

Table of Contents

Table of Contents	3
List of abbreviations and acronyms	4
Acknowledgements	5
Foreword	6
Message from the Honourable Dr Denzil Douglas, Prime Minister of St. Kitts and Nevis	7
Executive Summary	8
1. Introduction	11
2. What is PANCAP?	12
3. Background	13
A brief description of the Caribbean region	13
AIDS in the Caribbean region	14
The social and economic impact of AIDS	15
4. Why was a regional response to AIDS needed?	17
Population mobility	17
Limited response capacity of individual countries	17
Need for a multisectoral, collaborative response	17
5. What made the regional response through PANCAP possible?	19
History of cooperation in the Caribbean region	19
Political leadership and commitment	19
Stimulus and support from international organizations	21
Existence of key regional organizations to build upon	21
Regional and national information and strategy	24
Key events, success factors and obstacles in the evolution of PANCAP	25
6. The Caribbean Regional Strategic Framework for HIV/AIDS	27
7. The structure and functions of PANCAP	29
8. Benefits and accomplishments of the Partnership	32
Anticipated benefits	32
Key accomplishments to date	33
9. Challenges faced by PANCAP	38
Maintaining and strengthening high-level leadership	38
Supporting timely, concrete results at the country level	39
Linking action at the regional and national levels	39
Delineating appropriate roles for different partners	40
Strengthening coordination and communication in a growing and diverse Partnership	41
10. Lessons learned	43
Lessons learned in initiating action and building the Partnership	43
Overall guiding principles	44
11. Transferring the PANCAP model to other regions	46
12. The way forward: next steps for PANCAP	47
References	49
Annex: Key events in the development of PANCAP	51