; C.D. introduced to, 152; and C.D., 153

Collins, Charles Alston (1828-73), Katey Dickens marries, 263

Collins, Philip, 301; on C.D.'s identification with his child heroes, 277; on C.D. and his children, 298

Collins, William Wilkie (1824-89), 182; C.D. seeks his company, 142-3; and holidays with C.D., 144, 243, 251; C.D. confides in, 147, 265

Colman, George, 42

Copyright Bill, 206, 291-2

Coutts, Angela Georgina Burdett (later Baroness Burdett-Coutts), (1814-1906), C.D. and, 224, 250, 298; pays Charley Dickens's fees at Eton, 281

Creevey, Thomas (1768-1838), 213

Cricket on the Hearth, see Works of Charles Dickens

Cruikshank, George (1792-1878), to illustrate Sketches by Boz, 158; and C.D., 169, 170, 178, 206; C.D. on, 178-9

David Copperfield, see Works of Charles Dickens

Davis, Earle, 282-3

Death, of Mary Hogarth, 188-91, 295; C.D.'s attitude to death in his works, 191-4; effect of Fanny's death on C.D., 200; and The Old Curiosity Shop, 231, 295; of C.D., 269, 270

'Deed, the', little C.D.'s fears about, 47

De La Rue, Emile, 240; C.D. writes to, 241, 250; Kate Dickens refuses to speak to, 242; C.D. calls on, 243

De La Rue, Madame, 249; C.D. mesmerises, 240-2; C.D. calls on, 243
Dickens, Alfred Allen (b. and d. 1814), 5
Dickens, Alfred D'Orsay Tennyson (1845-1912), his nickname, 245; on his father, 246; goes to Australia, 259; education, 281

Dickens, Alfred Lamert (1822-60), 38, 262

Dickens, Augustus (1827-68), 93; his nickname, 156; goes to Alphington, 229; life and death, 262

Dickens, Catherine Hogarth ('Kate', 1815-79), ignorant of Warren's warehouse episode, 72; appearance, 162; in love with C.D., 162; and C.D., 147, 165-7, 189, 195, 209-10, 231, 237-8, 240-2, 243, 249-50, 251-2, 262, 299; marries C.D., 170; her honeymoon, 173; and her sister Mary, 174, 210; her first baby born, 184; in poor health, 184, 211, 213; at Doughty Street, 187; miscarries, 210; her second child born, 210; is never invited with C.D., 213-14; at Broadstairs, 223; and the quarrel between C.D. and Forster, 225; and C.D. and Eleanor Picken, 227; Eleanor Picken's description of, 231; her temperament, 238, 249, 295-6; jealous of Mme De La Rue, 240-2; and her children, 250, 295; jealous of Ellen Ternan, 251; Katey and, 252, 299; leaves C.D., 252; Sydney leaves his money to, 259; publishes a cookery book, 297-8

Dickens, Charles Culliford Boz (1837-96), born, 184, 290; C.D. sends love to, 209; and his father, 244, 249, 257, 258; to live with his mother, 252; marries, 258; on staff of All the Year Round, 258-9; and his father's readings, 266, 267; and death of C.D., 269; education, 281

Dickens, Charles John Huffam (1812-70); and Fanny, 5, 9, 38, 70, 187, 199-200, 291; his life at Hawke Street, 5; and Lucy Stroughill, 7-8, 29-30; as a child at Chatham, 8, 12, 14, 15, 20-4, 26-8, 31, 33-4; and his mother, 8, 48-50, 52, 72, 75, 93-4, 161, 228, 229, 261-2; learns to read, 8; and his father, 8-10, 14, 23, 52, 57-8, 75, 158-60, 170, 228-9, 261; and Gad's Hill Place, 9-10, 253-4, 266, 268; at school, 11, 12, 33, 37, 83-6, 89-93; on prison hulks and convicts, 15; terrified by his nursemaid's stories, 15-19; health, 25, 47, 57, 69, 78, 167, 170, 196, 224, 265-7, 302; influence of 18th century writers on, 25, 274-5; disillusioned by return to Chatham, 28-30; idealises his childhood days, 30; his antipathy to nonconformism, 31; on his father, 38-9; his neglected schooling, 38-9, 52; wanders about London, 39-41, 131-6; buys the 'small German', 39; clothes of, 41, 97, 112, 126, 153, 161, 228, 239, 283, 296; on himself as a child, 41, 52-3, 68-9; and his uncle Thomas Barrow, 41-2; horribly fascinated by the river, 43-5; sent to pawnbroker, 51, 62; and Warren's Blacking warehouse, 52, 53, 55-7, 71, 77-8, 280; his companions at Warren's, 56-7, 68, 280; his obsession with prisons, 60-2; boards with Mrs Roylance, 64; asks for very best ale, 65-6; moves to Southwark, 69-70; and John Forster, 72, 180, 182-3, 190-1, 205-6, 210-11, 224-5, 226, 252, 292; and the parent-child relationship, 73-5; chooses recent past as period for his novels, 75-7; his melancholy portrayal of London, 78-80; and education, 85-90; employed at Ellis and Blackmore, 94, 99-100, 103; his distaste for solicitors and solicitors' offices, 97-9, 123; and Macready, 110, 206, 230, 245, 296; his interest in describing clothes, 112-13; and Potter, 100, 111, 113-14, 117; learns shorthand, 117, 118, 119, 284; in Doctors' Commons, 119; as a reporter, 123, 125, 128; and Henry Kolle, 125-6, 130, 138, 139, 141, 148, 161, 206; and Maria Beadnell, 125-7, 137-42, 144-5, 148; at the Beadnells', 126, 130; decides to become an actor, 127-8; his ability as a reporter, 128, 152; a Parliamentary reporter, 128, 151; dislikes Parliament, 128-9, 151; his 21st birthday party, 138; and Mary Anne Leigh, 140-1; and Wilkie Collins, 142-3, 144, 251, 265; and his children, 143, 244-6; and Thackeray, 143, 224, 253; and Morning Chronicle, 152, 156, 158, 168, 169, 177, 179, 180; reports all over the country, 153-5; his stories published in Monthly Magazine, 156; and Macrone, 158, 167, 169, 170, 178, 180, 183; and Cruikshank, 158, 169, 170, 178-9, 206; and his brother Fred, 161, 230, 231, 262; and Catherine Hogarth, 161, 162, 165-7, 169; and George Hogarth, 162, 252, 287-8; and John Hullah, 167, 169; undertakes too much work, 167-8, 170, 176-7, 179, 184, 224; elated by reviews of Sketches by Boz, 168; and Chapman and Hall, 168, 169, 174, 175-6, 178, 183, 188, 218-19; and William Hall, 168, 169; and The Village Coquettes, 169, 176, 177; marries Catherine Hogarth, 170; and Catherine, 173, 195, 209-10, 211, 224, 231, 237-8, 240-2, 243, 249-50, 251-3, 262, 264, 295-6, 299; and Mary Hogarth, 173-4, 188-91, 191-5, 197, 205, 210; and Robert Seymour, 175; aware of the worth of Pickwick, 178; and Richard Bentley, 179, 188, 206, 210, 212, 215-18; and copyright of Sketches by Boz, 180, 183; working on Oliver Twist, 183; leads a gay life, 183; birth of his son, 184; takes family to Chalk, 184; moves to 48 Doughty Street, 187; and the brother-sister relationship, 193-5, 198-9; and Georgina Hogarth, 195, 269; Battle of Life a 'biographical document', 196-7; and his many friends, 206-7; his involvement with his characters, 207-8; visits Yorkshire schools, 208-9; and Hablot Browne, 208-9, 210, 224; Caroline Fox on, 212; in society, 212-13; effect of his childhood, 213, 219; and Mrs Macrone, 217; his inability to write Barnaby Rudge, 217; changes his publisher, 218; his mock-infatuation with Queen Victoria, 226, 227; has a pet raven, 226; and Eleanor Picken, 227-8; begins Old Curiosity Shop, 231; similarity between Quilp and, 232; and his mother-in-law, 234; his writings concerning marriage, 235-7; and women, 238-9, 239-40, 240-2, 296; at Christmas parties, 245-6; on his unsatisfactory marriage, 250; and Ellen Ternan, 250-3, 264, 267, 297, 302; and his separation, 252-3; and his sons, 257-61, 298-9; his readings, 261, 265-7; financial demands on, 261-2; and Mamie, 263; and Katey 263, 268-9; opinions of his style, 264, 299-300; in America, 267; enacts the murder of Nancy, 266, 267; death of, 269, 270; his appearance, 33, 65, 91, 94, 97, 177, 212, 213, 255, 268, 283, 293; his personality: imaginative, 19-20, 26, 141-2; 213, 218, 219, 274; interest in the theatre, 20-3, 41, 70, 92, 95, 103, 104-5, 109, 111, 113-14, 130, 139-40; a happy child, 25, 33, 91-2, 184; a gifted mimic, 23, 103, 111; sings comic songs, 23, 52, 91, 152; an avid reader, 25, 41-2, 274; vulnerable, 38-9, 121, 129; his despair, 51, 52, 56-7; proud, 57; secretive, 84; his desire to be a gentleman, 84; scholastic ability, 91, 94, 281; friendly, 92, 119; flamboyant behaviour, 126, 225, 254-6, 294; a radical, 128; emotional, 129; susceptible to human suffering, 129, 143, 302; his reserve, 130, 260-1; restlessness, 142-4, 147, 205, 207, 223-4; high spirits alternating with depression, 143; didactic, 165; self-possessed, 168-9; his need for affection, 173, 218, 238; his unconventional behaviour, 177, 178; enjoys admiration, 178; impatient, 183; depression, 191-2, 263, 265, 266; self-pity, 201; disturbed by his childhood's injustices, 201; hates solitude, 205; his need for companionship, 209-11; his generosity, 217, 219; hatred of Bentley, 217; drives a hard bargain, 219; self-will, 219; his physical energy, 223, 224, 246, 255; irritability, 224; rumoured to be mad, 226, 230, 294; 'full of fun', 230; enjoys making puns, 230-1; his temperament, 238; passion for neatness, 249, 257; intolerance, 249; charm, 255; passion for precision,

