

Contents

Genealogical Tables		xviii—xxii
I •	To 1788 The Byrons and the Gordons	3
II •	1788—1798 Scottish Boyhood	9
III •	1798—1801 The Young Lord	17
IV •	1801—1805 Harrow and the Hills of Annesley	23
V •	1805—1807 Cambridge: Hours of Idleness 1805	35
VI •	1808—1809 English Bards, and Scotch Reviewers	49
VII •	1809—1810 The Pilgrimage of Childe Harold	62
VIII •	1810—1811 The Clime of the East	81
IX •	1811—1812 Thyrza—A Radical in Parliament	101
X •	1812 The Fame of Childe Harold	117
XI •	1813 Amours in Whig Society	139
XII •	1814 Dangerous Liaisons	160
XIII •	1814 The Princess of Parallelograms	178
XIV •	1815 The Fatal Marriage	190
XV •	1816 "Fare Thee Well"	213
XVI •	1816 Childe Harold Roams Again	235
XVII •	1816—1817 Expatriate in Venice	255
XVIII •	1817 La Mira: Harold's Farewell— Beppo	268
XIX •	1818—1819 Don Juan on the Grand Canal	277
XX •	1819 The Countess Guiccioli	297
XXI •	1820 Cavalier Servente in Ravenna	319
XXII •	1820 Preparing for Revolution	328
XXIII •	1821 The Poetry of Politics	338

XXIV • 1821-1822	Shelley and the Pisan Circle	357
XXV • 1822	The Drowning of Shelley	375
XXVI • 1822-1823	Exile in Genoa	389
XXVII • 1823	Return to "The Isles of Greece"	408
XXVIII • 1824	A "Messiah" in Missolonghi	428
XXIX • 1824	A Death for Greece	444
XXX • 1824	"The Remembered Tone of a Mute Lyre"	461
	Epilogue: Post Mortems	472
	Notes	479
	Bibliography	514
	Index	follows page 518

- Abbott, Very Rev. Eric, 478
 Aberdeen, 6, 10
 Aberdeen Grammar School, 13-14
 Aboyne (Gordon lands), 6
 Abydos, 83
 Achilles, 78
 Acropolis, 75, 76, 77
 Adair, Robert, 80, 83-4, 85, 86
 Adolphe (Constant), 331
 Adonais, 347
 Adriatic, 258, 271, 282
Advancement of Learning (Bacon),
     119 n.
Adventures of a Younger Son, 364
 Ægean, 75, 78
 Ægina, 76
 Æschylus, 246, 347
 Agias Theklas (street), 76 n.
 Aglietti, Dr. Francesco, 306, 312, 317
 Alacrity, 437
 Alaric, the Goth, 78
 Alba (Allegra), 267
 Albania, 69-73, 75
 Albanian dress, 168
 Albanian song, 190, 241
 Albanians, 74, 446
 Albany House, 165, 170, 176, 185
 Albaro, 388
 Albè, 257, 392, 466
 Albemarle Street, 42, 200, 230
 Albergo della Villa (Genoa), 397
 Albergo Imperiale (Ravenna), 304
 Alborghetti, Count Giuseppe, 304,
     306, 326-7, 336, 337, 343, 345, 355
 Albrizzi, Countess Isabella Teotochi,
     259, 276, 279, 282, 295
 Alexander I (Czar of Russia), 169
 Alexander, Dr. James, 395, 402, 403
 Alfieri, Conte Vittorio, 299, 309
 Ali Pasha, 69, 70, 72, 73, 86, 87
 Allen, Dr. John, 157
 Almacks, 126, 321, 425
 Altamont (later Lord Sligo), 50
 Althorp, Lord, 165
 Ambrosian Library, 255
 American (black servant), 409
 Americans, 344, 375
 Amphissa (Salona), 447, 448
 Anacreon, 44
 Anatolico, 438, 451, 464
 Andreas: see Zantachi
 Angelina, 295
 Angelo, Henry (fencing master), 39, 279
 Anne (ship), 433
 Annesley Hall, 26, 54
 Anti-Jacobin, 47, 156
 Antiquary, The (Scott), 398
 Antwerp, 236
 Archipelago, 95
 Arena del Sole (theater), 309
 Argiropoli, Prince, 360
 Argos, 464
 Argostoli, 412
 Argyri, Nicolo, 69
 Ariel, 376
 Ariosto, 265, 291
 Aristides, 156
 Armenia, 354
 Armenian (language), 260, 261, 354
 Armenian and English Grammar, 261
 Armenian monastery, 260
 Armida, 136, 138, 140
 Arnold, Matthew, 467
 Arqua, 265, 312
 Arta, 449
 Aspe, Giacomo, 403
Aspern Papers, The (James), 476
 Astakos (Dragomestre), 429
 Astarte, 269
 Aston Hall, 151
 Athens, 75, 76, 79, 86, 96
 Attica, 78
 Aucher, Father Pasquale, 261, 354
 Austrian Internuncia, 85
 Austrians, 246, 257, 310, 353
auto da fé, 362
 Bacon, Francis, 29, 119 n.
 Bagnacavallo, 342
 Baillie, Dr. James, 20, 24, 211, 214
 Bancroft, George, 375
 "Bandit of Bohemia" (drama), 204
 Banff, 15
 Bankes, William, 37, 120
 Barff, Samuel, 423, 427
 Barry, Charles F., 393, 398, 403, 405, 406, 407
 Barthelemi, Signor, 88
 Bartolini, Lorenzo, 363, 387
 Bath, 5
Bath Guide, 292
 Bath Museum of Costume, 168 n.
 Bathurst, Captain Walter, 82, 85, 412
 Batt's Hotel, 59, 137

- Baviad*, 47
 Becher, Rev. John Thomas, 42
 Beckford, William, 63, 105, 170
Beggar's Opera, 195
 Belcher, Tom (pugilist), 52
 Belem Castle, 63
 Belgrade, 84
 Beltram, Josepha, 63
 Bembo, Cardinal, 255
 Bennet Street, 139
 Bentham, Jeremy, 423, 433
 Benzoni, Countess Marina, 278, 295-6
 Beresina, 282
 Berg Collection, 402 n.
 Bergami, Bartolommeo, 329, 334
 Berger (Swiss servant), 233
 Bernese Alps, 251, 338
 Berni, Francesco, 291
Bertram (Maturin), 205
 Bessborough, Earl of, 118
 Bessborough, Lady (Henrietta Frances Spencer), 125, 130, 131
 Beyle, Henri (Stendhal), 256
 Bible, 14, 20, 148
"Biondina in Gondoletta, La," 279
 Black, Mrs. (Theresa Macri), 88 n.
 Blackmoor's Head Inn, 470
 Blackstone, Sir William, 29
Blackwood's Magazine, 323, 347
 Bland, Rev. Robert, 109
 Blaquiere, Captain Edward, 398, 400, 402, 408, 423
 Blessington, Earl of, 396, 397, 402
 Blessington, Marguerite, Lady, 206, 396-7, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 406, 407, 477
"Blessington Circus," 397
 Blücher, 169
 Boatswain (Newfoundland dog), 40, 54, 67, 104
 Boiardo, 291
 Boissy, Marquis de, 477
 Bolinbroke, Viscount (Henry St. John), 29, 119 n.
Bolivar (schooner), 376-7, 382, 384, 386-8, 392, 402, 407
 Bolívar, Simón, 376
 Bologna, 304
 Bonaparte, Napoleon, 218, 236, 366;
     see also Napoleon
 Bonivard, François, 244
 Borgia, Lucretia, 255
 Bosphorus, 83
 Boswell, James (son of "Bozzy"), 200
 Boswell papers, 467
 Botsaris, Marco, 413, 417, 422, 431, 443, 463
Bounty, mutiny on, 395
 Bowers ("Bodsy"), 13
 Bowles, William Lisle, 335, 341
 Boyce, Susan, 207-8
 Braemar, 15
 Brahm, John, 201; "entusimusy," 265
 Breme, Abbé Ludivico di, 246, 255, 257
 Brenta River, 258, 269, 271, 314
 Brighton, 52
British Essayists, 56 British Museum, 78 n.
 Broad Street (Aberdeen), 12
 Brocket, 129
 Broglie, Duchesse de, 245
 Brompton, 51
 Brønsted, Dr. Peter, 92
 Brothers (upholsterer), 85
 Brougham, Henry, 317
 Broughton de Gyfford, Baron (Hobhouse), 473
 Browne, James Hamilton, 408, 409, 415-16, 418, 419, 421, 423, 425
 Bruce, Michael, 469
 Bruges, 322
 Brummell, George (Beau), 47, 322
 Bruno, Dr. Francesco: engaged as physician, 403; frightened by "Tita," 409; on trip to Ithaca, 415-16; with Byron at Metaxata, 419, 425; applied leeches to Byron, 442; urged bleeding, 453, 454, 455; bled Byron three times, 456; took two more pounds of blood, 457; his clinical diary of autopsy, 462-3
 Brussels, 236-7
 Bryant, Jacob, 82
 Buchan, 6
 Burdett, Sir Francis, 114, 128, 366, 469
 Burgage Manor, 26
 Burke, Edmund, 29, 114
 Burlington House, 171
 Burns, Robert, 157-8
 Butler, Dr. George, 32, 50
Butler's Analogy, 106
 Burun, Ernegis and Radulfus (Ralph) de, 3
 By, Mrs., 103
 Byron, Allegra (Clara Allegra; see also Alba): born Jan. 12, 1817, 262; to be made a Catholic, 267; a great beauty, 276; christened Clara Allegra, 276, 280; sent to Byron with nurse, 281; resembles Lady Byron, 282; Claire and Shelley came to see, 286; back with the Hoppners, 290; codicil gave her £5,000, 291; Mrs. Vavassour offered adoption, 308; Byron described character, 311; Byron would take to South America, 313; well enough to travel, 317; thriving and spoiled, 322; not to be sent to Shelleys, 325; country villa found for, 330; shall be Christian and married woman, 332; sent to convent, 342; Shelley's visit to, 349; wanted visit from Papa, 349; no final visit from Papa, 354-5; Claire's schemes to rescue, 368, 372, 394; Byron's shock at death, 372; buried without inscription, 373 n.; Byron's mixed feelings for, 373; Claire's blistering letter to Byron, 373; Claire requested her portrait, 374

Byron, Allegra (continued)

Byron, Lady (Annabella Milbanke—poet's wife): told of Byron's aberrations, 171; own fault if not happy, 189; sensitive on trip to Halmaby, 190–1; her later statements on marriage, 190 n.; on wedding night, 191–2; on Byron's playful side, 192, 193, 195; copied Hebrew Melodies, 193; uneasy at hint of crimes, 193; analyzed Byron's Calvinism, 194; more relaxed at Seaham, 194–5; learned something of Byron's moods, 196; acute anguish at Augusta's, 197–8; pregnant, 198; found Byron kinder in London, 199; jealous of Augusta, 201; on Byron's happier moods, 202; on Mary Chaworth, 202; wanted to take Byron to Seaham, 203; approved of Byron's will, 204; bewildered by Byron's moods, 204, 205; on Byron's "passion for excitement," 206; only lady who could not manage Byron, 206; her self-control, 206–7; worried by Byron and actresses, 207; believed Byron insane, 208, 211; scapegoat for Byron's troubles, 208; on Byron at birth of Ada, 209; "perfection itself," 210; Byron's outburst against her, 210; searched trunks and letter cases, 211; on conjugal terms with Byron, 212; her farewell, 212; letter on journey, 213; "Dearest Duck" letter, 213–14; resolved not to return if Byron sane, 214; only woman Byron could live with, 215; thought suspicions of Augusta unjust, 215; "strictest principle of duty," 215, 216; statement of wrongs, 216; torn between feelings and duty, 216, 220; wished to be in London "in the coal-hole," 216–17; Lushington her adviser, 217; humorless, 218; resigned and hopeless, 218; Byron said she was "truth itself," 219; approved proposal for separation, 219; her "undeviating rectitude," 221; feared Byron might take child, 222; confessed suspicion of incest, 222; her reply to Moore, 222 n.; grateful to but jealous of Augusta, 223; interview with Augusta, 223; her implacability, 224; said rumors not part of charges, 225; her reasons for leaving not known, 225 n.; character like proof spirits, 226; Caroline revealed her "secrets" to,

Byron, Lady (continued)

229–30; kind to Augusta, 232; her self-justification, 232; depositions to Lushington, 237; brooding over incest, 238; inquisition of Augusta, 238–9, 247–8; on Augusta's moral sensitivity, 247; warns Augusta against Byron's levity, 248; Byron's continued love for, 249; her illness, 249; Augusta sent her Byron's letters, 250; Augusta's "Guardian Angel," 251; Byron's "moral Clytemnestra," 251; on third canto of Harold, 261; "She's a fool," 264; "disgraces" Byron's name, 267; her magnanimity, 268; cold and mathematical, 279; Allegra resembles, 282; touched by fourth canto, 284; satirized as Donna Inez, 287; had understood Byron, 302; nostalgic letter from Byron, 320; if she would please to die, 353; Byron's sentimental letter to, 362; Byron discussed with stranger, 415; would not welcome little infidel, 443; eager to know Byron's last words, 459, 469; distressed at Byron's death, 466; wished to see Memoirs destroyed, 466; "kindness" to Medora, 475; last interview with Augusta, 475; her "confidences" to Mrs. Stowe, 475–6

Byron, Augusta (later Mrs. George Leigh): born in France, 5; nursed through illness by Mrs. Byron, 8; married first cousin, 21 n.; met Byron in London, 25; Byron's confidante, 28; obstacles to her marriage, 30; Byron told her of mother's rages, 32; Byron her "very great favorite," 32; asked to be security for Byron's loan, 37; disturbed by Byron's silence, 38; see also Leigh, Augusta

Byron, Augusta Ada: born Dec. 10, 1815, 209; "born in bitterness," 210; Lady Byron feared losing custody, 222; Byron's legitimate daughter, 267, 276; Byron asked for her portrait, 320; a lock of her hair, 362; Byron's thoughts always on, 373; Byron discussed with stranger, 415; Byron's concern for her health, 420; Byron wanted to send Hatadje to, 443; Byron received good news of, 452; Byron wished to see before dying, 459; her help sought by sisters of Loukas, 474; came to revere her father, 476; a mathematician, 476

Byron, Mrs. Catherine Gordon (poet's mother): descent from James I of Scotland, 3; hysterical at Fatal Marriage, 6; good sense and Whiggish sympathies, 6; Scottish accent, 6; frightened by husband's free spending, 7; "big with bairn," 7; nursed Augusta through illness, 8; at 16 Holles Street, 9; son born with clubbed foot, 9, 10; pressed by husband's debts, 9-10; £4,222 settled on her, 10; in Aberdeen, 10; hired Agnes Gray as nurse-maid, 10; "very amiable at a distance," 11; grief at death of husband, 12; described son's deformity, 12; "haughty as Lucifer," 13; sympathy for French Revolution, 13; had son's portrait painted, 15; John Hanson English agent, 16; sold furniture to pay for journey, 16; arrival at Newstead, 17; to dwell in Abbey, 18; £300 from Civil List, 20; obnoxious to Lord Carlisle, 21; her fits of temper, 21; rooms with Mrs. Massingberd, 24; pension reduced to £200, 24-5; house at Southwell, 26; indulgent to Byron's love for Mary, 27; told Byron of Mary Duff's marriage, 30; told Byron of Mary Chaworth's marriage, 33; alarmed by Byron's bills, 39; maternal explosion, 40; followed Byron to London, 40; truce with Byron, 41; negotiated £1,000 loan for son, 43; alarmed at cost of Newstead repairs, 53; wanted Byron to marry a fortune, 56; taking care of Newstead, 60; harassed by son's creditors, 85; her death, 103; governed Byron's empire, 103; her wedding ring, 188; coffin too decayed to hold son's, 470

Byron, Mrs. Catherine Gordon (continued)

Byron, Charlotte, 49

Byron, Eleanor, 3

Byron, Frances, 21 n.

