

SUMMARY OF CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xix
Table of Legislation	xlix
1. Introduction and Plan	1
2. European Rules of Private International Law: Structure and Methods	38
3. Common Law Rules of Private International Law: Structure and Methods	89
4. Jurisdiction	168
5. Judicial Assistance and Judicial Intervention	361
6. Foreign Judgments	406
7. Contractual Obligations	500
8. Non-contractual Obligations	617
9. Property	703
10. Corporations	800
11. Corporate Insolvency and Personal Bankruptcy	834
12. Adult Relationships	890
13. Children and Parental Responsibility	953
14. Arbitration	991
Index	1031

CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xix
Table of Legislation	xlix

1. Introduction and Plan

A. Introduction	1.01
B. The Common Law Approach to Private International Law	1.03
C. Fundamentals of the Common Law Rules of Private International Law	1.09
1. Territoriality	1.10
2. Equity operates in personam	1.13
3. Pragmatism	1.16
4. The role of statutes in a common law structure	1.24
5. Judicial development of the common law rules	1.34
6. Terminology	1.39
D. The European Scheme of Private International Law	1.42
1. Legislative ambition	1.44
2. Rules of interpretation	1.53
3. Purpose of European rules	1.56
4. Impact on the common law rules and method	1.57
E. Arrangement of This Book	1.63
1. Scheme and organization	1.64
2. Introduction to and summary of the coverage	1.66
3. Foreseen and foreseeable statutory changes	1.78
4. Secondary reading	1.109

2. European Rules of Private International Law: Structure and Methods

A. Introduction	2.01
1. Comparison with common law techniques	2.03
2. General aims of European legislation	2.09
B. The Law	2.14
(1) The rules are rules of European law	2.19
(2) Legislative terms have a uniform meaning	2.34
(3) Interpretation should promote legal certainty	2.46

(4) Legislative terms should have a common meaning across the Regulations	2.60
(5) All linguistic versions of European legislation are equally authentic	2.72
(6) The functional distinction between general and exceptional rules	2.75
(7) Legislative provisions should not generally overlap	2.78
(8) Interpretation should protect the position of weaker parties	2.83
(9) Interpretation should protect the rights of the defence	2.88
(10) The interpretation of habitual residence as a connecting factor	2.93
(11) Evidence and procedure are European terms of art in European legislation	2.110
(12) Excluded matters are European terms of art when used in European legislation	2.117
3. Common Law Rules of Private International Law: Structure and Methods
A. Introduction	3.01
1. Outline of the material examined in this chapter	3.08
B. The Law	3.15
(1) Foreign law in English courts	3.18
(2) Characterization of legal issues	3.48
(3) The principle of renvoi and the meaning of 'law'	3.64
(4) Incidental questions of the applicable law	3.80
(5) The common law approach to connecting factors in general	3.84
(6) Personal connecting factors used in the common law: domicile, residence, and nationality	3.102
(7) The treatment of statutes in the common law conflict of laws	3.126
(8) The principle of comity	3.137
(9) The legacy of the separate history of common law and equity	3.143
(10) Dissatisfaction with the basic approach of the common law rules	3.148
(11) The common law approach to issues of procedure	3.157
(12) The exclusion of penal, revenue, and public laws of the lex causae	3.185
4. Jurisdiction
A. Types and Bases of Jurisdiction	4.01
1. Personal jurisdiction	4.02
2. Subject matter jurisdiction	4.05
3. Jurisdiction to rule on jurisdiction	4.09
4. Public (international) law limitations on jurisdiction	4.13
B. The Brussels I Regulation, Regulation 1215/2012	4.19
1. Legislative history	4.23
2. The Brussels and Lugano instruments	4.25
3. Commencing proceedings where the Regulation confers jurisdiction	4.40
C. The Law	4.44
(1) The scope and effect of the Regulation: date, subject matter, and domicile: Articles 1, 5, 62, 63, 66, and 73	4.49

(2) Jurisdiction under another international instrument: Articles 67, 71, and 73	4.103
(3) Exclusive jurisdiction regardless of domicile: Article 24	4.113
(4) Prorogation of jurisdiction by appearance: Article 26	4.139
(5) Privileged jurisdiction in matters relating to insurance: Articles 10 to 16	4.146
(6) Privileged jurisdiction over certain contracts made by consumers: Articles 17 to 19	4.152
(7) Privileged jurisdiction over individual contracts of employment: Articles 20 to 23	4.168
(8) Prorogation of jurisdiction by agreement in writing: Article 25	4.179
(9) General jurisdiction based on the domicile of the defendant: Article 4	4.219
(10) Special jurisdiction over a defendant domiciled in another Member State: Articles 7 to 9	4.227
(11) Residual jurisdiction, where the rules are incorporated from the common law: Article 6	4.300
(12) Jurisdiction to grant provisional and protective measures: Article 35	4.306
(13) Investigation and confirmation of the basis for jurisdiction: Articles 27 and 28	4.310
(14) Jurisdictional effect of concurrent proceedings in another Member State: Articles 29 to 32	4.322
(15) Concurrent proceedings in (and of other facts and matters pointing to) a non-Member State: Articles 33 and 34	4.351
D. Jurisdiction Within the United Kingdom When the Regulation Gives International Jurisdiction to the Courts of the United Kingdom	4.374
1. The provisions set out in the 1982 Act, as amended	4.375
2. Effect of the rules of national law	4.376
3. Domicile for the purposes of the Regulation	4.378
4. Forum conveniens as between the parts of the United Kingdom	4.379
E. Residual Regulation Jurisdiction under Article 6; and Jurisdiction in Matters Falling Outside the Scope of the Regulation	4.384
1. The basis of jurisdiction at common law	4.385
2. Common law jurisdiction founded on service within the jurisdiction	4.390
3. The common law approach to jurisdiction clauses	4.421
4. Common law jurisdiction established by service out of the jurisdiction	4.430
5. Judicial Assistance and Judicial Intervention
A. Introduction	5.01
B. The Law	5.08
(1) Assistance in the service of process	5.10

