

Contents

	Foreword by the Rt Hon The Lord Bingham of Cornhill	xviii
	Preface	xx
PART A	INTRODUCTION	1
1	A preliminary introduction	3
1.1	Purpose and nature	3
1.1.1	Definition of an award	3
1.1.2	Purpose of an award	4
1.1.3	Nature of an award	4
1.1.4	Requirement for natural justice	5
1.2	Relevant law	5
1.2.1	General	5
1.2.2	The Arbitration Act 1996	6
1.3	Requirements of an enforceable award	8
1.3.1	Formal requirements	8
1.3.1.1	Writing and signature	9
1.3.1.2	Identification of the parties	9
1.3.1.3	Recitals	9
1.3.1.4	Reasons	9
1.3.1.5	Date	10
1.3.1.6	Statement of seat	10
1.3.1.7	Issues dealt with	10
1.3.1.8	Notification	11
1.3.2	Substantive requirements	11
1.3.2.1	Cogency	11
1.3.2.2	Completeness	11

	1.3.2.3	Certainty	11
	1.3.2.4	Finality	11
	1.3.2.5	Enforceability	12
	1.3.2.6	Jurisdiction	12
	1.3.2.7	Legality	12
	1.3.2.8	Possibility	12
	1.3.2.9	Consistency	12
	1.3.2.10	Compliance with submission	12
1.4		Distinctions from a judgment	13
1.5		Illustrative monetary award	14
PART B		BACKGROUND PRINCIPLES	15
2		Types of awards	17
2.1		Introduction	17
2.2		'Substantive' awards	18
	2.2.1	Monetary awards	19
	2.2.2	Declaratory awards	19
	2.2.3	Performance awards	20
	2.2.4	Injunctive awards	21
	2.2.5	Rectificative awards	21
		2.2.5.1 Rectification	21
		2.2.5.2 Setting aside	22
		2.2.5.3 Cancellation	22
2.3		'Supportive' awards	22
	2.3.1	Awards on jurisdiction	23
	2.3.2	Agreed awards	24
	2.3.3	Awards on separate issues	25
	2.3.4	Awards on reserved matters	25
	2.3.5	Corrective or additional awards	26
	2.3.6	Awards following remission	27
	2.3.7	Awards giving further reasons	27
	2.3.8	Awards following payment during the reference	28
	2.3.9	Awards following:	28
		2.3.9.1 an earlier order giving provisional relief under section 39, or	28
		2.3.9.2 an earlier adjudicator's decision (e.g. under the Housing Grants, Construction and Regeneration Act 1996)	28
	2.3.10	Unreasoned awards	29
2.4		'Procedural' awards	29
	2.4.1	Awards dismissing the claim	29
	2.4.2	Awards on abandonment	30

2.5	'Institutional' awards	31
2.5.1	Awards under rules or other statutes	31
2.5.2	Awards under 'consumer' schemes	31
2.6	'Ancillary' awards	32
2.6.1	When is an award (perhaps) not an award?	32

3Style, content and checklists*33

3.1	Style	33
3.1.1	Narrative style	33
3.1.2	Language	34
3.1.3	Headings and list of contents	35
3.1.4	Reasons and their incorporation	35
3.1.5	Checking	35
3.2	Content	36
3.2.1	In general	36
3.2.2	Basic structure	37
3.3	A possible basic overall sequence and expanded checklist	38
3.3.1	Section A Heading	38
3.3.2	Section B Background	39
3.3.3	Section B1 Identification and jurisdiction	39
3.3.4	Section B2 Interlocutory procedural matters	40
3.3.5	Section B3 Hearing	42
3.3.6	Section C Submissions and evidence	42
3.3.7	Section D Analysis/findings/reasons/decisions on the substantive issues	43
3.3.8	Section E Value added tax implications	44
3.3.9	Section F Interest	45
3.3.10	Section G Costs	45
3.3.11	Section H Operative section	46
3.3.12	Section I Reserved matters	47
3.3.13	Section J Signature and formalities	47
3.3.14	Final check	47