Byron, George Anson (poet's cousin, later 7th Lord), 104, 152, 208, 212, 218, 223, 466, 469

Byron, George Anson (poet's uncle), 49

Byron, George Gordon, 6th Baron: to 1798: born with lame foot, 3, 9; ancestry, 3-6; victim of mother's temper, 10; tore soiled dress in rage, 10-11; father on his lameness, 12; foot described by mother, 12; sensitivity to lameness, 12, 14-15; pride and liberalism from mother, 13; at school to Mr. Bowers, 13; heir to peerage, 13; at Aberdeen Grammar School, 13; reading Turkish history, 14; liked Psalms and Old Testament, 14; read John Moore's Zeluco, 14; proud of Byron peerage, 15; portrait by Kaye, 15; love for Mary

Byron, George (continued)

Duff, 15; holiday in highlands, 15; became 6th Baron Byron, 16; "half a Scot by birth," 16

1798-1801: arrived at Newstead, 17; met by Hansons, 18; to live in Abbey, 18; met Mary Chaworth, 18; proud of estate and Byron arms, 18-19; his first letter, 19; foot treated by Lavender, 19; tutored by Mr. Rogers, 19; practiced pistol shooting, 19; Lord Carlisle became guardian, 19; with Hanson to London, 19; special boot, 20; Dr. Glennie's school at Dulwich, 20; exposed May Gray to Hanson, 20; Christmas at Hansons, 21; "dash into poetry," 21; love for Margaret Parker, 21; penchant for cousins, 21 n.; interview with Dr. Drury, 22; character fixed by Harrow, 22; Henry Drury assigned as tutor, 23; taunted for deformity, 24; shoe and brace made for foot, 24; £500 granted for education, 24; penchant for younger boys, 24, 31; friends at Harrow, 25; met halfsister Augusta, 25; melancholy on Peachey grave, 25

1802-5: "The drilled dull lesson," 25; holiday at Bath with mother, 25; pupil of Mr. Evans, 26; friendship with Earl of Clare, 26; summer at Burgage Manor, 26; love for Mary Chaworth, 26; in boat with Mary, 27; would not return to Harrow, 27; Mary spurned "lame boy," 27; emotional shock from Lord Grey, 28; back at Harrow, 28; Augusta his confidante, 28; flirtation with Elizabeth Pigot, 28, 30; ambition to be Parliamentary orator, 28-9; praised by Drury for speech, 29; hated Harrow at first, 29; his reading at Harrow, 29; quarrels with mother, 30, 32; stolen interviews with Mary Chaworth, 30; convulsed by Mary Duff's marriage, 30; attraction to women more extensive, 31; feminine qualities noted, 31; fought Calthorpe for calling him atheist, 32; dined with Lord Carlisle, 32; "favorite" of Augusta, 32; led rebellion against Dr. Butler, 32; wretched at leaving Harrow, 32, 35; Harrow speeches, 33; Henry Long heard him swear, 33; in cricket game against Eton, 33; wore boot over corrective shoe, 33; shocked by marriage of Mary Chaworth, 33; enrolled at Trinity College, 34; wanted to go to Oxford, 35; felt "no longer a boy," 35; "Superexcellent rooms," 35; closest friends untitled, 36; "most steady Man in College," 36; attached to E. N. Long, 36; vices not to his taste, 37; spent lavishly, 37; Christmas in London, 37; borrowed from money lenders, 37

Byron, George (continued)

1806: secret cause of melancholy, 37; "a violent, though pure, love and passion," 38; attachment to John Edleston, 38; Mrs. Massingberd became security, 38; mother alarmed by his bills, 39; associated with Jackson and Angelo, 39; wanted to go abroad, 39; frequented the theater, 39; "delicaci ensure everi succés," 39; reckless dissipation, 40; returned to Trinity, 40; preparing volume of poems at Southwell, 40; "maternal explosion" sent him to London, 40; swam in Channel with Long, 41; back at Southwell, 41; private theatricals, 41; Fugitive Pieces, 41; erotic poem "To Mary," 41; truce with Mrs. Byron, 42; swimming and pistol shooting, 42; Poems on Various Occasions, 42, 43; burned all but four copies of poems, 42

1807: £3,000 from usurers, 42; Leacroft family hoped to entrap him in marriage, 43; reducing regimen, 43; 5 feet 8½ inches tall, 43; £1,000 loan from relations, 43; Hours of Idleness published, 44; parting with Edleston, 44; met Hobhouse and Matthews, 44-5; "man of tumultuous passions," 45; in rapport with Matthews, 45; reviewed Wordsworth's poems, 45; kept tame bear at Cambridge, 46; admiration for Pope, 47; met Scrope Davies, 47; joined Cambridge Whig Club, 47; literary friendship with Hobhouse and Hodgson, 47

1808: took M.A. in July, 48, 52; "prefer Confucius," 49; met Dallas, 49; reconciled with Henry Drury and Dr. Butler, 50; "too much love," 50; his "blue eyed Caroline," 50; agitated by critique in Satirist, 51; attacked by Edinburgh, 51; kept girl disguised as boy, 51; his taste for low company, 52; thought gamblers happy, 52; debts, 52; with Hobhouse and Davies at Brighton, 52; emotionally involved with "nymph," 53; repairing Newstead, 53; eager to leave England, 53, 54; Boatswain died, 54; bear brought from Cambridge, 54; dined at Annesley Hall, 54; would marry a "Golden Dolly," 55

Byron, George (continued)

1809: 21st birthday in London, 55; skull cup, 55, 58; left Newstead maid pregnant, 56; snubbed by Carlisle on credentials, 56; mother urged him to marry for money, 56; took seat in House of Lords, 56-7; attacked contemporaries in English Bards, 56, 57; "born for opposition," 57; attack on Jeffrey, 58; party at Newstead, 58; secret reasons for going abroad, 59; preparing second edition of English Bards, 59; gave £500 to widow of Lord Falkland, 59; invited Hobhouse to join tour, 59; owed £13,000, 59; £2,000 from Sawbridge, 59, 60; took Murray, Fletcher, and Rush-ton, 60; left care of Newstead to mother, 60; £4,800 from Scrope Davies, 60; sailing on Lisbon packet, 61; facetious verses to Hodgson, 61; sailed July 2, 61; state of mind on leaving England, 61; exhilarated by Portugal, 62; swam across Tagus, 62; charmed by Cintra, 62-3; with Josepha Beltram, 63; on Seville, 63; at bullfight, 66; on beauty of Cádiz, 66; and Miss Cordova, 66; on Spanish women, 66; in Gibraltar, 66; provided for Rushton in will, 67; at Malta, 67-8; in love with Constance Smith, 68; sailed on Spider, 68; on Greek soil at Patras, 68; landed at Prevesa, 68; saw Nicopolis, 69; journey to Jannina, 69; hospitality of Ali Pasha, 70; bought Albanian dresses, 70; met Ali's grandson, 70; lost in thunderstorm, 70; at Zitsa, 70; enjoyed strenuous journey, 71; description of Tepelene, 71; thought Ali was impressed by his rank, 72; in Jannina again, 73; met son of Veli Pasha, 73; began Childe Harold, 73; confusion in storm, 73; Albanian dancing, 74; crossed to Patras, 74; saw Greek nationalism in Londos, 75; at Delphi, 75; carved name on column, 75; enthusiasm for living Greece, 75; arrived at Athens on Christmas, 75; rooms in Macri house, 75-6; daily excursions with Hobhouse, 76; view of Greece's golden age, 77

1810: first visit to Acropolis, 76, 77; changed view of ancient relics, 77; attack on Elgin in Childe Harold, 78; excursion to Sounion, 78; on plain of Marathon, 79; interest in Theresa Macri, 79-80; wrote "Maid of Athens," 80; journey to Ephesus, 81; finished second canto of Childe Harold, 82; Salsette frig-

Byron, George (continued)

ate to Constantinople, 82; explored site of Troy, 82; swam Hellespont, 82; on difference between Turks and English, 83; speaks Romaic and swears in Turkish, 83; "nothing but virtue will do," 83; arrival at Constantinople, 83; dislike of Turks, 84; excursions along Bosphorus, 84; follow "your ox, or your ass," 84, 85; bad news of Edleston, 85; at ambassador's audience with Sultan, 86; parted with Hobhouse, 86; returned to Athens, 86; declines buying Theresia, 86; to Patras, 86-7; his account of Eustathios, 87; visit to Veli Pasha, 87; "Vechio con Vechio," 87; in Capuchin monastery, Athens, 88; low comedy with "ragazzi," 88; Nicolo Giraud his favorite, 88, 89; ambivalence about Hobhouse, 89; rescued Turkish girl, 89; derived Giaour from incident, 89-90; his sexual abandon in Athens, 90; "clapped," 91; and Lady Hester Stanhope, 91; ill at Patras, 91; with foreigners at Athens, 92; learned languages of the country, 92; his life "a yawn," 92; second excursion to Sounion, 92-3, 93 n.; balls and fooleries, 93
 1811: reason for sending Fletcher home, 93; a citizen of the world, 93; notes for Childe Harold, 94; defends modern Greeks, 94; began Hints from Horace, 95; satire on Lord Elgin, 95; farewell to Athens, 95; carried relics and manuscripts, 96; nostalgia for "clime of the East," 96, 99; met Mrs. Smith again at Malta, 97; reasons "in favor of a change," 98; parting with Giraud, 98; three alternating illnesses, 99; arrived at Sheerness July 14, 99; habit of chewing tobacco, 99; Greece made him a poet, 99; his cosmopolitanism, 99; to Sittingbourne to see Hobhouse, 101; copyright of Harold to Dallas, 101, 102; refused to alter skeptical stanzas, 102; death of his mother, 103; remorse and self-pity, 103; shocked by death of Matthews, 103; a third death, Wingfield, 103; thoughts on death, 103-4; his will of 1811, 104; twitted Augusta on growth of family, 104; cheered by Davies, 104; added stanza on immortality, 104; angry with Murray, 105; modified stanzas on Cintra and Beckford, 105; hysterical merriment, 105; to visit Webster "out of envy," 105; abominates the sight of children, 106; Newstead an "amiable matrimonial mansion," 106; arguments on religion, 106; on Claridge and Davies, 106-7; brought Lucy back, 107; shocked by death of Edleston, 107-8; poem to "Thyrza," 107; belated challenge from Moore, 108; not to identify himself with Harold, 109; dinner with Rogers and Moore, 109; saving Bland's life and "Living," 109; predicted horns for Webster, 110; heard Coleridge lecture, 110; at Newstead with Harness and Hodgson, 111 1812: enamored of Susan Vaughan, 111-12; memories of Edleston, 110, 112; to leave England forever, 110, 112; to make himself Oriental scholar, 112; ambition to be Parliamentary orator, 112; consulted Lord Holland, 113; his maiden speech, 114; Lord Holland's opinion of speech, 114; poem on Frame Bill, 115; wrote "Weep, daughter," 115; impatient with "Parliamentary mummeries," 115; lack of ease in society, 115, 119; suppressed English Bards, 115-16; Childe Harold made him famous, 116; in Holland and Melbourne circles, 117; has clubfoot and bites nails, 118; overwhelmed by C. Lamb, 118, 119, 121; "that beautiful pale face," 119; Miss Milbanke "piquant" and modest, 119, 120; sole subject of conversation, 121; Miss Milbanke's opinion of, 121-2; his opinion of Annabella's poems, 122; a "fallen spirit," 123; Caroline shocked him, 123; tender letter to Caroline, 123-4; neglected "senatorial duties," 125; speech on Catholic claims, 125; praised by Jeffrey, 126; Lady Falkland's love letters, 126; friendship with Lady Jersey, 126; Lady Melbourne his confidante, 127, 131; tried to escape from C. Lamb, 127; member of Hampden Club, 128; met Lady Oxford, 128; sympathy for Princess of Wales, 129; presented to Prince Regent, 129; elopement stopped by Hobhouse, 129; Caroline's gift to, 130; found runaway Caroline, 130; farewell letter to Caroline, 131; Prince Regent thought affair ridiculous, 131; sold Newstead to Claughton, 131; his Drury Lane address, 132; attachment to Miss Milbanke, 132; Lady Melbourne his intermediary, 133; flirtation with Italian singer, 133; on women's eating, 133; speedy marriage his only salvation,

Byron, George (continued)

Byron, George (continued)

