

Table of Contents

Alienated from the World, but not Unworldly – Rudolf Steiner’s Concept of the World as Gesamtkunstwerk

Walter Kugler 166

Andrei Bely, a Tightrope Walker between Art and Life

Walter Kugler 197

On the Impulse of Rudolf Steiner in the Art of Clothing

Heide Nixdorff 204

Imre Makovecz

Peter Pásztor 211

Traces of Colour: Rudolf Steiner’s Sketches for the Cupola Paintings of the First Goetheanum and the Training Path for Painters

Dino Wendtland 214

Anthroposophical Art from Prague, Bohemia (Terezín) and Moravia (Vienna)

David Voda 224

Hilde Pollak-Kotányi

Alice Fels (1936) 258

Anton Josef Trčka (Antios)

Edmund Schwab (1924) 262

Josef Prinke

Julius Hebing (40.–50. léta) 265

Rudolf Michalik

Rudolf Michalik (1936) 268

Otakar Hudeček

Otakar Hudeček (1973) 275

Polish Aenigma

Maja Dobiasz 278

Anthroposophical Art Impulses in the Former GDR

Andreas Albert 306

Within the Framework of Anthroposophical Art: Anthroposophical Art in a Frame

Reinhold J. Fäth 316

The Grave-altar-chapel of Hans-Hasso von Veltheim – A Joint Work of Art by Maria Strakosch-Giesler and Felix Kayser

John Palatini 329

Juxtaposition of Anthroposophical Style and Czech Cubism

David Voda 348

Countenance or Face as Event: Facets of a Concept Image in the Visual Art of Anthroposophy

Peer de Smit 371

Bibliography 387

Index of Artists 395

Index of Names 396