Dickens, Charles John Huffam—contd.

257, 298-9; self-confidence, 263; aware of his stature, 264

Dickens, Edward Bulwer Lytton (1852-1902), C.D. and the birth of, 244; his nicknames, 245; C.D.'s favourite child, 259; sent to Australia, 260, 298-9; education, 281

Dickens, Elizabeth, 62; her character and circumstances, 3; and her son's improvidence, 47

Dickens, Elizabeth Barrow, marries C.D.'s father, 4; early married life, 6; and C.D., 8, 93-4, 119, 161, 228, 229, 261-2; and religion, 31; decides to open a school, 47; C.D.'s contempt for, 48; caricatured as Mrs Nickleby, 48-50; opinions of, 50; moves to Marshalsea, 64; more realistic than her husband, 72; stays at Furnival's Inn, 184

Dickens, Frances Elizabeth ('Fanny', 1810-48), 126, 168; born, 4; and C.D., 5, 70, 128, 140, 161, 199, 291; and her father, 9; goes to dame-school, 11; sings with her brother, 23-4; sent to William Giles's school, 33; at Royal Academy of Music, 38, 51, 70; leaves Royal Academy, 93; marries Henry Burnett, 187; dying, 199-200

Dickens, Francis Jeffrey (1844-86), C.D. and birth of, 244; his nickname, 245; and his mother, 250; life and death, 259

Dickens, Frederick William (1820-68), 38, 209, 211; born, 25; and C.D., 161, 205, 230, 231, 262; and Catherine Hogarth, 166, 167; employed by Macrone, 187; at Doughty Street, 187, 188; borrows from Chapman and Hall, 228; marries Anna Weller, 262; in debt, 262

Dickens, Henry Fielding (later Sir Henry Dickens, 1849-1913), on his father's references to Warren's Blacking warehouse, 55; his nickname, 245; and his father, 257-8, 261; on his father's reserve, 260-1; on his father's fear of trains, 267; named after the novelist, 275; education, 281

Dickens, John (1786-1851), and his mother, 3-4; his improvidence, 4, 158, 161, 228-9, 272; character, 4, 8-9, 24, 58, 158-9, 161; early married life, 4-5, 6; moves to Chatham, 6; as a parent, 8; appearance, 9; and C.D., 9-10, 14, 23, 39, 52, 58, 228; model for some of C.D.'s characters, 24, 59, 60, 159, 160, 196; moves to cheaper house, 25; and religion, 31; transferred