133; proposal to Miss Milbanke, 134; Annabella's "Character" of, 134; an involved rejection, 134; "my Princess of Parallelograms," 134; satire on waltzing, 135; Lady Oxford's "autumnal charms," 135; in the bowers of Armida, 135; stanzas to "Young Peri of the West," 136; "cannot exist without some object of love," 136; Annabella a "cold collation," 136; back in London, 137; burned in effigy by Caroline, 137; payment by Cloughton, 137; repaid Davies, 137; serene at Eywood again, 137
 1813: 100 guineas for Lady Oxford's picture, 139; lived "like the Gods of Lucretius," 139; in circle of Princess of Wales, 139; annoyed with Lady Oxford, 139-40; charmed Princess of Wales, 140; urged to "senatorial duties" by Lady Oxford, 140; fading dream of political career, 141, 143; possible addition to Harleian Miscellany, 141; probably marry Lady Charlotte Harley, 141; meeting with Caroline, 142; saw Hunt in prison, 142; Hobhouse his "guide, philosopher, and friend," 142; met Miss Milbanke again, 142; speech on right to petition, 143; publication of Giaour, 143; farewell to Lady Oxford, 143; baited Mme de Staël, 143-4; welcomed Augusta in London, 144; Augusta's motherly interest in, 145; called his sister "Goose," 145; with Caroline at waltzing party, 145-6; preparations to go abroad, 146; liked dandies better than literary men, 146; admiration for Sheridan, 147; revealed liaison with Augusta to Lady Melbourne, 147-8; dark deeds of ancestors, 148; gave up taking Augusta abroad, 148; letter from Annabella, 148; candid reply, 149; Miss Milbanke's specifications for husband, 150; friendship dangerous for young ladies, 150; "object of life is sensation," 150; drawn to Augusta, 150; additions to Giaour, 150; seeking escape, 151; new will, 151-2; views on religion, 152; on Annabella's self-delusions, 152; on the farcical Webster, 152; interest in Lady Frances Webster, 152; love in the billiard room, 153; Platonism in some peril, 153; "cannot exist without some object of attachment," 153; Pyrrhic victory at Newstead, 153, 154; puzzled by the caressing system, 154; gave

Byron, George (continued)

£1,000 to Hodgson, 154-5; began Bride of Abydos, 155; "All convulsions end with me in rhyme," 155; on mathematics, 155; poetry "the lava of the imagination," 155; self-examination in journal, 155, 156; "that perverse passion was my deepest," 156; Lady Melbourne, "so tactique," 157; mistress never can be a friend, 157; 6,000 copies of Bride sold, 157; smoking cigars, 157; "the summer of a dormouse," 157; on Burns's letters, 157; need to veil "physique" of pleasures, 158; no woman so comforting as Augusta, 158; self-revelation in Corsair, 158-9; on Annabella's qualities, 159
 1814: Mrs. Musters "all friendship," 159, 160; "constancy" of Lady Frances, 160; not aggressive in wickedness, 160; his feeling has "mixture of the terrible," 161; moderate expectation in a wife, 161; to Newstead with Augusta, 161; never yawn or disagree, 161; 10,000 copies of Corsair sold in day, 162; storm over "Lines to a Lady Weeping," 162; Hobhouse his best friend, 162; excited by Kean, 163, 167, 168; on Napoleon, 163; for a republic, 163; something softening in presence of woman, 163; low opinion of own poems, 163; posing for Phillips, 164; no comfort from religion, 164; another proposal invited, 164-5; sparring with Jackson, 165; rooms in Albany, 165; visit to Augusta before confinement, 165; ode to Napoleon, 165; bought macaw and parrot, 166; invitation from Seaham, 166; defended Augusta to Lady Melbourne, 167; heart "always alights on the nearest perch," 167; gave Albanian dress to Miss Elphinstone, 168 and n.; £3,000 to Augusta, 168; Lara written while undressing, 168; assignment with Henrietta d'Ussières, 168-9; at balls in "summer of the sovereigns," 169; wrote "She walks in Beauty," 169; avoided meeting Mary Chaworth, 170; interested in Lady Charlotte Gower, 170; wrote "Remember thee!," 170; scolded Caroline at masquerade, 171; last parting with Caroline, 171; at Hastings with Augusta, 172; prim letters from Annabella, 172; Augusta agreed he should marry, 173; avowed love to Annabella, 173; Lara sold 6,000 copies, 173; first acceptance of money for poems,

Byron, George (continued)

173; at Newstead with Augusta, 174; lost the shy Lady Charlotte, 174; tentative proposal to Annabella, 175; preparing an escape, 175; Annabella accepted, 176; no one more easily managed, 178; uncomfortable in new role, 179; melancholy parting from Newstead, 179-80; defended Augusta to Lady Melbourne, 180; proposed settlement of £60,000, 181; irritated with Hanson's delays, 181; visit from "Eliza," 181; wanted to be governed, 181, 183; left for Seaham, 182; "only wanted a woman to laugh," 182; no gifts or poetry for Annabella, 182; embarrassed by lameness, 182; on Annabella's feelings, 182; grave doubts about marriage, 183-4; his words analyzed by Annabella, 184; efficacy of his "calming process," 184; urged to leave, 184; applauded at Cambridge, 185; refused church wedding, 185, 187; visit from Eliza, 185; "the truly noble Lord Byron," 186-7; "Never was lover less in haste," 187; Annabella "doatingly fond," 188; his wedding, 188

1815: journey to Halnaby, 189-90; his account of marriage in Memoirs, 190 n., 191; honeymoon not all sunshine, 191; "had Lady B. on the sofa," 191; embarrassed by foot, 191; felt himself in hell with Proserpine, 191-2; great hopes of match, 192; his playful nature, 192; writing Hebrew Melodies, 192; hinted at crimes, 193; spoke fondly of sister, 193; talked of "little foot," 193; his skepticism and belief, 193-4; "If you wouldn't mind my words," 194; Annabella's credulity, 194; "what subjects to avoid," 194; more relaxed at Seaham, 194; won over Annabella's parents, 195; his "child-side," 195; debts £30,000, 196; his generosity, 196; leased house of Duchess of Devonshire, 196; "I think I love you," 196; visit to Augusta with Annabella, 197; crude innuendoes about the past, 197; drunk and uninhibited, 198; mood changed in London, 198-9; encouraged Coleridge, 199; advice to Hobhouse not to marry, 199, 208, 210; meeting with Walter Scott, 200, 201-2; use of Bible in Hebrew Melodies, 201; appeared happily married, 201; on Drury Lane Committee, 201; language of nonsense with Annabella, 202; visit to Leigh Hunt, 202;

Byron, George (continued)

friendship with Lady Melbourne not approved, 202; tempted to join Hobhouse abroad, 202; Newstead at auction but bought in, 203; growing despondency, 203; new will, 203-4; visit to Augusta, 204; on Drury Lane authors, 204; tried to get Mrs. Siddons for Drury Lane, 204-5; Coleridge sent copy of Christabel, 205; drunk with Sheridan, 205-6; his "passion for excitement," 206; bailiff in house, 206; rages misunderstood by wife, 205, 206, 207; "the most easy to be managed," 206; returned Murray's £1,500, 207; affair with Susan Boyce, 207-8; talked of going abroad, 208; on birth of Ada, 209; says wife is "perfection itself," 210; brutal outburst against Lady Byron, 210

1816: wife believed him insane, 211; his trunks and letter cases opened, 211; on conjugal terms with wife, 212; his wife's farewell, 212; "Dearest Duck" letter to, 213-14; Lady Byron not to return if he was sane, 214; his ill treatment revealed to Noels, 215; quarrel with Murray over Godwin, 217; Lady Noel thinks him not mad but bad, 217-18; "the greatest man existing," 218; divided mind about wife, 218; Sir Ralph's letter to, 218-19; reply to Sir Ralph, 219; his aversion to married state, 219-20; letters to Annabella, 220; confessed menacing conduct, 221; rumors of his crimes, 222, 224-5, 225 n.; pressured to accede to separation, 223; Augusta feared his suicide, 223; interview with wife refused, 224; sent £100 to Coleridge, 224; wrote "When we two parted," 224; causes of the separation, 225 and n.; truth of rumors not denied by wife, 225; first meeting with Claire Clairmont, 226; his gentleness and kindness, 227; "could love anything," 227; "Fare thee well" sent to Annabella, 228; satire on Mrs. Clermont, 228; Caroline pretended aid, 228-9; his "crimes" revealed to Lady Byron, 229-30; his books sold at auction, 230; snubbed by some at Lady Jersey's, 230; Miss Elphinstone kind to him, 230-1; farewell to Augusta, 231; his "Stanzas to Augusta," 231, 239; final letter to Annabella, 232; public feeling against him, 232; engaged Dr. Polidori, 232; his Napoleonic coach, 232; Claire brought

Byron, George (continued)

Mary Godwin to see him, 232; Claire proposed assignation, 233; gentleness of his manners, 233; signed separation deed, 233; on grave of Churchill, 234; a rebound to his spirits, 235; meant to go to Turkey, 235; and chambermaid in Ostend, 236; thought Rubens an imposter, 236; on the field of Waterloo, 236; began Childe Harold III, 236; stanzas on Waterloo, 236; on Napoleon, 237; character in Glenarvon, 237-8; saw 11,000 virgins' bones, 239; up the Rhine, 239; at Hotel d'Angleterre, Sécheron, 240; put down age as 100, 240; met Shelley party, 240; boating with Shelleys, 240-1; sang Albanian song, 241; dosed with Wordsworth physic, 241; moved to Villa Diodati, 241; conversations at Diodati, 242; bought boat with Shelley, 241; annoyed by Polidori's nonsense, 242; couldn't play the Stoic with Claire, 242; fantastic stories about, 242-3; Spartan diet, 243; ghost stories at Diodati, 243; tour of lake with Shelley, 243-4; on Shelley's coolness in storm, 243-4; at Chillon, 244; stanzas on Rousseau, 244; on Voltaire and Gibbon, 244; tired of Claire, 245; visits to Mme de Staël, 245; Mrs. Hervey fainted at his entrance, 245; refused to flatter Schlegel, 245-6; poem on death of Sheridan, 246; dejection in poems, 246; new verses to Augusta, 247; more moral sensitivity than Augusta, 247; called Augusta's worst friend, 248; his levity disapproved by wife, 248; "did not sit long enough" for Glenarvon likeness, 248; arrangements for his child by Claire, 248-9; with Monk Lewis to Ferney, 249; attempted reconciliation with Annabella, 249; sensed Augusta was upset, 249, 251; Childe Harold sent with Shelley, 250; erased "atheist" after Shelley's name, 250; tour to Chamouni, 250; tells Augusta about Claire, 250; his letters shown to Lady Byron, 250; his "moral Clytemnestra," 251; tour of Bernese Alps, 251; dismissed Polidori, 251; kept journal for sister, 251; attached only to Augusta, 251; woods all withered, like his family, 252; Shelley's confidence in Byron's poetry, 252; composition of Manfred, 252-3; left for Milan, 254; social life at La Scala, 255; lock of hair at Ambrosian, 255; with Italian

Byron, George (continued)

literati, 256; met Henri Beyle, 256; his story of Col. Fitzgerald, 256; Augusta his only comfort, 256-7; like Swift's withered tree, 257; letter from Claire, 257; resolved on silence, 257; tried to get Polidori out of scrape, 257; watched by secret police, 257-8; pleased with Venice, 258, 259; Venice his "greenest island," 259; in love with Marianna Segati, 259; met Countess Albrizzi, 259; studying Venetian dialect, 259; "consider me as posthumous," 260; studying Armenian, 260; no strong compulsion to write, 260; one of happiest "unlawful couples," 260; "no hopes for them as laughs," 260-1; bears expense of Armenian grammar, 261; third canto his favorite, 262

1817: birth of illegitimate daughter, 262; never pretended to love Claire, 262; on the Carnival, 262; "proofs of mutual good contentment," 262; amused by Italian manner of love, 262-3; "So we'll go no more a-roving," 263; literature not his vocation, 263; thought modern poets on wrong road, 263, 275; would not return to Annabella, 264; "I hate things all fiction," 264; devout when he hears the organ, 264; on Lord Guilford's carcass, 265; on road to Rome, 265; Lament of Tasso, 265; view of Florence galleries, 265; his house in Rome, 265, 265-6 n.; equestrian excursions, 266; "I can't describe," 266; dangerous to look at, 266; sat for Thorwaldsen bust, 266; witnessed public hanging, 267; on his daughter "Alba" (Allegra), 267; returned to Venice, 267; resigned to being expatriate, 267; to sell Newstead, 268; income from poetry, 268; on Augusta's "megrimms and mysteries," 268; summer at La Mira, 269; Manfred's reception, 269; fourth canto of Harold, 269, 270, 272, 274; wrote best in early morning, 270-1; liaison with Margarita Cogni, 271-2; his "delicate declension" to Polidori, 272; Segati's Venetian story, 272-3; framework and style of Beppo, 273; friendship with Hoppner, 275; back in Venice, 275; Newstead sold to Wildman, 275; £30,000 in debts, 276; named daughter Allegra, 276; Albrizzi conversazioni, 276, 279; heard Rossini, 276

Byron, George (continued)

1818: sent MS of Harold with Hobhouse, 276; affair with Marianna wearing out, 277; sought solace in Carnival, 277; verse epistle to Murray, 277-8; a new intrigue, 278; first gonorrhea not paid for, 278; at conversazioni of Benzoni, 278-9; affairs with Venetian women, 279; love of coarse pleasures, 279; bargained for Gritti Palace, 280; leased Palazzo Mocenigo, 280; impatient to see Allegra, 280; Claire still in love with him, 281; Allegra at Palazzo Mocenigo, 281-2; Beppo well received, 282; met Alexander Scott, 282; swimming contest with Mengaldo, 282-3; "fuff-fuff" with Taruscelli, 283; writing into the morning, 283; his animals and servants, 283; irritation with correspondents, 283-4; on Leigh Hunt's "system," 284; at work on Don Juan, 284, 287; prose memoirs promised, 284; every woman an object of affection, 285; talked of by gondoliers, 285; had two hundred women, 285-6; Shelley's visit to Venice, 286, 287; granted Claire's request to see Allegra, 286; satire on Lady Byron in Don Juan, 287-8; innocent seduction of Juan, 288; dedication to Southey, 288-9; his account of Margarita Cogni, 289-90; his dissipations reported by Shelley, 290; arrival of Hansons in Venice, 290-1; had grown fat and looked forty, 291; codicil leaving £5,000 to Allegra, 291; finances clarified by Kinnaird, 291; friends say impossible to publish Juan, 292; omitted stanzas on Castle-reagh and two "bobs," 292; defended morals of Don Juan, 292-3
1819: Julian adventure not his own, 292-3; list of women he had in Venice, 293; his love for money, 294; "sha'n't make Canticles of my Cantos," 294; no "damned cutting and slashing," 294; Harold a human poem, 294; will make 50 cantos of Don Juan, 294; liaison with unmarried girl, 294-5, 302-3; met Countess Guiccioli, 295-6; did not "confine himself to sentiment," 297; his realistic account of liaison, 298; "the proper consummation," 299; at Rossini's Otello with Teresa, 299; "my last Passion," 300; did not mean to love any more, 301, 303; his "Stanzas to the Po," 301; longing for renewal with Augusta, 302; Teresa reminded him of Augusta, 302;

