

Contents

|     |  |
|-----|--|
| 7   | Rajko Muršič and Božidar Jezernik, Introduction. The Balkans in/and Europe  |
| 11  | Božidar Jezernik, Europeanisation of the Balkans as the Cause of its Balkanisation  |
| 29  | Cathie Carmichael, The Destruction of Religious Communities and the Old Infrastructure in the Balkans, Anatolia and the Russian Empire C. 1870-1923             |
| 45  | Bojan Baskar, Austronostalgia and Yugonostalgia in the Western Balkans  |
| 63  | Alenka Bartulović, Identity - a Fashion Fad? Unravelling the Secrets of the Popularity of Identity through the Appropriation of Bruce Lee in Bosnia-Herzegovina |
| 87  | Rajko Muršič, The Balkans and Ambivalence of its Perception in Slovenia: the Horror of "Balkanism" and Enthusiasm for its Music                                 |
| 107 | Risto Pekka Pennanen, Immortalised on Wax - Professional Folk Musicians and their Gramophone Recordings Made in Sarajevo, 1907 and 1908                         |
| 149 | Frank Kressing, The Specific Situation of Religion in Albania and the Albanian Bektashis - an Example for Crossing Religious and Political Boundaries           |
| 169 | Saša Nedeljković, "Europe, Sleep Still - Serbia Is Awake", The War between the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and the NATO Forces as an Identity Problem        |
| 187 | Petra Stefanović, The Parallels and Differences between Tito's Yugoslavia and Franco's Spain: the After-effects   |
| 205 | Narcisa Ştiucă, Ethnic and Civic Identity of an Italian Community from Romanian Dobruja   |
| 221 | Index  |