

Contents

1. The globalization process	7
1.1 Globalization: Historical Background	7
1.2 The International Business Challenge	11
1.2.1 The Diverse International Marketplace	13
1.2.2 The Changing International Marketplace	13
2. Global Economy	16
2.1 Global Economy: Historical Development	16
2.2 Global Economy in Terms of National Economics Levels	17
2.2.1 Global market	19
2.2.2 International division of labour	20
2.2.3 International organizations	21
2.2.4 World currency	24
2.2.5 Global price	24
2.3 Integration of national Economies into Global Economy	25
2.4 Global Business	26
3. Crude Oil and its Importance in the Global economy	27
3.1 Characterization of Crude – Oil	27
3.2 Sorts of crude Oil and their Use	28
3.3 History of crude Oil and its Widespread Applications	29
3.4 Slovak representing of crude oil and its extraction in Slovakia	31
3.5 Hubbert peak theory	33
3.6 The OPEC	38
3.7 Transportation of crude oil	39
3.8 The role of crude oil in the global economy – Summary	40
4. Globalization and Worldwide Infrastructure Development	42
4.1 Global Infrastructure Development	42
4.1.1 World Trade Organization	45
4.1.2 The Free Trade – Protectionism Debate	46
4.1.3 National Infrastructure Development: world Bank Group	47
4.2 Regional Economic and political Integration	47
4.2.1 Degrees of Integration: Types of Trade Blocs	47
4.2.2 Formation of Economic/Political Blocs: The European Union	48
4.2.3 Other Trade Blocs	51
5. Regional Development in the Worldwide	54
5.1 Geopolitics and strategy	55
6. National Market Analysis	57
6.1 Current position Analysis	58
6.2 Cultural Analysis	59

7. Analysing Global Industries and Competitors	60
7.1 Worldwide Industry Analyses	61
7.2 Global Competitor Analyses	61
8. Market Entry and Servicing Strategies	62
8.1 Exporting Strategies	63
8.2 Contractual Forms of market Entry	65
8.3 Investment options for Servicing Foreign Markets	68
References	70