Byron, George (continued)

"approximations to indelicacy," 303; journey to Ravenna, 303-4; in Ferrara: "Implora pace," 303; pleased with gravedigger in Bologna, 304; shocked by news of Teresa's illness, 304; proposed an elopement, 305; "Prophecy of Dante" suggested by Teresa, 305; read Paolo and Francesca with Teresa, 305; cuckolded Count in own palace, 305-6; association with Alborghetti, 306; angered Cardinal Malvasia, 306; "She bears up gallantly," 306; "my last love," 306; felt old beyond his years, 306-7; flirtation with Geltrude, 307; Teresa made him jealous, 307; described Teresa to Augusta, 307-8; perplexed by care of Allegra, 308; first two cantos of Don Juan published, 308; plans for Don Juan, 308-9; "to giggle and make giggle," 309; puzzled by Count's complacency, 309; with Guicciolis in Bologna, 309-12; hysterical at Alfieri's Mirra, 309; sent for Allegra, 310; "Carpe diem" is not enough, 310; dream of escape to South America, 310, 313; ill with conflict of emotions, 310-11; letter to Teresa in Corinne, 311; journey to Venice with Teresa, 312; preferred Dante to Petrarch, 312; with Teresa at La Mira, 313; idea of joining reform in England, 313-14; new verses for Don Juan, 314; fat with whiskers and long hair, 314; with Moore in Venice, 314; presented Memoirs to Moore, 314-315; scorched and drenched, 315; women commanded not to read Don Juan, 315; Juan bawdy but good English, 315; strength of cant, 316; confining himself "to the strictest adultery," 316; more ravished than anybody since Trojan war, 316; with Guicciolis in Palazzo Mocenigo, 316; persuaded Teresa to return with husband, 316-17; little taste for return to England, 316-17, 321; wished freedom from strong passions, 317; "Love has gained the victory," 318; long hair cut off, 318; returned to Ravenna, 318
1820: an acknowledged cavalier servente, 319; Count polite but inscrutable, 319; friction with Teresa, 320; offered upper floor of Guiccioli palace, 320; his aristocratic liberalism, 321-2; on the debacle of Scrope Davies, 322; serventismo "the happiest state of all," 322; his daughter thriving and spoiled, 322; his poems on Italian themes, 322; reply to Blackwood's, 323; attack on Lake Poets and Keats, 323; ballad on Hobhouse, 323; on the Cardinal Legate, 323-4; sympathies with Carbonari, 324; work on Faliero interrupted by love, 324; intended daughter for England or convent, 325; refused to send Allegra to Shelleys, 325; caught "quasi in the fact" with Teresa, 325; his conventionality, 326; liked by Count Gamba, 326; clerical party eager to be rid of him, 326; aided by Count Alborghetti, 326-7; disturbed by Teresa's catering to Count, 327; his promise to be her husband, 327; status changed by Teresa's separation, 327, 328; danger of violence from Count, 328; completed Marino Faliero, 329; witnesses for Queen Caroline, 329; liked Teresa's brother Pietro, 329; "inoculated into a family," 330-1; honorary chief of Turba (Mob), 330; "a romance, in the Anglo fashion," 331; sent Constant's Adolphe to Teresa, 331; misery of unhallowed liaisons, 331; opinion of Wordsworth and Keats, 331-2; reviving Hints from Horace, 332; threatening letters from Claire, 332; defended Shelley, 332; half believed story of Claire and Shelley, 333; suspected of complicity in plots, 333; counseled prudence, 333; Don Juan too true for Teresa, 334; stanza on Queen, 334-5; continuation of Memoirs, 335; defense of Pope, 335; low opinion of Keats, 335; "I am like the tyger," 336; secret information from Alborghetti, 336; indignant over threat to Teresa, 336; his humanity to wounded commandant, 336-7; dreams of escape fading, 337

Byron, George (continued)

1821: composition always painful, 338; began journal, 338-9; ennui and low spirits, 339; revolution expected, 339; his apologia in Sardanapalus, 339, 342; agitated by Faliero on stage, 340; the soul a "grand peut-être," 340; literary projects, 340; sixteen minutes to any pleasure, 340; plans for Don Juan, 341; arms returned to his house, 341; "the very poetry of politics," 341; Italians must return to making operas, 342; Allegra sent to convent, 342; popular in Ravenna, 343; arrest of Tita, 343; protest to Cardinal, 343; promise not to continue Don Juan, 344;

Byron, George (continued)

visit from young American, 344; poetry the expression of excited passion, 344; banishment aimed at him, 345; persuaded Teresa to join family, 345; Tita released, 345; his daring speculations in Cain, 346; bargain a hostile transaction, 347; frankest letters to Murray, 347; suppressed attacks on Keats, 347; Shelley's visit to Ravenna, 347-8; told Shelley of Elise's story, 348; his habits described by Shelley, 348; his menagerie, 348; Shelley's praise of Don Juan, 348; embarrassed by Mary's letter to Hoppner, 349; scheme to bring Hunt to Italy, 350; wanted no periodical works, 350; in sweat of packing, 351; wanted to go to Greece, 351; a new woman and a young moon, 351; wrote Vision of Judgment, 351; leader of "Satanic School," 351; on George III and Southey in Vision, 351-2; marriage the way to hate, 353; reluctant to leave Ravenna, 353; considered dangerous by Austrian spies, 353; leans toward a republic, 353; nostalgic memories in "Detached Thoughts," 353-4; omissions from Memoirs, 354; on immortality, 354; "a sad jar of atoms," 354; search for terrestrial Paradise, 354; letter from Allegra, 354; menagerie and daughter in Ghigi's care, 355; meeting with Lord Clare, 355; traveled to Florence with Rogers, 355; in Shelley's English circle, 356, 358; pleased with Casa Lanfranchi, 357; center of masculine circle, 359, 360; joined by Taaffe and Medwin, 359; daily rides and pistol shooting, 359; Mary Shelley strongly attracted to, 359-60; "Boswellized" by Medwin, 360; shines in conversation, 360; "spirit of an angel" in "decaying body," 361; respect for Shelley, 361; defense of Cain, 361; "only children" in his family, 362; sentimental letter to Annabella, 362; "little better than a Christian," 362; auto da fé, 362-3

1822: sat for bust to Bartolini, 363; youth gone at thirty-four, 363; calmer relation with Teresa, 363; Harriette Wilson's proposal, 363; conversation not literary, 364; on Trelawny and the Corsair, 364, 365; a true Britisher, 365; ordered a boat made, 365; strained relations with Murray, 365; sorry for death of Lady Noel, 366; income from Wentworth estates,

Byron, George (continued)

366-7; took name of Noel Byron, 366; income from poetry, 367; gave Hunt £250, 367; attitude to Claire angered Shelley, 368; Shelley's continued admiration, 369; Mary found him fascinating, 369; defended Shelley's character, 369; his abstemiousness, 369; and the Masi affray, 370-1; his servant wounded Masi, 370-1; his servants arrested, 371; permission to continue Don Juan, 372; baiting Rogers, 372; shocked by Allegra's death, 372; wanted Allegra buried at Harrow, 373; mixed feelings for Allegra, 373; thoughts on Ada, 373; sent Allegra's portrait to Claire, 374; took Gambas to Villa Dupuy, 374; visited U.S. squadron, 375; New York edition of poems, 376; visited by George Bancroft, 376; spoke Italian well, 376; named schooner Bolivar, 376; Shelley wanted to avoid, 376-7; use of Bolivar curtailed, 377; the meeting of "the wren and the eagle," 377-8; grown fat, 378; government trying to get rid of him, 378; back at Pisa with the Hunts, 378; gave Hunt copyright of Vision, 379; Mrs. Hunt's disdain, 379; not sanguine about new journal, 380; Teresa alone with him in Pisa, 380; agreeable life with Hunt, 380-1; kind to Mary, 382; his tribute to Shelley, 382; irritated by dependence of Hunt, 382-3; friends diasapproved of alliance, 383; Hunt children little Yahoos, 383, 389; three new cantos of Don Juan, 383; at cremation of Williams and Shelley, 384; hysterical merriment in coach, 384; first number of The Liberal, 385; laughing at Moore's rhymes, 385; "Tommy loves a lord," 385; bored with domestic life, 385; his aversion, 385-6; to go to Greece or America, 386; wanted to provide for Teresa, 386; visits of Medwin and Hobhouse, 386-7; accused Hobhouse of looking at foot, 387; "a superannuated Jesuit," 387; cramp from swimming at Lerici, 387-8; at Casa Saluzzo, 388, 389; to be Mary's banker, 389; brought Juan to England, 389; friction with Hunt, 390; Vision published without preface, 390; withdrew from Murray as publisher, 390; Murray's protest about Don Juan, 390-1; more rapport with Murray than Hunt, 391; attempt to aid Mary Shelley, 391-2; his voice affects Mary, 392; thinking of escape, 392; visit of Webster, 392; letters to Lady Hardy, 392; love "a sort of hostile transaction," 392; his thinning regime, 393; felt himself seventy, 393; offered legal aid to J. Hunt, 393; Mrs. Mason urged support for Claire, 393-4 1823: Mary felt he was "heartless," 394; through with "fierce delight in the passions," 394-5; "I loves lucre," 395; wanted foot amputated, 395; Age of Bronze and Island, 395; like pulling man out of river, 395; visit of Henry Fox, 396; interest in Lady Blessington, 396-7; D'Orsay pleased him, 397; on English cant, 398, 400; invitation to go to Greece, 398; frankness about friends, 398-9; on Hobhouse's frankness, 398-9; breaking the news to Teresa, 398, 400; conversation had effect of champagne on, 399; his "mobility," 399; his beau idéal, 399; "I have no character at all," 400; member of Greek Committee, 400; gave up so much to women, 401; poetical temperament precludes happiness, 401; if married would be cited as happy, 401; gave MSS. to Teresa, 401; foresaw death in Greece, 402; wish to return to England, 402; parting from Blessingtons, 402; preparations for voyage, 402-3; asked Trelawny to join, 402-3; chartered Hercules, 403; engaged Dr. Bruno, 403; uniforms and helmets, 403; financial squabble with Hunt and Mary, 403-4; £9,000 for Greek venture, 405; Santa Claus to Greek exiles, 405; sad parting with Teresa, 405-6; on board the Hercules, 406; becalmed, on shore again, 406; in storm, 406; missed by Barry, 406-7; Teresa's distress, 407; joined by Hamilton Browne at Leghorn, 408; his farewell to Italy, 408; spirits improved in Ionian Sea, 409; his servants, 409; poetry inspired by Greece, 412; at Argostoli, 412; dissension among Greeks, 412-13; wrote Marco Botsaris, 413; remained on Hercules, 413; large tolerance for Greeks, 413, 417; hired Suliote bodyguard, 413-14; his uncertain skepticism, 414; Dr. Kennedy tried to convert, 414-15; journey to Ithaca, 415-16; brought Morea family to Cephalonia, 416; paroxysm at monastery, 416; riding, swimming, dining, 417; attachment to Teresa weakening, 416-17; petitions from partisans,

Byron, George (continued)

Byron, George (continued)

417; selfishness unmasked, 417; dismissed the Suliotes, 418; removed to house on shore, 418; criticized for dawdling, 418 and n.; made butt of Trelawny, 419; house at Metaxata, 419 and n.; nostalgia for Italy and Teresa, 419; regarded politics as art of cheating, 420; desire for military glory and detestation of war, 420; concerned for Ada's health, 420; conversations on religion, 420-1; made sport of Kennedy, 421; arrival of Finlay, 421; Delladecima his chief adviser, 421; Theotoky's report, 421; letter from Hastings, 421; Trelawny's disparagement, 421-2; his abstemious diet, 422; to aid Mavrocordatos at Missolonghi, 422, 424; agreed to loan of £4,000, 423; on Bentham's Springs of Action, 423; on the "typographical Colonel," 424; letter to Government of Greece, 424; called Mavrocordatos "Washington" of Greece, 425; took up journal again, 425; dream of leading an army, 425; might be king, 425; "the coming of a Messiah," 425, 428; mathematical instruments and trumpets, 426; on Stanhope's high-flown notions, 426; will "electrify the troops," 426; on board the mistico, 427; encounter with Turkish vessel, 428; escaped to Dragomestre, 429

1824: blown on Scrofos rocks, 429; his letters dropped into sea, 429; landed at Missolonghi, 430; met Mavrocordatos, 430; to lead force against Lepanto, 431; to provide for 500 Suliotes, 431; his house in Missolonghi, 432; his servants, 432; preparation for artillery corps, 432-3; his disbursements, 433; irritated by Gamba's extravagance, 433; sale of Rochdale, 433; all parties seek his dollars, 433-4; eager to face danger, 434-5; emotional frustration with Loukas, 435; poem on 36th year, 435-6; sent Turkish prisoners to Patras, 437; visited by officers of Alacrity, 437; Forrester's description of, 437; trouble with Suliotes, 437-8; trip to Anatolico, 438; gave up bed to ill Loukas, 438; agonized verses, 438-9; rescued supplies in rain, 439; confided chagrin to Parry, 439; Lepanto ready to surrender, 440; Parry felt him abandoned and betrayed, 440; gave Parry disbursing job, 440-1; stopped support of Suliotes, 441; new corps of three hundred,

Byron, George (continued)

