Introduction	1
Working with the Text	4
PART 1 BACKGROUNDS AND CONTEXTS	9
1 Background to our research: reasons and purposes	11
What are our concerns?
2 Contexts of our research	28
Why are we concerned?
3 Looking for data	47
What experiences can we describe to show why we are concerned?
PART 2 GATHERING DATA AND GENERATING EVIDENCE	61
4 Monitoring practice and gathering data	63
What kind of data will we gather to show the situation as it unfolds?
5 Interpreting the data and generating evidence in relation to living critical standards of judgement	80
How do we explain our educational influences in learning?
PART 3 ESTABLISHING VALIDITY AND LEGITIMACY	95
6 Validity, legitimacy and moral authority	97
How do we show that any conclusions we come to are reasonably fair and accurate?

7	The potential significance of our research	112
	How do we show the potential significance of our research?
PART 4	IMPLICATIONS, EVALUATIONS AND DISSEMINATION	125
8	Case studies	127
	How do we show the implications of our research?
9	Evaluating the account of our research	140
	How do we evaluate the evidence-based account of our learning?
PART 5	TESTING OUR CLAIMS TO EDUCATIONAL KNOWLEDGE	153
10	Into new research	155
	How do we modify our concerns, ideas and practices in the light of our evaluations?
