

Table of Contents

Preface	v
Forum Shopping in the International Commercial Arbitration Context: Setting the Stage	1
Franco Ferrari
A U.S. Perspective on Forum Shopping, Ethical Obligations, and International Commercial Arbitration	23
Aaron D. Simowitz
Forum Shopping and the Determination of the Place of Arbitration	53
Filip De Ly
Forum Shopping at the „Gateway“ to International Commercial Arbitration	69
George A. Bermann
Anti-arbitration Injunctions and Anti-suit Injunctions: An Anglo-European Perspective	131
Alexander Layton
Enforcing Orders Against Third Parties (and Parties) for the Taking of Evidence in International Arbitration	151
John Fellas
Interim Measures – Relevance of the Courts at the Place of Arbitration and Other Places	199
Christopher Boog
Courts and the Constitution of the Arbitral Tribunal: A Comparative Analysis of Standards of Arbitrator Independence and Impartiality	235
Robert H. Smit
Forum Shopping in International Arbitration – Forum Non Conveniens and Lack of Personal Jurisdiction	253
Peter B. Rutledge

Setting Aside of Arbitral Awards and Forum Shopping in International Arbitration: Delocalization, Party Autonomy and National Courts in Post-Award Review	277
Loukas Mistelis
Forum Shopping and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards: Notes on Public Policy	297
Domenico Di Pietro
Forum-Shopping and Post-Award Judgments	313
Linda Silberman/Maxi Scherer
Making Remission and Other "Curative" Mechanisms Part of the Forum Shopping Conversation – A View from the U. S. with Comparative Notes	347
Jack J. Coe Jr.
Enforcement after the Arbitration: From National Courts to Public International Law Fora	393
D. Brian King/Rahim Moloo	