441; convulsive fit, 441-2; excessive bleeding by doctors, 442; cared for Turkish woman and daughter, 442-3; wanted to send Turkish girl to Ada, 443; cool in dealing with Suliotes, 443; feared dying like Swift, 444; depression and high spirits, 444, 445; health precarious, 444, 447; his practical jokes, 445; the earthquake, 445; a hero in England, 445; better than singing at parties like Moore, 446; his bodyguard, 446; playing with his dog Lion, 446; marching with bodyguard, 446; conversations with Finlay, 447; invitation to congress at Salona, 447; rumor he was continuing Don Juan, 447; wrote English to Teresa, Italian to Greeks, 448; administrator of English loan, 448; trust in common people, 448-9; thought federation suitable to Greeks, 449; presented citizenship of town, 449; deeply troubled by failures, 449; hope of uniting leaders faded, 450; unrequited love for Loukas, 450; feared danger to loan, 450, 451; his last poem, 450-1; Karaiskakis affair, 451; more irritable, 452; name stands high in England, 452; soaked in heavy rain, 452; fever and rheumatic pain, 452, 453; his last illness, 453-60; "Beware your thirty-seventh year," 453; Parry prepared to take him to Zante, 453; Millingen and Bruno insist on bleeding, 453; Parry encouraged his opposition, 454; asked for witch to dispel evil eye, 454; dangerously ill, 454; confusion in his household, 454, 455; his intentions for Greece, 455; "Come, come, no weakness," 455; succumbed to bleeding, 455-6, 457, 459; alarmingly ill and delirious, 456; at mercy of doctors, 456; Vaya and Treiber consulted, 456; went into shock, 456; no one to see his lame foot, 457; quiet on Easter, 457; proclaimed enemy of Porte, 457; English loan concluded, 457; requested body not be sent to England, 457; "questa è una bella scena," 458; "Forwards—forwards—courage," 458; confusion in sickroom, 458; "Io lascio qualche cosa di caro," 458; angry with medical men, 459; anxiety for servants, 459; gave bag of dollars to Loukas, 459; mentioned sister and wife, 459; last words, 459; his endeavor "most glorious," 460; died on Easter Monday, 460; thunderstorm

Byron, George (continued)

at time of death, 461; grief was genuine, 462; the autopsy, 462-3; clubfoot observed, 462; modern clinical report, 463; probable cause of death, 463; funeral oration by Tricoupi, 463; kleptich ballad about, 464; mourning throughout Greece, 464; now among Greek heroes, 464; Trelawny said both feet clubbed, 464-5; part of "honorable cadaver" left in Greece, 465; in cask of spirits, 465; Teresa's grief, 465; Kinnaird first to get news in England, 465; Hobhouse remembered his laugh, 466; friends to protect his reputation, 466; Mary Shelley's reaction, 466; battle over the Memoirs, 466-7; Memoirs burned at Murray's, 467; his magical influence, 467; impact on literary men, 467-8; Hobhouse and Lion by coffin, 468; viewing the corpse, 468; to be buried in family vault, 468; burial in Westminster refused, 468; deathbed words to Fletcher, 468-9; timidity of the great in mourning, 469; funeral procession, 469-70; "buried like a nobleman," 470; Mary Shelley saw procession, 470; the last journey to Hucknall, 470; casket on that of "Wicked Lord," 470; his own epitaph in Childe Harold, 471

Epilogue: kept his friends in hot water, 472; women sought return of letters, 472; his memory haunted C. Lamb, 472; letters to, kept by Hobhouse, 472-3; his letters to Moore vanished, 473; Hobhouse the protector of his reputation, 473; Moore's Letters and Journals, 473; Gamba's Narrative, 473; Trelawny's equivocal attitudes, 474; Trelawny's Recollections, 475; residue of property to Augusta, 475; Medora thought herself his daughter, 475; Lady Byron's "confidences" about, 475-6; Stowe scandal about, 476; daughter revered his memory, 476; Claire's hatred of, 476; Teresa worshipped, 477; "Qu'il était beau," 477; "ancienne maîtresse de Byron," 477; Teresa "talked" with his spirit, 477; in Westminster Abbey, 478

Byron (Works):

Age of Bronze, 395

"Away, Away, Ye Notes of Woe," 110

Beppo: quoted, 273-4, 471; 96, 272-3, 273-4, 278, 282, 287, 298

"Blues, The," 350

Byron (Works) (continued)

Bosworth Field, 46

Bride of Abydos: quoted, 99; 155, 157, 164, 200

British Bards, a satire, 47, 58

"By the Rivers of Babylon . . .," 192

Cain, 340, 345-6, 350, 358, 361, 362, 369, 387, 393, 414

Childe Harold I-II: "Paphian girls," 58; Byron's moods recorded in, 66; bullfight described in, 63, 66; melancholy and gusto of, 70; note quoted Gibbon on Albania, 71; begun at Jannina, 73; described Albanian dances, 74; stanzas on Parnassus, 75; on Greece's golden age, quoted, 77; on Lord Elgin, quoted, 78; note on modern Greeks, 79; on ancient Greece, quoted, 81; second canto finished at Smyrna, 82; Byron's notes for, 94; tribute to Athens in notes, 96; Byron nervous about, 98; motto from Le Cosmopolite, 99; Dallas claimed credit for discovering, 101; Murray to publish, 104-5; stanza on immortality, quoted, 104; free-thinking passages, 106; stanza on Edleston, quoted, 107; Byron not to identify with Harold, 109; publication brought Byron fame, 116; Caroline Lamb read, 118; Miss Milbanke read, 120; old maids cried over, 121; popularity of, 121, 125-6; Lady Falkland thought love passages to her, 126; stanzas to Lady Charlotte Harley, 135-6; and Byron's fame, 144; self-revelation in, 163; Scott's admiration for, 199; on Ada, quoted, 210; a Human poem, 294; Teresa preferred to Don Juan, 334

Childe Harold III: quoted, 235, 236-7; on Waterloo, 237; on Napoleon, quoted, 237; "The Castled Crag of Drachenfels," 239; on battle at Morat, quoted, 239; Wordsworthian stanzas, 241; on Rousseau, quoted, 244; on Voltaire and Gibbon, 244-5; Claire copied, 245; Murray and Gifford pleased with, 252; £2,000 for Childe and Chillon, 252, 268; Shelley took MS. to England, 250; reception of, 261; 7,000 copies sold, 262; Byron's favorite, 262; influenced by Shelley, 272; stanzas added to, 274; Byron's alter ego, 306

Childe Harold IV: distilled from Roman impressions, 266; written at La Mira, 269; Byron's deepest feelings in, 270; Roman stanzas, quoted, 270; fountain of Egeria, quoted, 270; return to reason, quoted, 270; Hobhouse took MS. to England, 276; Murray in raptures over, 282; Hobhouse's notes for, 272, 282; Murray sent to Lady Byron, 284; "Torture and Time," quoted, 284; Shelley's disapproval of, 348; "have not lived in vain," quoted, 471

Byron (Works) (continued)

Childe Harold V: fifth canto contemplated, 409

Corsair, The: 97, 158-9, 160, 162, 164, 168, 365

"Could Love forever," quoted, 317

Curse of Minerva, 95, 97, 116

"Darkness," 246

"Death of Calmar and Orla, The," 44

"Detached Thoughts," 20, 26, 35, 37, 52, 353

Don Juan: "the simple truth," 42;

Ali Pasha model for Lambro,

72; "Eleven thousand Maiden heads," quoted, 239; first canto finished, 284, 287; "a little quietly facetious," 287; satire on Lady Byron, quoted, 287; innocent seduction of Juan, quoted, 288; dedication to Southey, 288; "free as La Fontaine," 291; Hobhouse says impossible to publish, 292; Castlereagh and two "bobs" omitted,

292; Byron defended morals of,

292-3; "an entire horse, or none," 292; "no indelicacy" in,

303; published without Byron's name, 308; "to giggle and make giggle," 309; "sonnets all his life," quoted, 314; fun and gravity in, 315; commandment of women not to read, 315; bawdy but good English, 315; third and fourth cantos finished, 321; defiance of moral critics, quoted,

334; stanza on Queen, 334;

"moral centaur" stanza, quoted,

335; Byron's plans for, 341; defended by Lockhart, 343-4; Byron's promise not to continue,

344; strips off illusions, 334,

344; barbed reference to Keats, quoted, 347; Shelley's admiration for, 347; Byron regretted promise to abandon, 350; attacks on Southey, 351; Murray treated as stepchild, 361; 2,500 guineas for three plays and,

362; Teresa gave permission to continue, 372; name of Shel-

Byron (Works) (continued)

ley's boat, 376-7; not intended for the Liberal, 380; Byron wrote late at night, 380; amusing stanzas shown to Teresa, 381; versified Aurora, quoted, 383; Juan in England, 389; Murray shocked by, 390; copied by Mary Shelley, 391; profit-sharing deal with J. Hunt, 396, 405; cantos 14 and 15 brought $20,000, 402 n.; Byron supposed writing another canto, 409; theological problems in, 414; begin 17th canto a changed man, 421; Byron's death scene worthy of, 461; Hobhouse urged part suppression, 467

"Dream, The," 30, 246

"Elegy on Newstead Abbey," 44

English Bards, and Scotch Review- ers: preparing for the press, 56;

without Byron's name, 57;

quoted (on Wordsworth), 57; attack on Jeffrey in, 58; second edition, 59; on Elgin Marbles,

77; success of, 85, 95; praised

Horæ Ionicæ, 101; on Moore-

Jeffrey duel, 108; fifth edition suppressed, 115; Jeffrey attacked in, 126; Popean satire in, 163; satire on Coleridge in, 199;

Hints a sequel to, 332

"Epigrams on Lord Castlereagh," 385

"Epistle from Mr. Murray to Dr.

Polidori": quoted, 272

"Fare thee well": quoted, 228, 231

"Framers of the Frame Bill," 115

Francesca da Rimini: quoted,

158 n., 322

Fugitive Pieces, 41

Giaour, The, 89-90, 143, 150-1;

quoted, 151

"Girl of Cadiz, The": quoted, 66

"Greeks Arise," 75 n.

Heaven and Earth, 365, 393, 414

Hebrew Melodies: "She walks in Beauty," quoted, 169; 192, 199,

201

"Herod's Lament for Mariamne," 192

"Hills of Annesley": quoted, 34

Hints from Horace: quoted, 46;

95, 101, 105, 116, 332, 341

Hours of Idleness, 44, 45, 58, 126

Island, The, 395

"Isles of Greece, The": quoted, 79

"I speak not, I trace not": quoted, 167

"I would I were a careless child," 52

"Lachin Y Gair," 44

Lament of Tasso, The, 265, 268

Lara, 168, 173

Byron (Works) (continued)

- "Letter to the Editor of 'My Grandmother's Review,'" 385
 "Lines Inscribed upon a Cup Formed from a Skull": quoted, 55
 "Lines on Hearing that Lady Byron Was Ill," 251
 "Lines to a Lady Weeping," 162
 "Lines to Mr. Hodgson": quoted, 61
 "Maid of Athens": quoted, 80, 126
Manfred: quoted, 253; 254, 263, 268, 269, 272, 340, 346, 447
Marino Faliero, 264, 324, 329, 340, 402 n.
Memoirs (Byron's), 190 n., 284, 314-15, 335, 335 n., 350, 466-7, 473
 "Monody on the Death of the Right Hon. R. B. Sheridan," 246
Morgante Maggiore, 322
 "My boy Hobby O," 323
 "My dear Mr. Murray": quoted, 277-8
 "Ode on Venice," 284
Ode to Napoleon Buonaparte, 165
 "On This Day I Reach My Thirty-Sixth year," 435-6
 Oriental tales, 72, 97, 143, 148, 157, 163
Poems on Various Occasions, 42, 43
Prisoner of Chillon, 244, 245, 250, 252, 262, 268
 "Prometheus": quoted, 246
Prometheus Vincit, 246
Prophecy of Dante, 305, 322
 "Remember thee!": quoted, 170
Sardanapalus, 339, 342, 350, 362
 "She walks in Beauty": quoted, 169
 "Sketch from Private Life, A": quoted, 228
 "So we'll go no more a-roving": quoted, 263
 "Stanzas to Augusta," 231, 239
 "Stanzas to the Po": quoted, 301, 303
 "Though the day of my destiny's over": quoted, 247
 "Thyrza": quoted, 107
 "To Mary," 41
 "To My Son," 56
 "To the Irish Avatar," 350
Two Foscari, The, 351, 362
Vision of Judgment, The: quoted, 352; 379, 385, 390, 405
Waltz, The, 135
 "Weep, daughter of a royal line," 115
Werner, 393
 "When we two parted": quoted, 224

Byron (Works) (continued)

- "Written after Swimming from Sestos to Abydos," 82-3
 Byron, Sir John (of Colwyke), 3, 17 n.
 Byron, Sir John ("Little Sir John with the Great Beard"), 3
 Byron, Sir John (1st Lord Byron), created 1643 first Baron of Rochdale, 3
 Byron, Admiral John (poet's grandfather), 4, 7, 21 n.
 Byron, John (poet's father), 4-5, 7, 9, 10, 11-12, 148
 Byron, Juliana Elizabeth, 21 n.
 Byron peerage, 15
 Byron, Richard (2nd Lord), 3
 Byron, William, 5th Lord (the "wicked Lord") 4, 13, 15-16, 18, 54, 180, 470
 Byron, William (son of 5th Lord), 21 n.
 "Byron's Ivy" (Metaxata), 419 n.
 Byron's Pool, 37
 "Byron Street": in Jannina, 69 n.; at Metaxata, 419 n.; in Greek towns, 464 Cacciatore, Vera, 265 n.
Cacciatore Americani, 330
 Cádiz, 63, 66
 Cahn, Sir Julian, 276 n.
 Caimacam, 64
 Cairo, 95
 Caledonia, 95
 Calle de las Cruzes, 63
 Calthorpe, Lord, 32
 Calvinism, 148, 152, 194
 Cam (river), 37, 103, 108
 Cambridge, 31, 34, 48
 Cambridge Whig Club, 47
 Cameron, Miss, 51
 Campbell, Thomas, 109, 157, 460, 470
 Candia (Crete), 434
 Candide, 171, 287
 Canning, George, 156
 Canning, Stratford, 84
 Canova, Antonio, 259, 295
 Canterbury, Archbishop of, 187
 Cape Janissary, 82
 Capsali, Apostoli, 432
 Capuchin Convent (Athens monastery), 88, 93
 Capulets, 258
 Caravaggio, 258
 Carbonari, 299, 324, 337, 340, 341, 442
 Carboneria, 330, 333
 Carlisle, Earl of, 19, 21-2, 26, 32, 56, 104
 Carlyle, Thomas, 467-8
 Carmarthen, Lady (Amelia d'Arcy, Baroness Conyers), 5, 8
 Carnival, 262-3, 277, 294, 319