- to London, 34; in financial difficulties, 34, 47, 93, 158-9; C.D. on, 38-9; and his wife, 48; his gentility, 56; arrested for debt, 57, 160; in the Marshalsea, 58-60; leaves Marshalsea, 71; quarrels with James Lamert, 71; C.D.'s ambivalent attitude to, 75; evicted from 26 Johnson Street, 93; employed by British Press, 117; joins Mirror of Parliament, 128; joins Morning Herald, 158; asks for loans, 161, 228-9; at Broadstairs, 228, 229; death of, 261; as a journalist, 283-4
- Dickens, Kate Macready ('Katey', 1839-1929), and C.D.'s relationship with his children, 244; teaches her father the polka, 246; and her mother, 252, 263, 299; on her father, 252, 265; and Thackeray, 253; and the unhappiness at home, 253, 263; marries Charles Collins, 263; her last talk with her father, 268-9; education, 281
- Dickens, Letitia (1816-1874), 5, 38, 262, 273; engaged to Henry Austin, 187; Eleanor Picken's opinion of, 230; her resemblance to Betsey Trotwood, 294-5
- Dickens, Mary ('Mamie', 1838-96), 257; on her father at work, 111; born, 210; her nicknames, 244; and her father, 246, 263; at Gad's Hill, 255, 256; refuses Fitzgerald, 262; education, 281
- Dickens, Mary Angela (1862-1948), 267
- Dickens, Sydney Smith Haldimand (1847-72), his nickname, 245; short life, 259; education, 281
- Dickens, Walter Landor (1841-63), his nickname, 244; and his father, 258; life and death, 259; education, 281; his death and his parents, 299
- Dilke, Charles Wentworth (1789-1864), 72, 279
- Disraeli, Benjamin, 1st Earl of Beaconsfield (1804-81), 158, 213.
- Dombe and Son, see Works of Charles Dickens
- D'Orsay, Alfred Guillaume Gabriel, Count (1801-52), and John Forster, 182; and Lady Holland, 212; C.D. a guest of, 213
- Edinburgh, 153, 224
- Education, C.D. speaks on, 86; educational establishments in C.D.'s books, 85-9; of C.D.'s children, 281
- Edwin Drood, The Mystery of, see Works of Charles Dickens
- Egg, Augustus Leopold (1816-63), 243, 262
- Elections, C.D. reports, 153-5
- Eliot, George (1819-80), 255
- Elliotson, Dr, 239-40
- Ellis, Mr (of Ellis and Blackmore), model for Mr Perker, 100
- Ellis and Blackmore, 119, 289; C.D. employed at, 94, 97, 99-100, 103
- Evans, Bessie, 258
- Evans, Frederick, 252, 258
- Fagin, Bob, 68; and C.D., 56, 57, 71; C.D. uses his name for the Jew, 77; Marcus on C.D.'s relationship with, 280
- Fechter, Charles Albert (1824-79), 269
- Fielding, Dr K. J., xiii, 294; and the influence of the theatre on C.D.'s work, 109; on C.D.'s attitude to Catholicism, 290
- Fitzgerald, Percy Hetherington (1834-1925), 252, 281, 290
- Fletcher, Angus, 224, 230
- Food: Captain Murderer's meat pies, 18-19; little C.D. buys the 'small German', 39; little C.D.'s ideas about ships' biscuits, 41; food vendors in London, 45; C.D.'s meals while working at Warren's, 64-6; eating-houses at Scotland Yard, 68; C.D.'s supper before the theatre, 111; at the tea gardens, 114; at Greenwich Fair, 116; C.D.'s Christmas dinner in Northamptonshire, 155; Ruth Pinch makes steak and kidney pudding, 194; C.D.'s dinners, 205, 206; supper and breakfast at Greta Bridge, 209; at Gad's Hill, 256, 298; recommended expenditure on, in 1817, 271-2; at Devonshire Terrace, 298-9
- Forster, John (1812-76), 214, 215, 218, 242; C.D. confides in, 47, 72, 111, 143, 147, 190-1, 234, 251; Dilke and, 72; Life of Goldsmith, 85; his biography of C.D., 91, 95; early history, 181; character, 181-2, 225; stories against, 182; C.D. finds him a 'trustworthy friend', 182, 183; model for Podsnap, 182; on C.D.'s suffering, 191; advises C.D., 191, 197, 252; walks and rides with C.D., 205, 210, 211; introduces C.D. to Leigh Hunt, 206; opinion of C.D., 219, 292; on C.D.'s physical energy, 223; quarrels with C.D., 224-5; and C.D.'s mock-infatuation with Queen

Forster, John (1812-76)—contd.

Victoria, 226; at Macready's Christmas party, 246; on C.D.'s appearance, 293

Fox, Caroline, on C.D., 203, 212

Garis, Robert, 282

Garrick Club, 206; C.D. joins, 183; orders dinner at, 210

Genoa, C.D. begins The Chimes in, 136; C.D. dreams of Mary Hogarth in, 190; C.D. and his family live in, 204-2

Ghent, Dorothy van, 280

Giles, Rev. William, 31, 33

Giles, William, junior, 52; C.D. attends his school, 33; gives C.D. a parting present, 37; calls C.D. 'The Inimitable Boz', 184

Gin-shops, 135-6

'Globson', and the guava jelly, 89-90

Gore House, 213

Grantham, C.D. stays at the George, 208

Great Expectations, see Works of Charles Dickens

Green, Paul, 56, 68

Greta Bridge, 208

Grey, Charles Grey, 2nd Earl (1764-1845), 129, 153

Grimaldi, Joseph (1779-1837), Memoirs of, 20, 229

Grip, the raven, 226-7

Gross, John, 287

Hall, William, discusses ideas for C.D.'s serial, 168; C.D. gets his own way with, 169

Hardman, Sir William, 299

Hard Times, see Works of Charles Dickens

Harley, John Pritt, 206; C.D.'s farce for, 168, 184

Haunted Man, The, see Works of Charles Dickens

Heralds, College of, does not recognise C.D.'s claim to crest, 56

Hogarth, Catherine, see Dickens, Catherine Hogarth

Hogarth, George (1783-1870), 252; C.D. on, 162; his opinion of C.D., 162; C.D. and, 287

Hogarth, Mrs George (1793-1863), fond of C.D., 162; stays at the Dickens, 184; and Mary's death, 210; and her son-in-law, 234; and C.D.'s affair with Ellen Ternan, 252; grandchildren not allowed to speak to, 253

Hogarth, George, the younger (1821-41), 190

Hogarth, Georgina (1827-1917), part of Dickens household, 195, 250, 252; and The Battle of Life, 196; C.D. and, 242, 250, 257, 262; and Augustus Egg, 262; and death of C.D., 269

Hogarth, Helen (1833-90), and C.D.'s affair with Ellen Ternan, 252; nieces and nephews not allowed to speak to, 253

Hogarth, Mary (1819-37), 200; and C.D., 162, 173, 193, 210; chaperones Catherine, 166, 173; goes to stay with the Dickens, 173, 187; on C.D.'s and Catherine's marriage, 174; goes with Dickens to Chalk, 184; death of, 188; appears to C.D. in dreams, 190; her death influences C.D.'s subsequent works, 191-5, 197; resemblance between Georgina and, 195; and The Battle of Life, 196; Queen Victoria's resemblance to, 226; apotheosis of Little Nell, 233

