

Contents

Acknowledgements .....	11
Illustrations .....	12
 I INTRODUCTORY CHAPTER .....	13
1 Subject, Purpose and Method .....	13
2 Some Critical Views on Shaw .....	15
3 Origin of the Unwomanly Woman .....	17
 II CONTEMPORARY SOCIAL AND POLITICAL BACKGROUND .....	19
1 The Victorian Age and Victorianism .....	19
2 Reform Efforts for Education and Emancipation of Women .....	24
a Earlier Reform Efforts .....	24
b Shaw's Reform Efforts .....	28
 III THE UNWOMANLY WOMAN AND HER SOCIAL AND POLITICAL PROBLEMS AS EMERGING IN SHAW'S DRAMA .....	35
1 Vivie and Mrs Warren in Mrs Warren's Profession: Prostitution and Career .....	35
a Introduction .....	35
b Previous Scholarly Views .....	36
c Summary of the Play .....	37
d Preface, Criticism and Shaw's Refutation .....	39
e Problems .....	44
f Analysis of Vivie and Mrs Warren .....	53
2 Barbara in Major Barbara : Salvationist .....	61
Religion versus Capitalism .....	61
a Introduction .....	61
b Previous Scholarly Views .....	63
c Summary of the Play .....	64
d Preface .....	66
e Problems .....	68
f Analysis of Barbara .....	76
g Reviews and Criticism .....	85
3 Edith and Lesbia in Getting Married , A Dis- quisitory Play: Marriage and Divorce .....	89
a Introduction .....	89
b Previous Scholarly Views .....	89

c Summary of the Play	91
d Preface	92
e Problems	95
f Analysis of Edith and Lesbia	103
g A Contemporary Review and Later Criticism Refuted by Shaw	107
4 Fanny and Margaret in Fanny's First Play : Rebellion and Emancipation	113
a Introduction	113
b Previous Scholarly Views	113
c Summary of the Play	114
d Preface and Problems	115
e Analysis of Fanny and Margaret	123
f Contemporary Reviews	130
5 Eliza and Clara in Pygmalion, Romance in Five Acts : Phonetics, Class Discrimination and Education of Women	133
a Introduction	133
b Previous Scholarly Views	134
c Summary of the Play	135
d Preface	137
e Problems	139
f Analysis of Eliza and Clara	142
g Contemporary Reviews and Later Criticism	150
6 Joan of Arch in Saint Joan, A Chronicle Play , And an Epilogue : Individualism versus Authority	155
a Introduction	155
b Previous Scholarly Views	157
c Summary of the Play	157
d Preface	159
e Problems	163
f Analysis of Joan	166
g Criticism and Contemporary Reviews	172
IV CONCLUSION	180
V APPENDIX	185
VI BIBLIOGRAPHY	190