- Caroline (Byron's mistress), 50, 53
 Caroline, Queen, 329, 331, 334, 350
 Cartwright, Major John, 143
 Caryatid, 78 n.
 Castalian Spring, 75
 Casti, Abate Giambattista, 273
 Castiglione, Marchesa, 256
 Castinelli family, 359
 Castlereagh, 289, 292, 387
 Castri (Delphi), 75
 Catalani, Madame Angelica, 50-1
 Catherine II, 29
 Catholic churches, 264
 Catholic Claims Bill, 125
 Catholicism, 342, 369
Cavalier servente, 298, 313, 320, 324, 327, 331, 341
 Cavalli, Marchese, 319
 Cavendish Square, 9
 Cawthorn, James, 56, 85, 98, 105
 Cà Zen, 300
 Cephalonia, 72, 408, 412
 Cephesus, 75
 Certosa cemetery (Ferrara), 303
 Chalandritsanos, Loukas, 427, 429, 432, 435-6, 435 n., 437, 438-9, 445, 450-1, 459, 474
 Chalandritsanos family, 416
 Chamouni, 245, 248, 250
Champion, 232
 Chantrey, Sir Francis Legatt, 31
 Charlemagne, 209
 Charles I, 3
 Charles II, 3
 Chatsworth, 118
 Chaworth, Mary, 18, 21 n., 26-7, 30, 33, 34, 38, 179, 246; see also Must-ers, Mrs.
 Chaworth, William, 4
 Cheltenham, 131
 Childe Burun (Childe Harold), 73
 Chillon, castle of, 244
 Christ-Church Hospital, 284
 Christchurch (Oxford), 35
 Church of England, 471
 Churchill, Charles, 234
 Cicero, 19
 Cintra, 62-3, 70-1, 75
 Cintra, Convention of, 105
 Civil War (English), 3
 Clairmont, Claire: first meeting with Byron, 226-7; her history, 227; brought Mary Godwin to see Byron, 232-3; proposed night at an inn, 233; on Byron's gentleness, 233; hinted at pregnancy, 239; met Byron at Geneva, 240; Byron not in love with, 242, 262; Byron tired of, 245; on tour with Shelleys, 245; transcription of Childe Harold, 245, 250; provision for her child, 248-9; infatuated with Byron, 249, 257; Byron refused to reply to, 257; birth of daughter, called Alba, 262; Byron to name Clairmont, Claire (continued) daughter, 276; christened her daughter, 280; asked for lock of Byron's hair, 281; came to see Allegra in Venice, 286; Byron's "carnal knowledge" of, 288; her hints for satire on Don Juan, 321; requests to see Allegra, 325, 332; Shelley defended, 332; Byron thinks "a damned bitch," 332; Elise's story about, 332, 347-8; Shelley visited Byron for her, 347; saw Byron at Empoli, 356; schemes to rescue Allegra, 368, 394; encouraged by Mrs. Mason, 368; Shelley took her complaints to Byron, 368; her reaction to Allegra's death, 373; asked for Allegra's portrait, 374; Mrs. Mason asked Byron to support, 393-4; hatred of Byron, 476; character in Aspern Papers, 476
 Clare, Earl of, 25, 31, 67, 355
 Clarens, 244
 Claridge, John, 106-7
 Clarke, Mrs. (mother of Mary Chaworth), 18
 Clarke, E. D., 90 n., 185
 Claughton, Thomas, 131, 137, 140, 146, 171, 173-4, 181
 Clermont, Mrs., 188, 208-9, 212, 214, 218-19, 233, 268
 Cloots, Anacharsis, 341
 Clytemnestra, 251
 Cobbett, William, 114, 321
 Cobbett's Debates, 56
 Cobbett's Parliamentary History, 56
 Cogni, Margarita, 271, 279, 289-90
 Colburn, Henry, 237
 Coleridge, S. T., 110, 199, 205, 217, 224, 288
 Colman, George, 205
 Cologne, 239
 Cologny, 240, 241
 Colonna, Cape, 78, 86
Commentary on Dante, 359
 Commons, House of, 29, 321
 Como, 281
Confessions (Rousseau), 29
 Confucius, 49
 Congreve, William, 164
 Congreve rockets, 439
 Conrad (hero of Corsair), 158
 Consalvi, Cardinal, 333
 Constant, Benjamin, 230, 331
 Constantinople, 72, 77, 80, 82, 83-6, 430
Constitution (ship), 375
 Coolidge, Mr. (American), 344
 Coppet, 245, 255
 Cordova, Admiral, 66
 Cordova, Miss, 66
 Corfu, 74, 340, 434
 Corinne, 144, 311
 Corinth, 75, 91

- Corinthian Gulf, 74, 75
Coriolanus (Shakespeare), 110
 "Cornelian," 44
Corpus Domini (Corpus Christi), 304
 Corsica, 13
Cosmopolite, Le, 99
Cour Impériale, 236
 Covenant, Wars of, 6
 Covent Garden, 32, 156, 162
 Cowper, Lady, 121
 "Crede Byron" (family motto), 18-19
 Crete (Candia), 434
 Croker, John Wilson, 146
 Crosby (London bookseller), 45
 Cumberland, Richard, 41
 Cunningham, Allan, 467
- Dallas, Rev. Robert Charles, 49, 50,
 56-7, 85, 101, 102, 104, 106, 114,
 122, 143, 473
 Dandies, 146
 Dante, 158, 296, 302, 304, 305, 357
 Dardanelles (Hellespont), 82
 Davies, Scrope Berdmore: met Byron through Matthews, 47; with Byron in London, 50; with Byron at Brighton, 52; his cynicism appealed to Byron, 59; lends £4,800 to Byron, 60; first to see Byron on return, 101; executor of Byron's will, 104; his gaiety cheered Byron, 104, 107; visited Byron at Cambridge, 108; friendship with Byron, 115, 122; Byron's clever acerbities pleased, 119; Byron repaid debt, 137; drank with Byron at Cambridge, 151, 171; saw Byron off at Dover, 233-4; tried to quash rumors, 237; with Byron at Diodati, 249, 470; took Rushton and MSS. to England, 250; said
Don Juan unpublishable, 292;
 "hinted" at George Lamb's illegitimacy, 303; escaped to Bruges, 322;
 Byron's escapades with, 447
 Davy, Lady, 144
 Dawkins, Edward, 371, 374
Day and New Times, The, 269
 Dearden, James, 433
Death of Abel, 14
 Dee (river), 15
 D'Egville, James, 51
 Dejean's Hotel d'Angleterre, 240
 Delawarr, Lord, 24, 31, 50
 Delladecima, Count, 421, 430
 Delphi, 75, 93 n.
Delphine, 144
 Derbyshire, 27
 Desenzano, 258
 Devonshire, Duchess of, 118, 121,
 198
 Devonshire House, 118, 237
 Diamantopoulos, 473
 Diego (servant), 337
 Diodati, Charles, 240
- Diodati, Edouard, 240
 Diodati, Villa, 240, 241-2, 470
 Disraeli, Benjamin, 474
 D'Israeli, Isaac, 102
Divine Comedy, 359
 Doge's Palace, 264
 Dogherty, Don (pugilist), 52
 Dolphin Inn, 40
 Don (river), 15
 Don Juan: born in Seville, 63; (boat), 382
Don Leon, 225 n.
Don Quixote, 14
 Dorant's Hotel, 42, 49
 D'Orsay, Count Alfred, 396, 397
 Dorset, Duke of, 25
 Dover, 8, 234, 468
 Downs, The, 465
 Doyle, Col. Francis, 466-7
 Doyle, Selina, 214, 215, 218
 Draco, George, 446
 Dragomestre (Astakos), 429, 439
 Drury, Dr., 22, 23, 24, 26, 29, 37
 Drury, Henry, 23, 25-6, 50
 Drury Lane Theatre, 132, 156, 162-3, 185, 203-5, 207-8, 224, 227-8, 340
 Dryden, John, 47, 57, 323
 Duff, Mary, 15, 21 n., 30, 38
 Dulwich, 20
 Duncan, Mr., 14
Dunciad, 47, 332
 Dupuy, Villa, 372, 375, 377
 Durham, 190
- Earl's Court, 19, 21
 Eden, George, 172, 174
 Edgecombe, Richard, 310
Edinburgh Review, 5, 58, 108, 126, 263, 335
 Edleston, John, 38, 44, 59, 85, 88, 107, 108, 110, 435
 Egeria, 270
 Egremont, Lord, 125
 Egypt, 94-5
 Ekenhead, Lieut. William, 82
 Elba, 199
 Eldon, Lord (Chancellor), 57, 114
Elegant Selections, 73
 Eleusis, 75, 76
 Elgin, Thomas Bruce, 7th Earl of, 77, 78, 95-6
 Eliot, C. W. J., 75 n.
 Elise (Swiss nurse), 280, 281, 286,
 308, 332, 332-3; see also Foggi,
 Elise
 "Eliza": see Francis, Elizabeth
 Ellice, Edward, 469
 Elphinstone, Margaret Mercer, 168 and n., 235
 Elwin, Malcolm, 215, 224, 225 n.
Endymion (Keats), 347
 English loan, 448, 450, 451
 Ephesus, 81
 Epidaurus, Constitution of, 412
 Epirus, 69, 414

- Epsom Downs, 52
 Erectheum, 77
 Erskine, Lord, 172
 Este, 275, 286
 Eton, 23, 33
 Euganean Hills, 275
 Executive Body, 433, 464
 Executive Council, 413
 Eywood, 135, 136, 137
- Faerie Queene*, 73
 Faenza, 296
 Falcieri, Giovanni Battista (Tita):
   283, 326, 343, 371, 374, 409, 429,
   432, 454-61 passim, 474
 Falkland, Charles John, 9th Lord,
   59, 126
 Falkland, Lady Christina, 59, 126
 Falmouth, 59, 60, 61
 Falstaff, 166
 Farmer, Capt., 396
 Farquhar, Mr., 16
Fatal Marriage, The, 6
Faust (Goethe), 253
 Fauvel, Louis (French Consul), 79, 92
 Ferdinand IV (of Naples), 334
 Ferney, 249
 Ferrara, 265, 303
 Fielding, Henry, 29, 292
 Filetto, 327, 330, 336
 Finlay, George, 225 n., 417, 420, 421, 423, 446-8, 453
 Fitzgerald, Col., 256
 Fitzpatrick, Richard, 156
 Fletcher, Mrs., 218, 220
 Fletcher, George, 111
 Fletcher, William: Byron's valet, 54;
   Byron took on tour, 60; only servant with Byron, 67; never seasoned to Eastern travel, 73; Byron threatened to dismiss him, 85; shocked by Eustathios's parasol, 87; sent home by Byron, 92; lamentations after beef and beer, 93; put Byron to bed drunk, 154; Byron swore at, 197; went abroad with Byron, 233;
   on Lady Byron's inability to manage Byron, 206; Byron's only English servant, 283; and Byron's illness at Lerici, 388; remembered discomfort of Greece, 409; on mistico, 427, 429; on silence of dogs, 428; grumbled about inconveniences, 432; practical joke on,
   445; in sickroom with Byron, 454,
   457; account of master's last moments, 459-60; rhetoric of his letter to Augusta, 461; Trelawny sent him out of room, 464; Byron told him to send body home, 465; enjoyed role of chief mourner, 468,
   469; Caroline Lamb wished to see,
   472; macaroni factory with Lega, 474
- Florence, 265
Florida (ship), 465, 468
 Foggi, Elise (Swiss maid), 348; see also Elise (Swiss nurse)
 "Folly Castle," 18
 Forbes, Lady Adelaide, 146, 168
 Forrester, James, 437
 Foscarini, Villa, 269
 Foscolo, Ugo, 246, 255, 259, 279, 294
 Foster, Augustus, 120
 Fox, Charles James, 156, 396, 476-7
 Francesca of Rimini, 296, 302, 340
 Francis, Elizabeth ("Eliza"), 181,
   185-7, 226
 Frankenstein, 243
 Franks, 76, 79, 88, 94, 95
 French Revolution, 244, 252
 Frere, John Hookham, 156, 273, 275
 Frezzeria, 258, 277, 279
 Friuli, 68
 Fry, Mrs., 418
- Galata, 84
 Galliani, Angelica, 300
 Galt, John, 67, 68
 Gamba, Count Pietro: libertarian,
   299; Byron liked him, 329; head
   "too hot for revolutions," 329, 333;
   Byron enjoyed conversation with,
   337; hunting while revolution simmers, 340; exiled, 344; asylum in Florence, 345; wild about liberty, 351; welcomed Byron to Pisa, 356;
   to Shelleys with Byron, 358; in Pisan affray, 370-1; wounded by servant, 377; to be expelled from Tuscany, 378; mad with joy at Greek plan, 400; noted Byron's despondency, 406; on trip to Ithaca, 415-16; dismissed Suliotes,
   418; with Byron at Metaxata, 419, 425; on bombard, 427; threw Byron's letters overboard, 429; captured and taken to Patras, 429; returned to Missolonghi, 430; quarters in Missolonghi, 432; his extravagance, 433; Byron turned details over to, 434; to Anatolico with Byron, 438; found Suliote lists padded, 441; on Byron's convulsive fit, 442; unmanned by Byron's illness, 452, 454-5; brought Byron letters, 457; had not heart to see Byron, 458; desolated by Byron's death, 461; did not accompany Byron's body, 465; his Narrative, 473; later history, 473
 Gamba, Count Ruggero: libertarian, 299; begged Byron to come to Ravenna, 318; drew Byron into Carbonari, 324; applied for separation for Teresa, 326; brought son to see Byron, 329; counseled prudence, 333, hunting on eve of uprising, 340; asylum in Florence,

Gamba (continued)

345; Shelley secured house for, 349; welcomed Byron to Pisa, 356; temporary asylum in Tuscany, 358; at villa Dupuy, 374-5; danger of being exiled, 376, 378; temporary asylum in Lucca, 380; took house in Genoa for Byron, 385; joined Byron's caravan, 387; apartment in Casa Saluzzo, 389; returning to Ravenna, 405

Garraway (auctioneer), 203

Gay, H. Nelson, 265 n.