Holland, Elizabeth Vassall (1770-1845), 214; invites C.D. to dine, 212; and Samuel Rogers, 213

Holland House, C.D. a guest at, 212, 213; wives at, 214

Homes of Charles Dickens:

16 Bayham Street, Camden Town, John Dickens's family at, 37, 78; poverty at, 47; demolished, 276

Cecil Street, Strand, C.D. in lodgings in, 130

1 Devonshire Terrace, Regent's Park, 244; improvements at, 214; C.D. orders redecoration of, 242; demolished, 293

48 Doughty Street, 214; C.D. rents, 187; description of Doughty Street, 187; C.D. resumes work at, 205; visitors at, 207

13 Furnival's Inn, High Holborn, 287; C.D. moves to, 160; C.D. asks Henry Austin to share, 161; tries to sublet, 166

15 Furnival's Inn, High Holborn, C.D. moves to, 169; Dickens and Mary Hogarth at, 173-4, 189; becoming too small, 187

Gad's Hill Place, 297; C.D. admires, 9-10; C.D. buys, 253-4; guests at, 254; C.D. enacts the murder of Nancy at, 266; the 'last improvement' at, 268; C.D. dies at, 269

Gloucester Terrace, Regent's Park, Catherine Dickens to live at, 252

4 Gower Street North, 276; 'Mrs

- Dickens's Establishment' at, 47, 48; poverty at, 62-3
- Hawke Street, Portsmouth, C.D.'s babyhood at, 5
- Lant Street, Southwark, little C.D. lodges in, 69-70
- Little College Street, Camden Town, C.D. lodges in, 64
- 387 Mile End Terrace, Landport, John Dickens's family live at, 4
- 2 Ordnance Terrace, Chatham, Dickens family moves to, 6; leaves, 25
- 11 Selwood Place, Brompton, C.D. lodges at, 166
- Tavistock House, Tavistock Square, C.D. and family live at, 249, 251; demolished, 296
- House, Humphry, 280, 283, 287; on C.D.'s youth as literary material, xiii; on chronology in C.D.'s books, 75; on C.D.'s lasting importance, 264; on C.D.'s appreciation of art, 301
- House, Mrs Madeline, xiii
- Huffam, Christopher, 39, 43; and John Dickens's financial problems, 47, 48
- Hullah, John Pyke (1812-84), 206; C.D. plans to write libretto for, 167; and C.D. and the setting for operetta, 169
- Hunt, James Henry Leigh (1784-1859), 180, 249; C.D. caricatures him in Harold Skimpole, 206; on C.D.'s appearance, 293
- James, Henry (1843-1916), 263-4, 302
- Jerrold, Douglas William (1803-57), 206
- Jews, 133; Fagin, 77-8, 280; and the theatre, 103-4
- Johnson, Professor Edgar, xiii, 294; on effect of C.D.'s early reading, 274
- Jones, William, C.D. becomes his pupil, 83; model for Mr Creakle, 85
- Keeley, Robert, 127
- Kemble, Charles (1775-1854), 128
- Kettle, Arnold, 44, 276
- Knott, Newman, 100
- Kolle, Henry, introduces C.D. to Maria Beadnell, 125-6; C.D. and, 130, 139, 148, 161, 206; C.D. entrusts him with letters to Maria, 138, 141; engaged to Anne Beadnell, 139; John Dickens and, 158
- Laing, Allen Stewart, 208
- Lamb, Charles (1775-1834), 180
- Lamert, James, 53; and C.D., 23, 39, 52, 71; at 16 Bayham Street, 38; leaves the Dickenss, 51; John Dickens quarrels with, 71; Elizabeth Dickens and, 72
- Lamert, Dr Mathew, takes little C.D. to theatre, 22; marries Aunt Fanny, 23
- Landor, Walter Savage (1775-1864), 180, 213, 224; and C.D.'s mock-infatuation with Queen Victoria, 226
- Landseer, Sir Edwin Henry (1802-73), 224, 226
- Lawyers, Vholes a typical Dickensian lawyer, 97-8; C.D.'s view of, 98-9
- Legal system, symbolised in Bleak House, 19
- Leigh, Mary Anne, and C.D., 140-1; her parents as models for C.D.'s characters, 156
- Lemon, Mark (1809-70), C.D. and, 142, 224; declines to publish C.D.'s letter, 252
- Letters of Charles Dickens, to Maria Beadnell, 138-9, 141, 144-5, 147, 285; to Catherine Hogarth, 163, 166-7, 170, 173; on Mary Hogarth, 189-90; asking Forster to walk or ride with him, 205, 211; to his wife, 208, 209, 243, 299; to Bentley, 216; to Beard and Maclise, 223; on his mock-infatuation with Queen Victoria, 227; on the cottage at Alphington, 229; on his unhappy marriage, 250; to Wilkie Collins, 251; on Gad's Hill Place, 254; to Edward Dickens, 260; on his concern about his children, 261; on his mother, 262
- Lewes, George Henry, 111
- Lindsay, Jack, 279
- Little Dorrit*, see Works of Charles Dickens
- London, descriptions of, 37, 79, 131-6; C.D.'s melancholy portrayal of, 78-80; C.D.'s need for, 136; Adelphi, 65, 68; Albany, 224; Bedford Street, 71; Bevis Marks, 208; Blackfriars Bridge, 70, 78; Camden Town (see also Homes of Charles Dickens), 45, 71; Chancery Lane, 97, 99, Chandos Street, 71, 78; Cornhill, 127; Covent Garden, 45, 66, 80, 131, 133, 206; Doctors' Commons, 119, 123, 124, 130, 284; Drury Lane, 65; Fleet Street, 45, 68; Gravesend, 254; Gray's Inn, 94, 103, 104; Greenwich, 114-17, 205; Hampstead, 136, 189, 205; Hampstead Road, 83; Hatton Garden, 208; 5 Holborn Court, 94, 97, 103, 282; Holborn, 39, 79, 174; Hornsey, 199;

London, descriptions of—contd.

