

Contents

Introduction	ix
Flip-top legal pot	3
A groupie's vision	6
Dear John	12
The million-dollar Underground	14
Mozic and the revolution	17
The slag-heap erupts	25
Strenuous February	30
The politics of female sexuality	36
Hey, Jimi, where you gonna run to now?	41
Welcome the shit-storm	45
Women and medicine	47
The Wet Dream Film Festival	51
Oz trial post-mortem	60
Body odour and the persuaders	62
A needle for your pornograph	65
Sentimental education	68
The expense of spirit	71
Lady love your cunt	74
My Mailer problem	78
Going without	90
Towards a standard of morality	93
Saigon	96
The new maharajas	99
'Sex and society – whose rules?'	102
Contraception – 1972	105
Raped women in refugee camps	108
Abortion i	111
Abortion ii	114
Abortion iii: Killing no murder	117
Hippies in Asia	120
The Other Woman	123
The Big Tease	126
Not a time to die	146
A seasonal wish	149

Seduction is a four-letter word	152
Women tied down	169
King Cophetua and the beggarmaid	172
'Unhelpful to the workers' cause'	175
What turns women on	178
Review of Conundrum by Jan Morris	189
On population and women's right to choose	192
International Women's Day, International Women's Year (1975)	195
World Conference, United Nations' International Women's Year, Mexico City, June 1975	198
A modest proposal	204
Eternal war: Strindberg's view of sex	207
Chemistry and fertility: review of Carl Djerassi	211
The Dalton Syndrome	215
The Pulitzer divorce	219
One man's mutilation is another man's beautification	222
The São Francisco	232
Women and power in Cuba	255
Resettlement, Ethiopia, 1985	273
Ethiopia between the lines	300