Gazzetta (Milan), 344

General Government of Greece, 424

Genesis, 209

Geneva, 235, 240

Geneva, Lake of, 190, 239

George (dragoman), 70, 74

George III, 113, 135, 351

George IV, 135, 329, 350, 364

Georgiou, Eustathios, 87

Gertrude of Wyoming, 109

Gerusalemme Liberata, 158

Gessner, Solomon, 14

Ghigi, Pellegrino, 342, 355, 372

Gibbon, Edward, 71, 174, 245

Gibraltar, 66-7

Gibson, John (sculptor), 266 n.

Gifford, William, 47, 57, 102, 105, 200, 252, 308

Gight, estate of, 6, 7, 10

Giraud, Nicolo, 88, 89, 91, 98, 104

Glenarvon, 237-8, 248

Glennie, Dr., 20, 21

Godwin, Mary, 227, 232-3, 239-40, 241, 243, 248; see also Shelley, Mary

Godwin, William, 217, 227

Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von, 253, 350, 376, 447

Golden Horn, 83

Goldoni, Carlo, 276

Gordon, Catherine (poet's mother), 5-6; see also Byron, Mrs. Catherine Gordon

Gordon, George (poet's grandfather), 6

Gordon, George, 2nd Earl of Huntley, 6

Gordon, Margaret Duff (poet's great-grandmother, 6, 10, 15

Gordon, Pryse Lockhart, 232, 236

Gordon, Sir William, 6

Gordon's Hotel, 45

Gordons of Gight, 6

Gordon tartan, 15

Gorgonzola, 258

Gower, Lady Charlotte Leveson, 170, 173, 174

Grammont, Memoirs of, 56

Grand Canal, 280, 282

Grand Duke (of Tuscany), 353

Grand Junta, 63

Grantchester, 37

Gray, Agnes, 10, 14

Gray, May, 17, 19-20

Greece, 31, 68, 85, 86, 97, 99, 110, 350-1

Greek exiles, 405

Greek fleet, 424, 428

Greek revolution, 75 n., 360, 392, 398

Greek Testaments, 439

Greeks, 79, 89, 415

Grey, Earl, 170

Grey de Ruthyn, Lord, 26, 27, 28, 30, 31, 53, 60

Grimm's Correspondence, 409

Gritti, Count, 280

Gritti Palace, 280 n.

Guiccioli, Count Alessandro: fifty-eight, 295; Teresa's confession to, 297; something of an enigma, 299, 306, 319; his history and wives, 299-300; his property, 301; suspected of assassinations, 302; invited Byron to call on Teresa, 304; cuckolded in own house, 305, 320; took wife to Bologna, 309; asked for British Consul post, 310; utterly complacent, 311; asked Byron to lend him money, 312; came for wife, 316; offered to rent Byron upper floor, 320; caught Byron and Teresa, 325; public against him in separation, 326; to pay Teresa £1,000 a year, 327; fears of sly violence from, 328; Byron observed by his spies, 330; if he were to die, 353; got Teresa's allowance stopped, 380; Teresa returned to briefly, 477

Guiccioli, Countess Teresa: met Byron first at Albrizzi's, 295-6; assignation with Byron, 297; pretty but without tact, 298; "fair as sunrise, and warm as noon," 299; modest dowry, 300; love letters of Byron to, 300-1; "Stanzas to the Po" addressed to, 301; "unlawful union" consummated, 301; reminded Byron of Augusta, 302; Byron's conflict of emotions about, 303; improved by Byron's visits, 305, 307; suggested poem on Dante, 305; cuckolded husband in own house, 305; going into a consumption, 306; made her lover jealous, 307; Byron's description of to Augusta, 307-8; to Bologna, 309; hysterical over Alfieri, 309; Byron wrote in her copy of Corinne, 311; at Palazzo Mocenigo, 312; at La Mira, 313; two ailments, 313; riding with Byron, 314; sent back broach with hair in it, 316; persuaded to return with husband, 316; Byron would not desert her, 317; her amico came home, 318, 319; misunderstandings with Byron, 320; with Byron in Palazzo, 320-1; Byron considered her fickle child, 322; caught "quasi in the fact" with Byron, 325, sought separation, 326; Byron's promise to be husband, 327; separation decree, 327; escaped to father's house, 327; Byron acted like fond husband, 328; her brother Pietro, 329; Byron visited at Filetto, 330; shocked by Constant's Adolphe, 331; threat to shut her up in convent, 336; Byron's nightly visits, 337; precarious social position, 338, 358; urged more love in Sardanapalus, 339; Byron could not leave, 340; Byron promised to stop Don Juan, 344; persuaded to leave Ravenna, 345; Allegra's mammina, 349; complained of Byron's delays, 350; Byron more attached after three years, 352-3; awaiting Byron's arrival, 348, 354, 356; Byron's calmer relation with, 359, 363, 393; in Masi affray, 370-1; gave permission to continue Don Juan, 372; at Villa Dupuy with Byron, 376; allowance from husband stopped, 380; consoled Mary, 382; preserved Byron's skin, 384; refused legacy, 386; on journey to Genoa, 387; Mary thought she henpecked Byron, 394; Byron feared to tell of Greek venture, 398; jealous of Lady Blessington, 400; wanted to go to Greece, 401; Byron gave MSS. to, 401; strain of parting from Byron, 403, 405-6; blamed Hunt for Mary's pique, 403; Byron's promises to return, 404; wrote in Byron's notebook, 406; left with father, 406; felt as if she were dying, 407; Byron's attachment strained, 416-17; Byron's playful tenderness toward, 419; Byron wanted to send her Turkish girl, 443; Byron wrote her in English, 448; Byron's veiled message to, 458 n.; bore Byron's death with dignity, 465; Byron's memory dominated her life, 476; philandering, 476-7; Byronic pilgrimage to England, 477; portrait of Byron in her Paris salon, 477; "talked" with Byron's spirit, 477

Guiccioli, Countess Teresa (continued)

Guiccioli Palazzo, 320, 331, 345, 348

Halliburton, Richard, 82

Halnaby Hall, 188, 189-94

Hamilton, Lord Archibald, 129

Hamlet, 304, 315

Hampden Club, 128

Hampshire, 7

Hancock, Charles, 423, 426

Handel, 278

Hanson, John: recommended to Mrs. Byron, 16; installed Byrons in Abbey, 18; took Byron to London, 19; conferred with Dr. Baillie, 19-20; sent Byron to Glennie's school, 20; Byron exposed May Gray to him, 20; Byron visited in holidays, 21, 24, 25, 32; got Byron admitted to Harrow, 22, 23; secured £500 for Byron's education, 24; leased Newstead to Lord Grey, 26; Byron asked him to raise £500, 40; Byron borrowed £20 from, 48; at Newstead on Byron's birthday, 55; urged to raise money for Byron's tour, 58, 59, 60; Byron confessed faux pas to, 59; in Byron's will, 67, 104; trying to placate Byron's creditors, 85; spurred to send remittances, 95; his procrastination, 171, 284; to arrange marriage settlement, 179; would sell Abbey for £120,000, 181; consulted on Newstead sale, 199; put Newstead and Rochdale up for auction, 203; urged Augusta to stay with Byron, 215; arrived in Venice, 290; his bill to wait payment, 291; contact with Sir Timothy Shelley, 392; in first mourning coach, 469

Hanson, Mrs. John, 18

Hanson, Newton, 290

Hardwick, 118

Hardy, Admiral, 392

Hardy, Lady, 392

Harleian Miscellany, 128, 141

Harley, Lady Charlotte, 135-6, 141, 294-5

Harness, William, 24, 111, 201

Harrow Church, 373

Harrow-on-the-Hill, 23

Harrow School, 22, 23, 24, 25-6, 29, 31, 33, 35, 36-7, 39, 58-9

Harvard University, 375

Hastings, 172-3

Hastings, Frank, 421, 425

Hatadje, 443

Hay, John, 370-1

Hay, Lady Julia, 473

Haydn, 278

Haymarket Theatre, 33

Heathcote, Lady, 145

Hellenica Chronica, 433

Hellespont, 63, 82, 282

Henry II, 17 n.

Henry VIII, 3, 17 n., 35

Hercules (ship), 403, 405, 408, 409, 413, 418, 425

Hervey, Mrs., 245

Hesperides, 385

Hill, Mr. (British envoy), 393

Hobhouse, Benjamin, M.P., 45

Hobhouse, John Cam: on Byron becoming a peer, 16; on Byron's sexuality, 20; on Byron's intimacy with Lord Grey, 28; on Byron's reading, 29; on Byron's boyish friendships, 31; told about Edleston, 38; on Byron and Julia Leacroft, 43; Byron's first meeting with, 44-5; drew Byron into Whig Club, 47; said Byron was near suicide, 51; feared Byron would marry mistress, 52; with Byron at Brighton, 52; at Newstead with Byron, 53, 58; invited to join Byron on tour, 59; preparations for travel book, 60; his "exemplary chastity," 61; began diary in Lisbon, 62; on Byron's swimming Tagus, 63; on Seville, 63; on Byron and Miss Cordova, 66; "more of the commoner," 67; in Byron's will, 67; thought Byron playing the gallant, 68; felt no comfort out of England, 69, 73; described Jannina, 69; on the adventure at Zitsa, 70; complained of hard beds and sharp insects, 71; Byron lectured on English nobility, 72; Byron joked about his writing, 73; carved name on column, 75 and n.; described Macri house, 75-6; "a greed for legendary lore," 77, 79; with Byron on Acropolis, 77; defended Elgin, 78; found Teresa quite "nubila," 79-80; with Byron to Constantinople, 80; record of Byron's swimming Hellespont, 82; "rhymes and Journalizes," 83; persuaded Byron not to leave, 85; leaving for England, 86; parted from Byron at "Zea," 86; an embodiment of British conscience, 89; his debt to Byron, 98; met Byron at Sittingbourne, 101; warned Byron on egoism of Harold, 102; friendship with Byron, 115, 122; trying to keep Byron out of scrapes, 127; attended Lady Oxford's parties, 128; prevented elopement of Byron and C. Lamb, 129-30; Byron thought of "Levanting" with, 137; bought portrait for Byron, 139; left for Continental tour, 141, 142; Byron's "guide, philosopher, and friend," 142, 162; his anecdotes of Napoleon, 163; left for Paris, 165; at Wellington's ball, 171; at Lady Jersey's with Byron, 168; urged Byron to vote with Opposition, 172; asked to accompany Byron to Italy, 175; to be Byron's "groomsmen," 181; Byron met at Cambridge, 184; on the reluctant bridegroom, 187; account of wedding, 188; presented Byron's poems to bride, 189; on Byron's expectations, 195; leased house for Byron, 196; Byron advised not to marry, 199, 208, 210; told Byron of reaction in France, 202-3; on apparent harmony of Byrons, 203; scheme for taking Byron abroad, 207; on Byron's attitude to Ada, 209; on Byron's outburst against wife, 210, 211; learned of Byron's real conduct, 221; tried to disprove rumors, 209, 222, 224-5, 237; on nature of separation rumors, 225 n.; bought Byron's books at auction, 230; saw Byron off at Dover, 233-4; called on Caroline Lamb, 237-8; gave Byron's verses to Augusta, 239; with Byron at Diodati, 249; at Chamouni, 250; with Byron on Alpine tour, 251; left with Byron for Milan, 254; with Byron in Milan, 255-6; on extended tour of Italy, 260; urged Byron to join him in Rome, 263; Byron's cicerone in Rome, 265; requested Thorwaldsen bust, 266; and unmarried girl, 271; suggested stanzas for Harold, 272; Segati's tale too gross, 273; with Byron at La Mira and Venice, 271-5; took MS. of Harold to England, 276; Byron restrained by, 277; Byron's pleasures seemed coarse to, 279; his notes to Harold, 282; engrossed in politics, 284; to manage Newstead money, 291; said Don Juan impossible to publish, 292; warned Byron of liaison, 301; about indecency of Don Juan, 303; in reform movement in England, 314, 330; in jail for writing pamphlet, 321; sent news of Davies's debacle, 322; offended by Byron's ballad, 323; elected to Parliament, 323; asked Byron to omit stanza on Queen, 335; visit to Byron in Pisa, 386-7; in London Greek Committee, 398; wanted Byron's moral support for Greeks, 405; would have laughed if Byron had not gone, 406; reported Byron a hero in England, 445, 447, 452, 460; would provide for Fletcher, 459; in an agony of grief, 465; remembered Byron's laugh, 466; to protect Byron's reputation, 466, 473; zeal for burning Memoirs, 466-7; his memories of Byron, 467, 470; description of corpse, 468; buried friend as nobleman, 470; said Byron kept friends in hot water, 472; preserved letters, 472; opposed all biographies of Byron, 472-3; his later history, 473; assistance to Fletcher, 474

Hobhouse, John Cam (continued)