Hungerford Market, 76, 153; 30
Hungerford Stairs, 52, 53, 75, 78;
Inner Temple, 181; Kensal Green
Cemetery, 189, 191; Knightsbridge,
167, 205; Leicester Square, 218, 228;
Limehouse, 41, 45, 53; Lincoln's Inn,
119, 160; 2 Lombard Street, 125, 126,
136, 138; New Burlington Street, 183; Manchester Square, 138; Norfolk Street, 5, 130; Norwood, 152,
161; Old Palace Yard, 131; Richmond,
205, 211; Sadler's Wells, 104; St
Giles's, 45, 133; St Martin's-in-the-Fields, 65, 66; St Martin's Lane, 66;
St Paul's, 45, 123, 211; Scotland Yard,
68; Seven Dials, 45, 133; Smithfield,
151; Soho, 39, 41-2; Somers Town,
39, 71, 77, 93, 131; Strand, 39, 65,
78, 104, 156; Tottenham Court Road,
5, 64, 65; Twickenham, 205, 207;
Waterloo Bridge, 76, 104; Willesden,
158; 18 York Place, Fulham Road,
162

Longfellow, Henry Wadsworth (1807-82), 254

Lords, House of, 128, 131

Loving Ballad of Lord Bateman, The, C.D. on mothers-in-law in, 234

Lytton, Edward George Lytton Bulwer-,
1st Baron (1803-73), 158, 178, 180,
224; on John Forster, 182; and C.D., 289

Maclise, Daniel (1806-70), 158, 206, 224;
C.D. invites, 223; and C.D.'s mock-infatuation with Queen Victoria, 226;
a visitor at Broadstairs, 230

Macready, William Charles (1793-1873), 224; C.D.'s admiration for,
110; and John Forster, 181, 182; and C.D., 206, 296; on C.D.'s quarrel with Bentley, 215; intervenes in quarrel between C.D. and Forster, 225; and his wife visitors at Broad-stairs, 230; C.D.'s children stay with,
244; a children's party at his house, 245

Macready, Mrs William, 245

Macrone, John, Ainsworth introduces
C.D. to, 158; calls on C.D., 161;
C.D.'s work for, 167, 176-7; C.D.
complains about Cruikshank to, 169,
178; C.D. asks him to be best man,
170; angry with C.D., 180; asks Ainsworth's advice, 180; and copyright of Sketches, 180, 183; death of, 217

Marcus, Steven, 280; and The Battle of Life, 196; on influence of C.D.'s childhood on his works, 279; on
C.D.'s relationship with Fagin, 280

Marriage, happy marriages in C.D.'s novels, 194-5, 235-6; 'matrimonial bickering', 236-7; C.D.'s marriage a failure, 249-53

Martin Chuzzlewit, see Works of Charles Dickens

Martin, Sir Theodore, 253

Master Humphrey's Clock, see Newspapers and periodicals

Mathews, Charles, C.D.'s admiration for, 95; the range of his gifts, 110;
C.D. writes to, 127-8

Melbourne, William Lamb, 2nd Viscount (1779-1848), Lady Holland and, 212; his association with Mrs Norton material for Bardell v. Pickwick, 288

Miller, J. Hillis, 279, 291

Mitford, Mary Russell (1787-1855), on popularity of Pickwick, 177

Mitton, Thomas, 227; lends C.D. money, 160, 161; C.D. and, 206; a visitor at Broadstairs, 230; C.D. asks him to attend to redecoration of 1
Devonshire Terrace, 242

Molloy, Charles, 119, 160

Money: rents, 4, 48, 161, 169, 187, 214,
229; John Dickens's income, 4, 5;
C.D.'s wages, 52, 72, 103; respect for money at school, 90; salaries and wages of lawyers' clerks, 101; prices of theatre tickets, 111, of oysters, 111, of newspapers, 153; C.D.'s earnings
as a Parliamentary reporter, 130;
C.D.'s salary on Morning Chronicle,
152, 158; for Sketches by Boz, 158,
180, 183; for Pickwick Papers, 169,
176, 218; C.D.'s income, 169; for Gabriel Varden (later renamed Barnaby Rudge), 177, 218; cost of building St James's Theatre, 178; for a children's book by C.D., 179; C.D.'s negotiations with Bentley, 179-80, 215, 217,
218; Chapman and Hall and C.D., 183, 188, 242; C.D.'s estimated profits for Master Humphrey's Clock, 219; cost of furnishing cottage at Alphington, 229; profit of The Chimes, 242; C.D.'s separation allowance to Catherine, 252; purchase price of Gad's Hill Place, 254; C.D.'s allowance to Henry Dickens at Cambridge, 261; C.D.'s allowance to

- his brother's mistress, 262; profits from C.D.'s readings in America, 267; income and expenditure in and about 1817, 271-2; C.D. opens account with Coutts Bank, 285; the sums C.D. could demand, 287
- Navy Pay Office, 9, 72; John Dickens employed in, 4; Thomas Barrow employed in, 41; continues paying John Dickens's salary, 59, 64; John Dickens retires from, 117
- Newnham, Mrs, 37; intercourse with Dickens family, 6; described in Sketches by Boz, 6-7
- Newspapers and Periodicals: All the Year Round, 39, 258-9; Bell's Life in London, 168; Bentley's Miscellany, 228, C.D. offered editorship of, 179, Oliver Twist serialised in, 183, 292, C.D. working on, 184, C.D. asks Jerrold and Thackeray to write for, 206, and the quarrel between C.D. and Bentley, 215, Ainsworth new editor of, 217; Carlton Chronicle, 179; Epicure's Almanack, 65; Evening Chronicle, 103, 156, 162; Examiner, The, Forster literary critic on, 181, C.D. contributes to, 200, 224; Household Words, 'Where We Stopped Growing', 39, 273-4, 'Gone Astray', 40, 41, C.D. writes on social evils in, 143, publication stopped, 259, 'Wreck of the Golden Mary', 272, 'A Child's Dream of a Star', 291; Keepsake, The, 224; Literary Gazette, 177-8; Master Humphrey's Clock, 218-19, 224; Mirror of Parliament, 128, 130, 152, 161; Monthly Magazine, 156; Morning Chronicle, 155, 288, C.D. and, 152, 158, 168, 169, 177, 179, 180, circulation of, 153, prints the work of Boz, 156, The Times's opinion of, 286; Morning Herald, 130, John Dickens employed on, 158, criticises C.D.'s behaviour, 177; Nation, The, 263; Punch, 252; Terrific, The, 92; Times, The, 128, its circulation in 19th century, 153, John Dickens reports for, 283, and Morning Chronicle, 286, and C.D.'s social criticism, 300-1; True Sun, 128, 152, 181
- Nicholas Nickleby*, see Works of Charles Dickens
- O'Connel, Daniel (1775-1847), 129
- Old Curiosity Shop*, The, see Works of Charles Dickens
- Oliver Twist*, see Works of Charles Dickens
- Orwell, George (E. A. Blair, 1903-50), and C.D.'s ménages à trois, 197; on C.D.'s social criticism, 301
- Our Mutual Friend*, see Works of Charles Dickens
- Pakenham, Lady Pansy, xiii, 285, 286
- Paris, C.D. fascinated by morgues of, 19, 45; Maria Beadnell sent to, 129-30; she returns from, 136; C.D. and Wilkie Collins to, 144
- Parliament, Houses of, conditions for reporters in, 128; C.D. works late at, 130; C.D. dislikes workings of, 151
- Pearson, Gabriel, 295
- Petersham, 223
- Picken, Eleanor, C.D. pretends to be in love with, 227-8; her opinion of Fred and C.D., 230; on Letitia Dickens, 230; and the likeness between Quilp and C.D., 232
- Pickford's, at Chatham, 28; in London, 187
- Pocock, Lucina, 161
- Porter, Captain, in Marshalsea, 58, 59-60 'Portwiners, the', 224
- Potter, Charles, 100, 111, 113-14, 117
- Preston, C.D. visits, for background to Hard Times, 142
- Prisons, C.D.'s obsession with, 60-2, 73; Fleet Prison, 59, 60, 61; King's Bench, 59, 63-4; Marshalsea Debtors' Prison, 61, 72, 73, 78, 93, John Dickens in, 57-60, 64, John Dickens leaves, 71, C.D.'s experiences painful to record, 142; Newgate, 61-2, 207
- Pritchett, V. S., 282, 300
- Public Hanging, C.D. witnesses, 224
- Punch and Judy, 70, 278-9
- Putnam, George, 245, 295
- Railways, 76-7
- Reactionaries, C.D.'s attitude to, 128, 151
- Reform Bill, 128-9
- Reformers, C.D.'s attitude to, 128-9, 151
- Religion, C.D.'s antipathy to nonconformism, 31-3, 275; C.D. attends Chapel, 93; C.D. questions Mary Hogarth about, 190; C.D.'s views on missionary work and narrow religion, 200; C.D.'s religion, 275
- River, the, 76; C.D.'s fascination with, 43-5; visible from Warren's warehouse, 53