4An approach to decision-making*48

4.1	Background	48
4.2	Underlying matters	49
4.3	The components of decision-making	52
4.3.1	The substantive issues	52
4.3.1.1	Basis of determination	52
4.3.1.2	Collation of information	52
4.3.1.3	Consideration of submissions	53
	Agreed facts	54
	Uncontested facts	54

	Documentary evidence	54
	Inspection of the subject matter	55
	Expert evidence	55
	Facts to be found from consideration of evidence	56
	Applicable law (or other basis of determination)	57
	The pleadings/opening and closing submissions	59
4.3.1.4	Determination, issue by issue	59
4.3.1.5	Accumulation of related issues (claim or counterclaim)	61
4.3.1.6	Decision-making tasks relating to the substantive issues	62
4.3.1.7	Condensing reasons into suitable form	63
4.3.2	Value added tax	63
4.3.2.1	Background	63
	General	63
	Likely circumstances	66
4.3.2.2	Decision-making tasks relating to VAT	68
4.3.3	Interest	68
4.3.3.1	Background	68
	General	68
	Restraint on discretion	69
	Set-off?	70
	Possible complexities	70
	Post-award interest	71
4.3.3.2	Decision-making tasks relating to interest	71
4.3.4	Costs	74
4.3.4.1	Background	74
	General	74
	Costs follow the event, except ...	75
	Basis of determination of recoverable costs	76
	Effect of offer of settlement	77
	Set-off?	77
	Quantum	78
	Arbitrator's fees and expenses	79
4.3.4.2	Decision-making tasks relating to costs	79
4.3.5	Reserved matters	80
PART C	DEVELOPING THE PRINCIPLES	81
5	Synthesis of an award	83
5.1	Introduction to the illustrations	83
5.2	The basic scenario	84

5.3	Synthesis of an award	85
5.3.1	Section A The heading	86
5.3.2	Section B Background	87
5.3.3	Section B1 Identification and jurisdiction	87
5.3.3.1	Identification of the parties	88
5.3.3.2	Contract, or other relationship	88
5.3.3.3	Law of the contract or other relationship	89
5.3.3.4	Arbitration agreement	89
5.3.3.5	Provisions for appointment	89
5.3.3.6	Applicable rules	89
5.3.3.7	A dispute having arisen	90
5.3.3.8	Nature of the dispute and matters in issue	90
5.3.3.9	Appointment	91
5.3.3.10	Challenge to jurisdiction	92
5.3.3.11	Basis for decision	92
5.3.3.12	Other matters	92
5.3.4	Section B2 Interlocutory procedural matters	92
5.3.4.1	Transfers	92
5.3.4.2	Seat	93
5.3.4.3	Interlocutory agreement on rules, powers or procedures	93
	On procedural and evidential matters	94
	On consolidation, or concurrent hearings	94
	On appointment of experts, legal advisers or assessors	94
	Relating to property the subject of proceedings	94
	On preservation of evidence	94
5.3.4.4	Use of 'uncommon' powers	94
5.3.4.5	Clarification or amendment of matters in issues	95
5.3.4.6	Previous awards	95
5.3.4.7	Issue(s) to be determined by this award	95
5.3.4.8	Meetings: preliminary, further, pre-hearing review	96
5.3.4.9	Consequent and subsequent applications and orders	97
	Attended hearing or 'documents only'	97
	Type of statements, timetable	97
	Disclosure and production of documents	98
	Exchange of witness proofs and experts' reports	98
	Meetings of experts	98
	Language and translation	98

