

Contents

FOREWORD

vii

PART I

ABIEL AND HIS SON OLIVER. 1800-1841

- | | | |
|-----|--|----|
| I | The Reverend Abiel Holmes decides to write a book and marry a Wendell. | I |
| II | Mr. and Mrs. Abiel Holmes. A son is born. | 12 |
| III | Mr. Madison's war and the Hartford Convention. Oliver Wendell Holmes is a boy in Cambridge. Abiel Holmes sees a threat to the old religion. | 24 |
| IV | Oliver Holmes goes to school and college. His father finishes the Annals of America. | 36 |
| V | Oliver Holmes is graduated from Harvard. Abiel loses his parish. | 48 |
| VI | Oliver changes his profession. He goes abroad to study. Abiel Holmes sees his son receive a prize. | 59 |
| VII | Oliver Holmes is a physician. Death of Abiel Holmes. Oliver marries a Jackson and names his first-born Oliver Wendell Holmes. | 72 |

PART II

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES, JUNIOR. 1841-1861

- | | | |
|------|--|----|
| VIII | State of the Union when o.w.h. was born. Dr. Holmes becomes Professor of Anatomy at the Harvard Medical School. | 84 |
|------|--|----|

IX	Wendell Holmes is a boy in Boston. He meets Mr. Dixwell, his future father-in-law.	94
X	The nation grows restless. Wendell Holmes gets ready for Harvard.	104
XI	Harvard College. Autocrat of the Breakfast-Table. Uncle John gives his autograph.	115
XII	Harvard College, continued. Father and son. Fanny Dixwell.	124
XIII	Lincoln's election. War. Class Day at Harvard.	134

PART III

THE SOLDIER. 1861-1864

XIV	The Twentieth Regiment. Ball's Bluff.	147
XV	The Seven Days. Antietam. Dr. Holmes hunts for a wounded captain.	162
XVI	Father and son. Holmes's third wound.	175
XVII	Ten months at home. The Wilderness. Holmes is mustered out.	185
XVIII	Law School.	199
XIX	The war ends. Holmes asks himself some questions about the law.	212

PART IV

THE LAWYER. 1866-1882

XX	William James. Fanny Dixwell. Wendell Holmes plays with his mind.	220
XXI	Holmes reads law. He is examined for the Bar.	233
XXII	Counsellor at Law. "To know is not less than to feel."	242
XXIII	Kent's Commentaries. Holmes sails for the Pole.	251
XXIV	Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wendell Holmes, Junior.	261
XXV	Holmes works at the office. He prepares a little book on The Common Law.	271

- XXVI Holmes lectures on the Common Law. He presents his father with a book, and is made a full professor at the Law School. 284

PART V

JUDGE IN MASSACHUSETTS. 1882-1902

- XXVII A Judge with a sense of history. And a brief summary of the conditions that confronted him. 297
- XXVIII Judge in Massachusetts. 306
- XXIX Judge Holmes dissents from his brethren. Farewell to the doctor. 316
- XXX Fanny Holmes and her husband. Vegelah v. Guntner. Theodore Roosevelt enters the scene, and the old century is ended. 326
- XXXI Chief Justice in Massachusetts. Roosevelt writes to Lodge about Holmes. Farewell to Boston. 342

PART VI

WASHINGTON. 1902-1935

- XXXII Justice and Mrs. Holmes move to Washington. 355
- XXXIII The Northern Securities case. Theodore Roosevelt frowns. The Lochner case. 368
- XXXIV The Justice is seventy. Holmes's Annuals. He makes a prophecy. 379
- XXXV World War. The U. S. v. Child Labor. War's aftermath. Holmes defends the Bill of Rights. 387
- XXXVI "The Great Dissenter." 395
- XXXVII Fanny Dixwell Holmes. "Tell him I loved him." Philosophy in a hard hour. 403
- XXXVIII Holmes's last dissent. He resigns from the Court. A nation's greeting. 409
- XXXIX Death of Oliver Wendell Holmes. A soldier's burial. The great affirmer. 418