- Rochester, Pickwick at, 10; described in Edwin Drood, 10-11; Theatre Royal at, 20, 22, 23
- Rogers, Samuel (1763-1855), opinions of, 213; and C.D., 213; and Mrs Dickens, 214
- Rome, 241
- Royal Academy, 175, 176
- Roylance, Mrs, 64, 71
- Russell, Lord John (later cr. Earl, 1792-1878), 151, 153, 212
- St Clement's Day, 14-15
- Santayana, George (1863-1952), 178
- Seymour, Robert, C.D. to write text for drawings of, 168; to illustrate C.D.'s text, 169; commits suicide, 175
- Shakespeare Society, 206, 211
- Shakespeare, William, 21-2, 127; Hamlet, 106, 108; Julius Caesar, 107; Richard III, 103; Romeo and Juliet, 105, 227
- Shaw, George Bernard (1856-1950), 264
- Shaw, William, model for Wackford Squeers, 209
- Shiers, Mr (master at Wellington House), 84
- Smith, Payne and Smith's Bank, 127; Mr Beadnell becomes manager of, 125; possible original of Tellson's Bank, 285
- Smithson, Charles, 227, 230
- Smithson, Mrs Charles, 228, 230
- Stanfield, Clarkson (1794-1867), 245
- Storey, Graham, xiii
- Stroughill, George, 7, 8, 56, 272
- Stroughill, Lucy, 56, and C.D., 8, 29-30, 39; model for Golden Lucy, 272
- Switzerland, 136, 195
- Tale of Two Cities*, A, see Works of Charles Dickens
- Talfourd, Sir Thomas Noon (1795-1854), 206, 212
- Taylor, Mr (master at Wellington House), model for Mr Mell, 85
- Tennyson, Alfred, 1st Baron Tennyson (1809-92), 180
- Ternan, Ellen, C.D. falls in love with, 250-1; C.D. asks his wife to call on, 251-2; C.D. provides for, 262, 301; C.D.'s relationship with, 265, 267, 297; and death of C.D., 269
- Thackeray, William Makepeace (1811-63), C.D. and, 143, 224, 253; suggested as illustrator of Pickwick Papers, 176; on John Forster, 181; on The Battle of Life, 196; at Macready's Christmas party, 246; his opinion of Little Dorrit, 264; on C.D.'s appearance, 283
- Theatre, the, little C.D. fascinated by, 20-3, 41, 70; travelling circuses, 70; C.D. performs, 103; C.D.'s writings influenced by, 104-5, 109; C.D. and Potter attend, 111; C.D. takes Catherine to, 166; C.D.'s great relaxation, 251
- Theatres, 104; Adelphi, 156; Astley's, 106, 109; Covent Garden, 106, 107, 109, 206; Drury Lane, 56, 106, 109; Haymarket, 106; Richardson's theatre at Greenwich Fair, 116; St James's, 177, 178, 184, 188; Theatre Royal, Rochester, 20, 22, 23, 28, 109; Westminster Subscription Theatre, 109, 282
- Theatrical performances, at Wellington House Academy, 92; in private theatres, 103-4; monopoly in 'legitimate drama', 106; at Astley's, 106; by Vincent Crummies company, 107-8; heckling at, 108-9; amateur theatricals at Bentinck Street, 139-40; charades at Gad's Hill, 256
- Thompson, T. J., and Christiana Weller, 239-40, 296
- Topping, William, C.D.'s groom, 227, 293
- Trilling, Lionel, 74
- Trollope, Anthony (1815-82), on C.D.'s style, 264
- Trollope, Thomas Adolphus (1810-92), on C.D.'s charm, 255; on C.D.'s appearance, 293
- Victoria, Queen (1819-1901), 226
- Wagenknecht, Professor Edward, 297
- Walters, at 'New Thirteen Cantons', 65; always described unfavourably, 278
- Warren, Jonathan, 51-2
- Warren, Robert, 51, 78
- Warren's Blacking warehouse, 73, 93, 142, 279; little C.D. employed at, 52, 53, 55-7; moves to new premises, 71; C.D. dismissed from, 71; C.D.'s account of, 72; C.D.'s ambition on leaving, 99
- Weller, Christiana, 239-40; 296
- Weller, Mary, 6, 20, 25; on C.D., 8, 23, 25; on C.D.'s mother, 8; her stories terrify C.D., 16-19; leaves Dickens family, 38
- Wellington House Academy, 83-6, 89-93
- Wilkes, George, 142

