

CONTENTS

CHAPTER ONE	INTRODUCTION	1
	1. Society, Ideology and Fiction: Definitions, Relations and Evaluations	1
	2. An Example: A Sketch of the Literary Debate 1850-1900	8
	3. The Validity of the Kailyard as a Study Focus	13
	4. Aims and Method of Work.	17
	5. Theoretical Framework and Chapter Structure	18
CHAPTER TWO	THE LATE VICTORIAN LITERARY INSTITUTION AND THE KAILYARD	20
	1. Introduction	20
	2. The Author's Situation: the Kailyarders within the British Literary Institution	21
	3. British Market Problems: Scottish Predecessors, the Portrayal of Scotland and the Problem of Dialect.	27
	4. The Late Victorian Popular Critic: W.R. Nicoll as Arbiter of Taste	35
	5. Nonconformist Liberalism in Late Victorian Britain: the Religious and Political Context of the British Weekly	38
	6. The British Weekly audience and the Readership Stance of Nicoll, Barrie and MacLaren from a Nonconformist, and General Victorian Viewpoint	42
	7. Criticism of the Kailyard	50
	8. Conclusion	63
CHAPTER THREE	THE RISE AND FALL OF THE AMERICAN KAILYARD 1891-97: POPULAR ACCLAIM, CRITICAL COMMENT AND IDEOLOGICAL CONTEXT	66
	1. Introduction	66
	2. The Scottish Literary Image in America	68
	3. The Religious Factor in Kailyard Reception	73
	4. Native American Writing: The Local-Color School.	75
	5. The Scottish Audience in America.	78
	6. Urbanization: Mass Market, Copyright and Foreign Domination.	80
	7. American Criticism of the Kailyard and the End of the Vogue	84
	8. Kailyard Awareness of Audience and Criticism.	87
	9. Kailyard Ideology in America and Britain.	90
	10. Conclusion	95

CHAPTER FOUR	BARRIE'S THRUMS: SOCIAL SPACE, NARRATOR FUNCTION AND IDEOLOGY.	98
	1. Introduction	98
	2. Social Space and Narrator Function in Thrums.	104
	a) Auld Licht Idylls	104
	b) A Window in Thrums	110
	c) Margaret Ogilvy	120
	3. Female Careers and a Successful Son: Family Ideology in Margaret Ogilvy	123
	a) Barrie and Women: Introductory Comment.	123
	b) Mother-Son Devotion.	124
	c) Sisterly Self-Sacrifice	127
	d) Men in the Background.	130
	e) Conclusion	131
	4. Working Class Life in Thrums: Fiction, Ideology and Reality	134
	a) Introduction	134
	b) Auld Licht Idylls	135
	c) A Window in Thrums	142
	d) Margaret Ogilvy	147
	5. Conclusion	149
CHAPTER FIVE	DRUMTOCHTY AND THE CITY: IDEOLOGY AND NARRATOR FUNCTION IN MACLAREN'S MINISTER-CENTRED COMMUNITIES	155
	1. Introduction	155
	2. Ian Maclaren: Minister as Writer	158
	3. Maclaren's Views in Religion and Politics: Biographical Ties to the Fictional Themes of Consensus and Reconciliation	167
	4. Narrator Stance in Maclaren	179
	5. Consensus and Reconciliation in the Rural Community	188
	a) The Community of Ministers	188
	b) Gentry-Community Relations	193
	6. Afterwards and Other Stories: Class, Profession and Education in the Urban Community	197
	7. Rural Life in Drumtochty: Fiction, Ideology and Reality	204
	8. Conclusion	209
CHAPTER SIX	CONCLUSION	214
NOTES		218
BIBLIOGRAPHY		260