	Questions to be put	98
	Other relevant matters	99
5.3.4.10	Resultant party action	99
	Brief details of exchange	99
	Admissions or agreements, result of meeting(s) of experts	99
	Any resultant reduction in, or expansion of matters in issue	99
5.3.4.11	Other directions and/or administrative actions	100
	Orders for security	100
	Limitation of costs	100
	Any valid 'costs in any event' agreement	100
	Any 'costs in any event' directions	101
5.3.4.12	Provisional orders	101
5.3.4.13	Party default (and consequence)	101
	Inordinate or inexcusable delay	102
	Failure to comply with order or direction	102
5.3.4.14	Peremptory orders	102
5.3.4.15	Other relevant matters	102
5.3.5	Section B3 Hearing	103
5.3.5.1	Transfers	103
5.3.5.2	Hearing	103
5.3.5.3	Failure to attend/ex-parte proceedings	104
5.3.5.4	Representation and witnesses	104
5.3.5.5	Oral evidence	105
5.3.5.6	Default during hearing	105
5.3.5.7	Inspection	105
5.3.5.8	Agreed list of issues	106
5.3.5.9	Other matters	106
5.3.6	Section C Submissions and evidence	106
5.3.6.1	The contentions	107
5.3.6.2	Opening and closing submissions	109
5.3.6.3	Witnesses and evidence, if not covered in Section B	109
	Identification of witnesses	109
	Précis of relevant evidence	109
	Equivalent description in ex-parte proceedings	110
5.3.6.4	Inspection—if not covered in Section B	110
	Purpose of inspection	110
	Result of inspection	110
5.3.6.5	Other matters	110
5.3.7	Section D Analysis/findings/reasons/decisions on the substantive issues	110

5.3.7.1	List of issues	111
5.3.7.2	Common ground	111
5.3.7.3	Analysis of submissions and evidence	111
	Facts/law/application/decision	111
	Interest as special damages	113
	Decision on substantive issue(s)	113
	Counterclaim or set-off	113
5.3.7.4	Summary of decisions on substantive issues	117
5.3.7.5	Amounts paid during period of arbitration	118
5.3.8	Section E Value added tax implications	118
5.3.8.1	Dealing with value added tax	118
5.3.9	Section F Interest	119
5.3.9.1	Interest within the award	119
5.3.9.2	Post-award interest	121
5.3.10	Section G Costs	122
5.3.10.1	Award of costs	122
5.3.11	Section H Operative section (award)	123
5.3.11.1	Introduction	124
5.3.11.2	Type of award	124
5.3.11.3	Conditions or terms	124
5.3.11.4	Time for performance	124
5.3.11.5	Post-award interest	125
5.3.11.6	Value added tax	125
5.3.11.7	Costs	126
5.3.12	Section I Reserved matters	126
5.3.13	Section J Signature and formalities	127

PART D ILLUSTRATIONS 129

6	Substantive awards	131
6.1	Introduction	131
6.2	A monetary award	132
6.3	A monetary award without any counterclaim	132
6.3.1	Where the claim is successful	132
6.3.1.1	Summary	132
6.3.2	Where the claim fails	133
6.4	A monetary award with a counterclaim	135
6.4.1	Counterclaim which constitutes a set-off	135
6.4.1.1	Heading and preamble	136
6.4.1.2	Dispute/matters in issue	136
6.4.1.3	Issues in this award	137
6.4.1.4	Inspections	137

6.4.1.5	Contentions re counterclaim	137
6.4.1.6	Analysis/decisions/counterclaim or set-off	138
6.4.1.7	VAT implications	139
6.4.1.8	Interest	139
6.4.1.9	Costs – single event	140
6.4.1.10	Operative section	141
6.4.2	Counterclaim which does not constitute a set-off	141
6.4.2.1	Background and submissions	142
6.4.2.2	Counterclaim or set-off	142
6.4.2.3	Interest	142
6.4.2.4	Costs – separate events	143
6.4.2.5	Operative section	144
6.4.2.6	Reserved matters	145
6.4.3	Counterclaim variants	145
6.5	A declaratory award	147
6.6	A performance award	148
6.7	An injunctive award	149
6.8	A rectificative award	150
7	Supportive awards	151
7.1	Introduction	151
7.2	An award on jurisdiction	152
7.3	An agreed award	153
7.4	Awards on separate issues	155
7.4.1	The first award	155
7.4.2	Subsequent awards	155
7.5	An award on reserved matters	156
7.5.1	On matters other than the amount of recoverable costs	156
7.5.2	On the reserved determination of amount of recoverable costs	156
7.6	A corrective or additional award	159
7.6.1	A corrective award	159
7.6.2	An additional award	160
7.7	An award following remission	161
7.8	An award giving further reasons	163
7.9	An award following payment during the reference	164
7.9.1	Where payment made no provision for interest	164
7.9.2	Where payment made provision for interest	167
7.10	An award following:	168
7.10.1	an earlier order giving provisional relief	168
7.10.1.1	relating to substantive claim	170
7.10.1.2	relating to costs	171