Willis, Nathaniel Parker, 161
 Wills, W. H., 254
 Wilson, Angus, on C.D.'s nature, 219, 302
 Wilson, Edmund, 297; and Pickwick Papers, 60, 277; and C.D.'s later work, 264; and impact of C.D.'s childhood on his works, 279
 Windsor, 205, 226
 Winter, Henry, 146
 Works of Charles Dickens:
   American Notes, 61
   Barnaby Rudge (see also Gabriel Varden, Locksmith of London), 53, 75; and child-parent relationships, 74; to appear in Bentley's Miscellany, 216; postponed, 217; C.D., the mob and, 286-7; Dennis, the Hangman, 61; Hugh, 61; Barnaby Rudge, 61; Dolly Varden, 142; Gabriel Varden, 236; Mrs Varden, 31-2, 236
   Battle of Life, The, 201; written in Geneva, 195; assessment, of, 196; a biographical document, 196-7; Alfred Heathfield, 195, 196-7; Dr Jeddler, 196; Grace Jeddler, 195, 196-7; Jeddler, Marion, 195, 196-7; Snitchey and Craggs, 99
   Bleak House, 73; legal system symbolised in, 19; time setting vague in, 77; depressing picture of London in, 80; Henry James on, 263-4; Mr and Mrs Bagnet, 236; Mr Chadband, 32-3; Sir Leicester Dedlock, 113; Mr George, 106; Mr Guppy, 101-3; Mr and Mrs Jellyby, 236; Jo, the crossing-sweeper, 276; Kenge and Carboy, 99, 101-3; Krook, the 'Lord Chancellor', 19; Mrs Rouncewell, 3; Harold Skimpole, 206, 236; Bart Smallweed, 101-3; Mr and Mrs Smallweed, 236; Mr Snagsby, 33, 99-100; Mrs Snagsby, 33; Esther Summerson, 44, 249; Tom-All-Alone's, 73, 275-6; Mr Tulkinghorn, 98, 113; Mr Vholes, 97
   Child's History of England, A, 19
   Chimes, The, 136, 242
   Christmas Carol, A, 245
   Christmas Tree, A, 30
   Cricket on the Hearth, The, 249
   David Copperfield, 81, 196; the 'better world' of childhood, 30; set in early 19th century, 77; C.D. falls ill while writing, 78; and C.D.'s memories of Maria Beadnell, 147; C.D.'s childhood memories and, 201; modelled on Tom Jones, 275; waiters in, 278; Mrs Clara Copperfield, 74; David Copperfield, 68, 291, and the Rookery, Blunderstone, 30; on Micawber and his creditors, 48; his despair at Murdstone and Grinby's, 57; and Traddles, 75; ashamed of his past, 84; after the theatre, 106-7; his dress, 112; learns shorthand, 117-19; C.D. compares him with himself, 143-4; and death of Dora, 193, and the brother-sister relationship, 198, 'a young gentleman', 277; Mr Creakle, 85-6; Rosa Dartle, 74; Mr Dick (Richard Babley), 75, 290-1; Little Em'ly, 43, 74; Martha Endell, 43-4, 74; Uriah Heep, 74, 98; Mr Mell, 85; Mrs Micawber, 75, and Mr Micawber, 24-5, 276-7, her 'Establishment for Young Ladies', 47-8, her catch-phrase, 110; Wilkins Micawber, 47, 61, 289, John Dickens model for, 24-5, threatened by creditors, 48, and David Copperfield, 75, his wife influenced by his style of speech, 276-7; Edward Murdstone, 75, 289; Jane Murdstone, 32, 75, 199; the Orfling, 74; Daniel Peggotty, 84; Ham Peggotty, 74; Salem House, 83, 85; Dora Spenlow, 74, 142, 193, 198; Spenlow and Jorkins, 99; Mr Spenlow, 278; James Steerforth, 74, 123-5, 272; Annie Strong, 74, 250, Dr Strong, 86; Thomas Traddles, 74, 75, 111; Betsey Trotwood, 75, 123, 294-5; Agnes Wickfield, 74, 198, 250, 291; Mr Wickfield, 98; Wickfield and Heep, 99

   Dombey and Son, 19, 279; London scenes in, 37, 79; and parental love, 74; arouses C.D.'s childhood memories, 201; Dr Blimber, 88, 89; Master Blitherstone, 194; Mrs Brown, 20; Harriet Carker, 199; James Carker, 199; the Charitable Grinders, 86-8; Mr and Mrs Chick, 236; Florence Dombey, 20, 192, 193, 194; Mr Dombey, 74; Paul Dombey, 11, 73, and the river, 44, death of, 193, and his sister, 194, drawn after one of Fanny's children, 199; Rev. Melchisedech Howler, 32; Mrs Pipchin, 12, 64, 194, 288

Edwin Drood, The Mystery of, 53, 278; description of Rochester in, 10-11; unfinished, 270; Rev. Septimus Crisparkle, 32; Hiram Grewgious, 99
Gabriel Varden, the Locksmith of London (see also Barnaby Rudge), C.D. agrees to write, 176-7, 179; Macrone, C.D. and, 180; renamed Barnaby Rudge, 216

Great Expectations, 278; prison hulks described, 15; convicts in, 15; the marshes, 28; comment on injustice to children, 35; set in early 19th century, 77; lawyers' clerks portrayed in, 100; C.D. preoccupied with Charley while writing, 258; Estella, 265; Joe Gargery, 14, 53, 84; Miss Havisham, 61, 113; Mr Jaggers, 97; Magwitch, 20, 74; Pip (Philip Pirrip), 28, at Newgate, 61, and Magwitch, 74, wants to be a gentleman, 84, sees Hamlet, 108, refined speech of, 277; Herbert Pocket, 108; Mr Wopsle, 108

Hard Times, atmosphere of, 19; C.D. feels 'dreary' in writing, 142; C.D. feels 'used up' after writing, 143; G. B. Shaw on, 264; Mr Gradgrind, 88-9, 300; Cissy Jupe, 277; Mr M'Choakumchild, 88-9

Haunted Man, The, 200-1; Mr Redlaw, 200-1; Milly Swidger, 200

Little Dorrit, 20, 73, 196; description of Marshalsea, 58; and imprisonment, 60; Trilling on inadequate parents in, 74; London scene in, 79, 80; Thackeray's opinion of, 264; names from, 289; Flora Casby, 145-6; John Chivery, 76; Arthur Clennam, 73, 76, and religion, 31, in Marshalsea, 61, meets Flora Casby again, 145-6; Mrs Clennam, 31, 61; Amy Dorrit (Little Dorrit), drawn after Mary Hogarth, 191, and death of her father, 192, and her brother, 198, neatness of, 249, refined speech, of, 277; Edward Dorrit, 198; William Dorrit, 59, 60, 61, 160, 192; Jeremy Flintwich, 236; Henry Gowan, 264; Maggie, 20; Mr Merdle, 129; Tattycoram, 76

Martin Chuzzlewit, 25, 73; description of Covent Garden in, 66; description of river traffic in, 68; set in early 19th century, 76; on wandering in London, 131; Martin

Chuzzlewit, 288; Sarah Gamp, 42, 73, 76-7, 289; Nadgett, 104; Seth Pecksniff, 278; Ruth Pinch, 194-5, 287; Tom Pinch, 159-60, 194-5; Poll Sweedlepipe, 42; Mark Tapley, 113; Montague Tigg, 159-60; John Westlock, 194-5, 287