(2) Assistance in the obtaining of evidence	5.33
(3) Orders freezing or ordering the preservation of assets	5.60
(4) Orders to provide security for costs	5.85
(5) Judicial intervention: the anti-suit injunction	5.89
6. Foreign Judgments
A. Introduction	6.01
1. A rough guide to the law on foreign judgments in English courts	6.02
2. The law as a number of concurrent schemes	6.07
B. European Legislation on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments	6.08
1. Background	6.08
2. Enforcement under the Brussels Convention and the original Regulation 44/2001	6.11
3. Enforcement under the recast Brussels I Regulation 1215/2012	6.14
4. Terminology	6.18
C. The Principles which Underpin the Common Law Rules of Private International Law	6.19
1. The gulf between Regulation and non-Regulation judgments	6.20
2. Future reform of (or to displace) the common law rules	6.22
3. The common law rules of private international law in summary	6.25
D. The Law	6.26
(1) Foreign judgments falling within the material scope of the Brussels I Regulation: Article 1	6.31
(2) Recognition of judgments under the Brussels I Regulations	6.49
(3) Objections to recognition under the Brussels I Regulations	6.58
(4) Procedure for enforcement and objection: under the original Regulation 44/2001	6.89
(5) Procedure for enforcement and objection: under the recast Regulation 1215/2012	6.95
(6) Authentic instruments and court settlements	6.106
(7) European Enforcement Orders, European Orders for Payment, and judgments in the European Small Claims Procedure	6.109
(8) Judgments within the Lugano II Convention; judgments from Scotland, Northern Ireland, and Gibraltar	6.116
(9) Enforcement by registration under the 1920 and 1933 Acts	6.122
(10) Foreign judgments under the common law rules of private international law	6.133
7. Contractual Obligations
A. Introduction	7.01
1. Brief guide to the law applicable to contractual obligations	7.02
2. Terminology and the Rome I Regulation	7.03
3. The relationship between the Regulation and the law applied to cases outside it	7.05

4. The law prior to the Regulation	7.07
5. The proper law of the contract	7.09
6. The Rome Convention	7.16
B. The Rome I Regulation in Outline	7.17
1. Scope of the Rome I Regulation	7.18
2. The law governing the contract	7.19
3. Application of the governing law	7.25
C. The Law	7.29
(1) The scope and effect of the Rome I Regulation: Articles 1, 2, 18, 20, 24, 25, and 28	7.31
(2) Governing law chosen by the parties: Article 3	7.92
(3) Governing law where not chosen by the parties—general rule: Articles 4 and 19	7.121
(4) Governing law for specific contractual obligations: Articles 5 to 8	7.152
(5) Disputes as to the formation of a contractual obligation: Article 10	7.189
(6) The issues to which the governing law is applied: Articles 11 to 15	7.198
(7) Other issues associated with the contractual obligation: Articles 16 and 17	7.234
(8) Displacement of the applicable law: Articles 3, 6, 8, 9, and 21	7.236
(9) Law applicable to issues disclaimed by the Rome I Regulation	7.254
(10) Law applicable to contracts to which the Rome I Regulation does not apply	7.285
 8. Non-Contractual Obligations
A. Introduction	8.01
1. Brief guide to the law applicable to non-contractual obligations	8.02
2. Terminology and the Rome II Regulation	8.03
3. The relationship between the Regulation and the law applying to cases outside it	8.04
4. The law prior to the Regulation	8.07
B. The Rome II Regulation in Outline	8.13
1. Relationship with other Regulations	8.14
2. Operation of the Regulation in outline	8.18
C. The Law	8.29
(1) The scope and effect of the Rome II Regulation: Articles 1, 2, 3, 22, 24, 25, 31, and 32	8.31
(2) Applicable law—the general rule for torts: Articles 4 and 23	8.73
(3) Applicable law—special rules for specific torts: Articles 5 to 9	8.109
(4) Applicable law for non-contractual obligations which are not torts: Articles 10 to 13	8.139
(5) Choice by the parties of the applicable law: Article 14	8.171
(6) Issues which the applicable law will determine: Article 15	8.185
(7) Other issues associated with the non-contractual obligation: Articles 17 to 22	8.200
(8) Displacement of the applicable law: Articles 16, 26, 27, and 28	8.207

