

Table of Contents

Preface	v
---------------	---

I. Setting the Scene

Alternative Dispute Resolution for Consumers	3
Naomi Creutzfeldt
ADR and Adjudication by State Courts: Competitors or Complements?	11
Michael Stürner
Specific Problems of Cross-Border Consumer ADR: What Solutions?	31
Fernando Gascón Inchausti
A Conflict-of-Laws Approach for Cross-Border ADR?	59
Jonas Kotzur
Consumer ADR – Academia and the Field	67
Christof Berlin

II. Institutional Aspects of Consumer ADR

Impartiality and Independence of the Persons Entrusted with Consumer ADR	79
Enrique Vallines García
The Role of ADR Institutions: Mere Secretariat or Supervisory Body – Lessons Learned from Institutional Arbitration	103
Nathalie Hofmann
Linking ADR Discourses – Nine Lessons Learned from Mediation Development for the Implementation of the EU Directive on Consumer ADR	115
Ulla Gläßer

III. Consumer ADR Proceedings and Result

On Minimum Standards in Consumer ADR 131
María Luisa Villamarín López

Agreements Resulting from Mediation: Judicial Review,
Avoidance, and Enforcement 149
Remo Caponi

IV. The Wider Picture

Long Term Commercial Contracts and the Need for Relational Intelligence 163
Paola Lucarelli