	7.10.2 an earlier adjudication	172
	7.11 An unreasoned award	174
8	Procedural awards; Institutional awards; Ancillary awards	175
	8.1 Introduction	175
	8.2 Procedural awards	175
	8.2.1 An award dismissing the claim	175
	8.2.1.1 entire claim	176
	8.2.1.2 certain (but not all) issues	178
	8.2.2 An award on abandonment	178
	8.2.2.1 Settlement in unknown amount	178
	8.2.2.2 Abandonment as such	179
	A 'Closing order'	179
	Abandonment before acceptance of appointment	179
	Abandonment after acceptance of appointment	180
	It could have been an agreed award, but ...	180
	8.3 Institutional awards	181
	8.3.1 An award under rules (or other statute)	181
	8.3.2 An award under a 'consumer' scheme	182
	8.4 Ancillary awards	183
	8.4.1 When is an award (perhaps) not an award?	183
PART E	VARIANTS	185
9	Examples of other options and variations in content	187
	9.1 Introduction	187
	9.2 Format of this chapter	187
	9.3 Options and variations	188
	Section A	188
	9.3.1 The heading	188
	Section B	188
	9.3.2 Background	188
	Section B1	188
	9.3.3 Identification and jurisdiction	188
	9.3.3.1 Identification of the parties/contract or other relationship	188
	A claim in tort/submission agreement	188
	9.3.3.2 Provision for appointment/appointment	189
	Appointment by appointing authority	189
	9.3.3.3 Basis for decision	189

Section B2	190
9.3.4 Interlocutory procedural matters	190
9.3.4.1 Seat	190
9.3.4.2 Interlocutory agreement on rules, powers or procedures	191
On procedural and evidential matters	191
On consolidation, or concurrent hearings	191
On appointment of experts etc.	192
Relating to property ...	192
On preservation of evidence	192
9.3.4.3 Use of 'uncommon' powers	193
9.3.4.4 Meetings ... pre-hearing review	193
9.3.4.5 Consequent and subsequent applications and orders	193
Attended hearing or 'documents only'?	193
9.3.4.6 Resultant party action	195
Result of meeting(s) of experts	195
9.3.4.7 Other directions and/or administrative action	195
Orders for security	195
Limitation of costs	196
9.3.4.8 Provisional orders	196
9.3.4.9 Party default/Peremptory orders	196
Section B3	196
9.3.5 Hearing	196
9.3.5.1 Failure to attend/ex-parte proceedings	196
Section C	197
9.3.6 Submissions and evidence	197
9.3.6.1 Rules of evidence – relaxation	197
Section D	198
9.3.7 Analysis etc.	198
9.3.7.1 Analysis under section 46(1)(b)	198
9.3.7.2 Appended reasons	199
Section E	199
9.3.8 Value added tax	199
9.3.8.1 VAT not applicable	199
9.3.8.2 VAT as a component of damages	200
Section F	200
9.3.9 Interest	200
9.3.9.1 Intervening event	200

Section G	201
9.3.10 Costs	201
9.3.10.1 Award on reserved liability for costs/ rejected offer of settlement	201
Section H	202
9.3.11 Operative section	202
9.3.11.1 Time for performance/compliance	202
9.3.11.2 Post-award interest – starting date	202
9.3.11.3 Release or disposal of security for costs	203
9.4 Tribunals other than a sole arbitrator	203
9.5 Multi-party arbitrations	204
9.6 Effect of party autonomy	205
PART F APPENDICES	207
Appendix 1 Expanded checklist from Chapter 3	209
Appendix 2 Illustration of manual collation of location of submissions and evidence	216
Appendix 3 Substantive monetary award from Chapter 5	218
Index	231