Nicholas Nickleby, 48, 73, 217, 223, 225; description of a London journey, 45; set in early 19th century, 76; London scene in, 79; astonishing sales of, 211; meeting of Improved Hot Muffin Company, 278; early chapters founded on C.D.'s experiences, 292; Madeline Bray, 195, 295; Walter Bray, 109; Vincent Crummles, 105, 282; Dotheboys Hall, 88, 274, and parental responsibility, 74, C.D. gathers material for, 208-9; Mr Gregsby, 129; Arthur Gride, 295; Mr Lillyvick, 211; Madame Mantalini, 50; Kate Nickleby, 50, 194, 195; Mrs Nickleby, 48-50, 277; Nicholas Nickleby, and his mother, 49, at Dotheboys Hall, 88, employed by Vincent Crummles, 104-5, watches Miss Snellicci's performance, 107, melodramatic speech of, 109, and his sister, 194, 195; Ralph Nickleby, 50, 109; Newman Noggs, 100; Smike, 49, 104-5; Miss Snellicci, 107; Wackford Squeers, 88, 89, 209, 274

Old Curiosity Shop, The, 73, 224, 279; figureheads of ships described in, 28, 43; set in early 19th century, 76; Pearson on C.D.'s attitude to death in, 231-2; C.D., the mob and, 286-7; Barbara, 106; Sally Brass, 38, 199; Sampson Brass, 99, 208; Abel Garland, 236; Mr and Mrs Garland, 235; Mrs Jarley, 53-5; Mrs Jiniwin, 232, 234-5; Little Nell (Nell Trent), 232, an orphan, 74, dead, 185, death of, 191-2, 231, 295, Quilp and, 233-4, moves C.D. to tears, 245, neatness of, 249; Kit Nubbles, 33, 74, 84, 106; Mrs Nubbles, 33; Daniel Quilp, 20, drowned, 43, his resemblance to C.D., 232, and Mrs Quilp, 232-3, and Little Nell, 233, and Mrs Jiniwin, 234-5; Mrs Quilp, 232-3; Mr Slum, 53-5; Dick Swiveller, 38, 74, 104, 233, 290-1; Mr Trent, 234

Works of Charles Dickens—contd.

Oliver Twist, 73, 207, 216; psychological effect on C.D. of writing, 78; serialised in Bentley's Miscellany, 183; C.D. working on, 184, 205; consolidating C.D.'s reputation, 187; and the quarrel between C.D. and Bentley, 215; Bentley sells his interest in, 218; pirated for Surrey Theatre, 292; indictment of Poor Law in, 300; Mr Bumble, 289; Fagin the Jew, 61, origin of his name, 77, John Bayley on, 78, C.D. and, 207-8; Mr Fang, 208; Mr Grimwig, 110; Rose Maylie, 191; Nancy, 43, 207, 266; Bill Sikes, 43, 207; Oliver Twist, drawn from C.D.'s own experience, 77, refined speech of, 277, relationship with Fagin, 280

Our Mutual Friend, 53, atmosphere of, 19, 44; London described in, 80; Henry James's review of, 263-4; Bradley Headstone, 44; Charlie Hexham, 44; Lizzie Hexham, 44, 277; Betty Higden, 44; Helena Landless, 265; Mortimer Lightwood, 79, 98; Podsnap, 182; Bella Wilfer, 265; Eugene Wrayburn, 79, 99

Pickwick Papers, 60; quotations from, 9, 10; Chatham described in, 12; troop inspection in, 34; Warren's mentioned in, 53; historical period of, 75-6; comment on hangovers in, 100; comments on lawyers' clerks in, 100-1; C.D. conceives idea of, 169; not an immediate success, 174-5; in jeopardy, 175; Browne (Phiz) new artist for, 176; begins to be popular, 177; considered a vulgar method of publication, 178; considered a masterpiece, 178; Sketches issued in covers similar to, 180; 1st anniversary of, 188; C.D. at work on last chapters of, 205; dedicated to Talfourd, 206; affinities with 18th-century classics, 274; waiters' gait described in, 278; material for 'Bardell v. Pickwick', 288; Dodson and Fogg, 97, 99, 101; Fizkin, Horatio, 129; Alfred Jingle, 10, 110, 113, 123; Joe, the Fat Boy, 273; Mr Perker, 100; Pickwick Club, 110-11; Samuel Pickwick, 9, 10, 59, 73, in the Fleet, 60-1, appearance, 113, unprecedented popularity of, 177, a confirmed bachelor, 236, C.D.'s difficulty in pronouncing, 267, origin of the name, 288; Dr Slammer, 23; Hon. Samuel Slumkey, 129; Augustus Snodgrass, 9; Mr Wardle, 236; Sam Weller, 277, 289, sterling qualities of, 84, his clothing, 113, and Mr Jingle, 123, and his marriage, 236, and Sam Vale, the comedian, 283; Tony Weller, 53, 75, 236; Nathaniel Winkle, 9

Reprinted Pieces, 'A Child's Dream of a Star', 30; 'Our School', 11, 85, 90, 92

Sketches by Boz, 167, 285; 'Our Parish', 6-7; 'The First of May', 30; Warren's mentioned in, 53; 'Criminal Courts', 62; 'The Boarding House', 113; 'Omnibuses', 114; 'The Last Cab Driver', 114; 'Greenwich Fair', 114, 116; 'Doctors' Commons', 125; 'Early Coaches', 133; 'Seven Dials', 135; 'Gin Shops', 135-6; 'A Parliamentary Sketch', 151; published 1836, 168; well reviewed, 168; Pickwick less successful than, 174; C.D. collects material for 2nd series, 176; C.D. sells Macrone entire copyright, 180; C.D. buys back copyright, 183; 'The Steam Excursion', 278

Sunday Under Three Heads, 176

Tale of Two Cities, A, 75, 196; waiter's behaviour in, 278; C.D., the mob and, 286-7; Sydney Carton, 99; Jerry Cruncher, 221, 237; Mrs Cruncher, 237; Mr Lorry, 198-9; Lucy Manette, 251; Miss Pross, 198; Solomon Pross, 198; Mr Stryver, 99; Tellson's Bank, 285

Uncommercial Traveller, The, quotation from, 1; 'Birthday Celebrations', 8; 'Chips and the Rats', from 'Nurse's Stories', 16-17; 'Dullborough Town', 15, 28-30; story of Captain Murderer from 'Nurse's Stories', 17-19; 'Mr Barlow', 22; 'Refreshments for Travelers', 278

Village Coquettes, The, 169, 176, 177

Yorkshire Schools, 274; C.D. and Browne visit, 208-9

Zion Baptist Chapel, Chatham, 30, 31,