(9) Issues to which the Rome II Regulation is not applicable	8.216
(10) Applicable law for non-contractual obligations when the Rome II Regulation is not applicable	8.231
9. Property
A. Introduction	9.01
B. The Law	9.05
(1) The nature, divisions, situs , and treatment of property	9.08
(2) Immovable property	9.30
(3) Tangible movable property	9.59
(4) Intangible property	9.80
(5) Intellectual property and ordinary dealings with intellectual property	9.115
(6) Confiscation or compulsory diversion of property	9.123
(7) Trusts of property	9.158
(8) Marriage and its effect on property rights	9.195
(9) Dissolution of marriage and its effect on property rights	9.224
(10) Death and its effect on property rights	9.226
10. Corporations
A. Introduction	10.01
1. European legislation	10.02
2. The common law approach	10.11
B. The Law	10.13
(1) The lex incorporationis	10.15
(2) Recognition of companies, corporations, and other legal persons	10.17
(3) Looking through or beyond separate corporate personality	10.23
(4) Domicile of corporations, and jurisdiction based on corporate domicile	10.33
(5) Dissolution of corporations	10.44
(6) Amalgamation, succession, and secession of corporations	10.58
(7) Migration of corporations within Europe	10.64
(8) Service of process on corporations	10.67
(9) Contracts made by corporations	10.70
(10) Other bodies: partnerships of various kinds	10.79
11. Corporate Insolvency and Personal Bankruptcy
A. Introduction	11.01
1. The European Insolvency Regulation	11.04
2. The UNCITRAL Model Law	11.05
3. Parliamentary legislation and common law development	11.06
B. The Law	11.07
(1) The general scheme of the Insolvency Regulation for debtors whose centre of main interests is in a Member State	11.10

(2) The identification of the centre of a debtor's main interests	11.37
(3) The operation of the Insolvency Regulation where the debtor's centre of main interests is in England	11.55
(4) The operation of the Insolvency Regulation: where the centre of main interests is in another Member State	11.85
(5) Winding up an insolvent company which has its centre of main interests in a non-Member State	11.111
(6) The effect of insolvency proceedings in the courts of a non-Member State	11.124
(7) Co-operation with the courts of a non-Member State: the Model Law	11.126
(8) Co-operation with the courts of a non-Member State: statute and common law	11.140
(9) Personal bankruptcy: debtor with centre of main interests in Member State	11.160
(10) Personal bankruptcy: debtor with centre of main interests in non-Member State	11.164

12. Adult Relationships

A. Introduction	12.01
1. European legislation	12.02
2. Personal status and the law of the domicile	12.08
3. The utility of status	12.11
B. The Law	12.14
(1) The validity of marriage	12.16
(2) Obtaining matrimonial decrees from English courts: Brussels II Regulation	12.57
(3) Decrees from courts of other Member States: the Brussels II Regulation	12.85
(4) Decrees not from courts of other Member States	12.96
(5) Remarriage after divorce or annulment	12.119
(6) Orders for maintenance from English courts: the Maintenance Regulation	12.124
(7) Effect in England of maintenance orders made by the courts of Member States	12.148
(8) Financial provision other than maintenance	12.151
(9) Foreign orders for financial provision not within the Maintenance Regulation	12.157
(10) Personal capacity, incapacity, and bankruptcy	12.162

13. Children and Parental Responsibility

A. Introduction	13.01
B. The Law	13.03
(1) Matters which fall within the Brussels II Regulation: scope and nature	13.06

(2) Matters which fall within the Brussels II Regulation: jurisdiction	13.13
(3) Jurisdiction when this is not determined by the Brussels II Regulation	13.34
(4) Applicable law	13.49
(5) Effect of orders made by courts of Member States within the scope of the Brussels II Regulation	13.52
(6) Orders made by foreign courts not taking effect under the Brussels II Regulation	13.67
(7) Child abduction and the effect of the 1980 Hague Convention	13.71
(8) International abduction and non-Convention states	13.83
(9) Adoption	13.85
(10) Maintenance of children	13.92
14. Arbitration
A. Introduction	14.01
1. The autonomy of arbitration	14.02
2. The law applied by the tribunal to determine the substance of the dispute before it	14.08
B. The Law	14.10
(1) The general nature of the Arbitration Act 1996	14.12
(2) The relationship between arbitration and European Regulations	14.17
(3) The validity and scope of agreements to arbitrate	14.33
(4) Enforcing the agreement to arbitrate in substantive proceedings brought before the English court	14.53
(5) Enforcing the agreement to arbitrate when substantive proceedings brought before foreign court	14.61
(6) The auxiliary participation of courts during the process of arbitration	14.77
(7) Enforcing arbitral awards in England: general	14.81
(8) Enforcing foreign arbitral awards	14.83
(9) Challenging the enforcement of foreign arbitral awards	14.93
(10) Enforcing foreign judgments based on arbitral awards	14.102
Index	1031