

CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xi
Table of Legislation	xlvi
List of Abbreviations	xlix

I INTRODUCTION

1. The Nature of Termination

A. Defining the Question	1.02
B. Termination as a Process and a Remedy	1.05
C. Problems of Terminology	1.06
D. Common Law and Equity	1.13
E. Discharge and Damages	1.22
F. Withholding Performance and Termination	1.25
G. Termination, Frustration, and Excused Non-performance	1.27
H. The Problem of Options	1.29
I. Liquidated Damages, Penalties, Options, and Deposits	1.31
J. Damages and the Action for the Price	1.34
K. Conditions and Contractual Rights of Termination	1.35
L. Bringing the Contract to an End	1.36
M. The Way Forward	1.37

2. The Genesis of Termination

A. Two Key Concepts	2.02
B. Conditions and Warranties	2.03
C. Frustration and Frustrating Breach	2.15
D. The Current Analysis in English Law	2.37

II BREACH AND TERMINATION

3. Breach of Contract

A. The Significance of Breach	3.02
-------------------------------	------

B. The Elements of Breach	3.03
C. The Consequences of Breach	3.41
4. The Process of Termination
A. What is Termination?	4.02
B. Terminology	4.03
C. Termination as a Process and a Remedy	4.04
D. Termination in Whole or in Part	4.05
E. Concepts Akin to Termination	4.06
F. The Requirement of Election	4.13
G. What Amounts to Election?	4.18
H. The Time of Election	4.22
I. A Third Option?	4.32
J. Termination for the Wrong Reason	4.37
K. Restrictions on Termination	4.42
L. Loss of Right to Terminate	4.53
III THE RIGHT TO TERMINATE
5. Breach of Condition
A. What is a 'Condition'?	5.02
B. Concepts Akin to Conditions	5.08
C. Identifying a Condition	5.14
D. Time Stipulations	5.38
6. Fundamental Breach
A. The Hongkong Fir	6.03
B. The Scope of the Principle	6.09
C. Terminology	6.16
D. Types of Fundamental Breach	6.17
E. Concepts Akin to Fundamental Breach	6.18
F. When is a Breach Fundamental?	6.23
7. Repudiation and Anticipatory Breach
A. Terminology	7.02

B. Concepts Akin to Repudiation	7.05
C. Modes of Repudiation	7.10
D. What Amounts to Repudiation?	7.11
E. Anticipatory Breach	7.27
F. Notices Making Time of the Essence	7.39
8. Express Rights of Termination
A. Express Rights of Termination and Conditions	8.02
B. Exercise of the Right	8.05
C. Multiple Termination Rights	8.17
 IV TERMINATION AND AFFIRMATION
9. Discharge of Primary Obligations
A. Lord Diplock's Analysis	9.02
B. Primary Obligations in General	9.05
C. Accrued Obligations	9.08
D. Ancillary Terms	9.20
10. Damages on Termination
A. Loss of Bargain Damages	10.05
B. Other Cases	10.39
11. Restitutionary Relief
A. Claimant Recovery	11.02
B. Defendant Recovery	11.44
12. The Consequences of Affirmation
A. Continuation of Innocent Party's Primary Obligations	12.02
B. Damages for Past Breach by the Other Party	12.05
C. Action for an Agreed Sum	12.06
D. Specific Performance	12.35
E. Revival of the Right to Terminate	12.62
 Index	 355