

Table of content

Preface.....	7
--------------	---

I. Institutional aspects of cooperation

Tomasz Dubowski Visegrad Group – common goals and potential at the level of European Union institutions. Selected issues.....	11
Anna Doliwa-Klepcka Experiences of the Presidency of the Visegrad States	25
Krzysztof Prokop, Andrzej Jackiewicz European clauses in the constitutions of the Visegrad Group member states.....	35

II. Sectoral dimensions of cooperation

Filip Křepelka Diverging policies of Central European countries on the Euro	49
Gábor Kecő The impacts of public debt and deficit convergence criteria on local indebtedness in Hungary	59
Bernadett Varga Analysis of the European Savings Directive	71
Lukáš Kralovič Taxation related to foreign investments in Slovakia.....	81
Magdalena Perkowska Common EU external border – common threats (case of Poland, Slovakia, and Hungary).....	93

Agnieszka Piekutowska
Post-accession labor emigration – varied experience of the Visegrad Group member states.	105
Iwona Wrońska
The policy of development and support for human rights protection by the Visegrad Group states from the 10-year EU membership perspective	117
Maciej Perkowski
The Visegrad dimension of international cooperation of Polish provinces.	129
III. Future and challenges of the Visegrad cooperation
Elżbieta Kuźelewska, Adam R. Bartnicki, Ryszard Skarżyński
Origins of and perspectives for the future for the Visegrad Group	145
Jan Mazur
Reinvention of the Visegrad Group: what is Visegrad after 10 years in the EU?	159
Magdalena Musiał-Karg, Elżbieta Lesiewicz
Direct democracy in the Visegrad Group countries in the context of the Central and Eastern Europe's experiences and membership of the EU – selected issues	169
Marta Janina Skrodzka
Law of the European Union on mediation in civil and commercial matters and a mediation process in V4 countries	185
Summary.	199
References.	201
Contributors	215