

Contents

Preface

vi

PART I THE GENEALOGY OF HUMAN RIGHTS

1. The Triumph of Human Rights I
2. A Brief History of Natural Law I: The Classical Beginnings 23
3. A Brief History of Natural Law II: From Natural Law to Natural Rights 47
4. Natural Right in Hobbes and Locke 69
5. Revolutions and Declarations: The Rights of Men,
Citizens and a Few Others 85
6. The Triumph of Humanity: From 1789 to 1989 and from Natural to Human Rights 109

PART II THE PHILOSOPHY OF HUMAN RIGHTS

7. The Classical Critiques of Rights: Burke and Marx 147
  8. Subjectum and Subjectus: The Free and Subjected Subject 183
  9. Law's Subjects: Rights and Legal Humanism 229
  10. Hegel's Law: Rights and Recognition 263
  11. Psychoanalysis Becomes the Law: Rights and Desire 297
  12. The Imaginary Domain and the Future of Utopia 319
  13. The Human Rights of the Other 343
  14. The End of Human Rights 371
- Bibliography 381
- Index 397