- Hodgson, Francis, 47, 55, 61, 85, 99, 106, 109, 111, 137, 140, 154-5, 171-2, 184, 470
 Holderness, Earl of, 5
 Holderness, Lady (Augusta's mother), 340
 Holland, Lady Elizabeth, 115, 117, 118, 398
 Holland, Lord (Henry Richard Vassall Fox, 3rd Baron), 90 n., 113, 114, 115, 117, 132, 156, 225 n.
 Holland House, 115, 117, 237, 396
 Holles Street, 9
 Holmes, James, 156
 Homer's Odysseus, 415
 Hood, Thomas, 205
 Hooker, Richard, 29
 Hoppner, Mrs., 349
 Hoppner, John, R.A., 275
 Hoppner, Richard Belgrave, 275, 276, 281, 282, 286, 308, 325, 332, 340, 347-8, 349
 Horace, 98, 119 n.
Horæ Ionicæ, 101
 Horton, Wilmot, 466-7
 Hotel d'Angleterre (Brussels), 237
 Hotel de San Marco (Milan), 255
 Hotel of Great Britain, 258
 Hucknall Torkard Church, 103, 468, 470
 Hughes, Thomas S., 69 n.
 Hume, David, 29, 119 n.
 Hunt, John, 367, 379, 390, 393, 395, 396, 405
 Hunt, Leigh: on Byron's lameness at Harrow, 24; Byron visited in Surrey Gaol, 142; Story of Rimini, 142, 202, 217; Byron visited at Maida Vale, 202; "conceited into a martyr," 284; wrote "upon system," 284; proposal to bring him to Italy, 350; his appeals for money, 350, 367; sycophancy and brazenness, 367, 382, 390; arrived at Leghorn, 377; meeting with Byron at Villa Dupuy, 377-8; settled in Byron's villa, 378; offered Vision for journal, 379; on Byron's routine, 380-1; Byron irritated by his dependence, 382; Byron's friends did not approve, 383, 386; his unrestrained children, 383; hysterical in carriage with Byron, 384; first number of The Liberal, 385; on Byron's ridicule of Moore, 385; to Genoa, 387-8; in Casa Negroto, 389; children described as Yahoos, 389; on Murray's impudence, 390; Byron said he was a bore, 391; second number of Liberal, 393; incapable of self-help, 395; reminded Byron of promise to Mary, 403; quarrel with Byron over Mary, 404
 Hunt, Mrs. Marianne, 142, 379, 383
 Hunt, "Orator," 321
 Hunter, John, surgeon, 9-10
 Huntley, Earl of, 6
 Hussein, Aga, 442
 Hussein Bey (son of Mouctar Pasha), 70, 73
Hydra (ship), 96
 Hymettus, 75, 78
Hyperion (Keats), 347
Hyperion (frigate), 66
 Ignatius, Metropolitan of Arta, 413, 457
 Imola, Bishop of, 324
 India, 54, 80
Inferno (Dante), 158, 225 n., 305, 322, 357
 Ionian Islands, 72, 101, 340, 408, 432, 433
 Ionian Sea, 68
 Ipsilantes, Prince Alexander, 412
 Ireland, Dr., 468
 Irving, Washington, 344, 376
 Ismail, siege of, 443
 Italian (language), 96, 133, 259
 Ithaca, 72, 415
 Jackson, John ("Gentleman"), 39, 52, 55, 165, 262, 279
Jacqueline, 173
 James, Henry, 476
 James I of Scotland, 6
 Jannina (Ioannina), 69-70, 73
 Jeaffreson, J. Cordy, 285
 Jeffrey, Francis, 58, 108, 126
 Jeffries, Judge, 58
 Jersey, Lady, 126-7, 132, 136, 143, 168, 230
 Jews, 94
 "John Bull" (Lockhart), 343
 Johnson, Samuel, 4, 29
 Jones, Commodore Jacob, 375
 Jones, Rev. Thomas, 36, 45, 46
 Jonson, Ben, 289
 Jove, Temple of (Zeus), 93
Julian and Maddalo, 286
 Jungfrau, 251
 Jura Mountains, 240
Justine (de Sade), 211
 Juvenal, 47, 270
 Kalamas (river), 70
 Kalamo, 427
 Karaiskakis, George, 451
 Katerina monastery, 76
 Kaye, John, 15
 Kean, Edmund, 162-3, 167, 168, 185, 205
 Keats, John, 265, 323, 332, 335, 347, 382, 478
 Keats-Shelley Memorial, 265 n.
 Kelly, Miss, 205
 Kemble, John, 33, 110
 Kennedy, Dr. James, 414, 415, 420, 421, 426, 443
 Kennedy, Captain John Pitt, 412

- Kensington Palace, 129
 Kern, Jerome (sale), 402 n.
 King, Lord (Lovelace), 476
 King John, 209
King Lear, 33
 King's College (Cambridge), 47, 108
 Kinnaird, Douglas: on Byron's feminine qualities, 31; Kean and Byron dined with, 185; induced Byron to write Hebrew Melodies, 192, 199; Byron's social life with, 199, 203, 205-6, 224; Byron referred Claire to, 227; tried to quash rumors, 237; brought Whistlecraft to Byron, 275; engrossed in politics, 284; clarified Byron's finances, 291; agreed Don Juan not publishable, 292; reported Don Juan failed, 308; in reform movement in England, 314; kept his piece nine years, 332; called Murray "Tradesman," 347; on publishers' fear of Heaven and Earth, 365; sent three cantos of Don Juan to Murray, 390; to gather funds for Greek journey, 398; sent Byron £4,000, 402; sent Byron £9,000 in credits, 405; Byron appealed for funds to, 426; reported Byron a hero in England, 445; sent cheering news to Byron, 460; first to hear of Byron's death, 465; applied for burial in Westminster, 468; in second mourning coach, 469
 Kinnaird, Lord, 275
 Kirkby Mallory, 210, 213, 215, 238
 Knatchbull, Sir Edward, 468
Knickerbocker's History of New York, 376 Knight, Mrs., 120
 Knox, Captain, 415
 Kolokotronis, Theodore, 412, 413, 417
 Kranidi, 448
 Krioneri, 451
 La Fontaine, 291
 Laibach, Congress at, 334
 Lake Poets, 323
 Lamartine, 477
 Lamb, Lady Caroline: Byron's affair with, 68; burning to meet Byron, 117, 118; her early life, 117-18; Rogers gave her Childe Harold, 118; Byron "mad—bad—and dangerous," 118; Byron's "pale face is my fate," 119; delighted and embarrassed Byron, 119, 121; gave Annabella's poems to Byron, 122; her waltzing parties, 123; Byron's greatest passion of her life, 123; Byron's tender letter to, 123-4; love affair with Byron, 124-5; invaded Byron's rooms in disguise, 129, 170; Hobbhouse prevented an elopement, 129-30; gift to Byron, 130; ran away, 130; Byron's farewell letter to, 131; still had hold on Byron, 132; compared to Lady Oxford, 135, 137; "German tirade" to Lady Oxford, 136; burned Byron in effigy, 137; "Ne Crede Byron" on buttons, 139; forged letter in Byron's name, 139; given lock of Lady Oxford's hair, 141; interview with Byron, 142; at waltzing party, 145; scandal of liaison with Byron, 148; lover but not friend, 157; "Remember thee!," 170; green pantaloons at ball, 171; last interview with Byron, 171; backhanded compliment to Annabella, 180; flirting at Brussels and Paris, 202; playing a double game, 228; pretended to aid Byron, 228-9; revealed Byron's "crimes" to Annabella, 229-30; hypocritical letters of, 231-2; verge of madness, 232; her novel Glenarvon, 237-8, 248; her half-bawdy pictures of Byron, 238; on third canto of Harold, 261; her novels, 268; at masquerade dressed as Don Juan, 321; asked return of letters, 472; wanted Byron's last words from Fletcher, 472
 Lamb, Charles, 205
 Lamb, George, 125, 203, 229, 230
 Lamb, William, 117, 119, 123, 125
 Lamberti, 279
 Lambro (in Don Juan), 72
 Lamia (Keats), 382
 La Mira, 269, 272, 313
 Lancashire, 107
 Lancaster, County of, 3
 Lanfranchi, Casa, 349, 353, 357, 360, 370-1, 380
 Lansdowne, Marquess of, 168 n.
 La Rochefoucauld, François de, 119 n., 409
Late Lord Byron, The, 473 n.
 Latin (language), 62, 92
 Lauderdale, Lord, 293
 Laurie, Dr., 24
 Lavender (self-styled surgeon), 19
 Lawrence, Sir Thomas, 396
 Leacroft, Julia, 41, 68
 Leake, Captain William Martin, 69, 71, 73
 Leeds, 5th Duke of, 5
 Leghorn, 375
 Legislative Body, 433, 464
 Legislative Council, 413
 Leicestershire, 203
 Leigh, Augusta (Byron): twitted by Byron on growth of family, 104; worried about husband, 106, 140; in London with Byron, 144; marriage to Colonel Leigh, 144; description of, 144-5; motherly interest in Byron, 145; laughed with Byron, 145, 182; Byron called her "Goose," 145, 192; to go abroad with Byron, 147, 148; her character, 148; half of property in Byron's will, 151-2; "my A" in Byron's letters, 152; in Byron's mind when he wrote Bride, 155; Byron's passion for, deepest after all, 156, 161; no woman so comforting, 158; to Newstead with Byron, 161; gave birth to Medora, 165-6; defended by Byron, 167, 180; £3,000 from Byron, 168; in London, 171; with Byron at Hastings, 172; thought Byron should marry, 173; with Byron at Newstead, 174-5, 188; back to Six Mile Bottom, 180; Byron talked of her with tenderness, 183; wrote to Annabella, 185; persuaded Byron not to break engagement, 187; her intuitive perceptions, 193; Byron's generosity to, 196; meeting with Annabella, 197; Byron's cruelty turned on, 197-8; at Piccadilly Terrace, 199, 202, 208, 212; Annabella's jealousy of, 201, 223; willed residue of Byron's estate, 203-4, 475; Byron's visit to, 204; thought Byron insane, 208; feared Byron's suicide, 214, 223; Annabella repented suspicions of, 215; Annabella confessed quandaries to, 216; intercepted Sir Ralph's letter, 218; withheld Annabella's letter, 220; told Hobhouse of Byron's conduct, 221; rumors about, 222; interview with Annabella, 223; became lady-in-waiting, 226; Murray bought Byron's books for, 230; Annabella ceased to communicate with, 231; farewell to Byron, 231; Byron's stanzas to, 231; Byron asked Annabella to be kind to her, 232; Byron's last note to, 233; siege upon conscience of, 238-9; Byron's new verses to, quoted, 247; had not wronged Annabella, 247; Lady Byron's inquisition, 247-8; warned against Byron's levity, 248; "starting at shadows," 249; told about Claire, 250; her full confession sought, 250; sent Byron's love letters to Lady B., 250; Byron's Alpine journal for her, 251; Byron could not understand her, 251, 256; Byron's only comfort, 256-7; her pious hopes, 260-1, 264; her "megrimms and mysteries," 268; identified with Astarte, 269; Byron's "boundless attachment," 302, 353; Teresa reminded Byron of, 302; Byron uncertain of reception by, 317, 352;

Leigh, Augusta (continued)

Leigh, Augusta (continued)

Byron wanted to provide for her, 368; danger of losing position at court, 391; Byron spoke of on deathbed, 459; her part in burning of Memoirs, 466; chose family vault for burial, 468; sent husband in her place, 469; Fletcher appealed for help to, 474; Medora's faux pas, 475; last interview with Annabella, 475; met Teresa, 477; see also Byron, Augusta
Leigh, Mrs. Charles (Frances, daughter of Admiral Byron), 11, 12, 148
Leigh, Elizabeth Medora, 166 and n., 171, 475
Leigh, Colonel George, 106, 140, 144, 165, 187, 469
Leman, Lake, 240
Le Mann (physician), 215, 218
Le Mesurier, Edward, 406
"Leontius" (Leigh Hunt), 380
Lepanto (Naupaktos), 431, 440, 441, 444
Lepanto, Gulf of, 68
Lerici, 387
Letters and Journals of Lord Byron (Moore), 369, 473
Levant dollars, 427 n.
Lewis, Matthew Gregory ("Monk"), 147, 249, 253, 271
Lewis, Dr. Nolan D. C., 463 and n.
Liberal, The, 385, 390, 393, 395
Liddell, Lady, 266
Lido, 258, 260, 271
Life of Alexander Pope (Ruffhead), 47
Linckh, Jacob, 92
Lingua Franca, 92
Lion (Newfoundland dog), 406, 427, 437, 440, 446, 468
Lisbon, 60, 62-3, 67
Lisbon packet, 61
Littlehampton, 40
Little, Thomas (Thomas Moore), 108, 292
Lockhart, John Gibson, 343
Lomellina, Villa, 406
London Greek Committee, 398, 400, 418, 422, 423, 464, 469, 474
London Hotel (Albemarle Street), 171
London Magazine, 467
Londos, Andreas, 74, 87, 413
Long, Edward Noel, 24, 33, 36-7, 40-1, 108
Long, Henry, 33, 40-1, 50
Long Acre (Aberdeen), 13
Longman (publisher), 284
Lords, House of, 4, 15, 53, 56, 57, 112-13, 125, 140, 143
Louis XVIII, 203
Louvain, 237
Love and Kelly (jewelers), 146
Lovelace, Lord, 476

- Lucifer, 346
 Lucretius, 139
 Lucy (maid at Newstead), 59, 107, 111
 Luigi, Martini, 303
 Luriottis, Andreas, 398, 400, 423, 457
 Lushington, Dr. Stephen, 217, 222 and n., 223, 224, 226, 230, 234, 237
 Lusieri, Giovanni Battista, 77, 88, 92, 96
 Lyon, John (founder of Harrow), 23
 Lysicrates Monument, 88
- Mackay, Charles, 166 n.
 Mackenzie, Henry, 29, 43
 Mackintosh, Sir James, 164, 217
 Macri, Mrs. Tarsia, 75, 86, 87-8, 96
 Macri, Katinka, 76
 Macri, Mariana, 76
 Macri, Theresa (Maid of Athens), 76 and n., 79-80, 86, 88 n., 96
 Madame D. (procuress), 51
Mæviad, 47
 Magni, Casa, 373
 Mahmoud II, Sultan, 457
 Maid of Athens: see Macri, Theresa
 Maida Vale, 202
 Mainote pirates, 93
 Malipiero, Palazzo, 312
 Malmesbury, Earl of, 477
 Malta, 60, 67-8, 97
 Malthus, Thomas Robert, 104
 Malvasia, Cardinal, 300, 306, 323, 326, 330, 333
 Mameluke (Arabian horse), 402
Man of Feeling, The, 43
 Mansel, William Lort, 36, 45, 185
 Marathon, 79
 Mardyn, Mrs., 205
 Maria Teresa dollars, 427 n.
 Marmarotouri, 94
 Marmontel, 442
 Marmora, Sea of, 83
 Martens, Mrs., 308
 Marylebone church, 10
 Masi, Stefani, 370-1, 374
 Mason, Mrs.: see Mountcashell
 Massingberd, Mrs., 24, 38, 42
 Massinger, Philip, 119 n.
 Matthews, Charles Skinner, 44-5, 47, 58, 59, 61, 90, 103, 108
 Maturin, Rev. Charles Robert, 217
 Mavrocordatos, Prince Alexander: gave Greek lessons to Mary Shelley, 360; first President of Greece, 412; fled to Hydra, 413; enlightened leader, 420; on way to Missolonghi, 424; the "Washington" of Greece, 425; called Byron savior of Greece, 425, 426; sent ships to rescue Byron, 429; description and character, 430; suggested Byron lead Lepanto assault, 431; to Anatolico with Byron, 438; his weakness and irresolution, 439, Mavrocordatos, Prince (continued) 451; invited to Salona, 447; attempt to undermine his authority, 448; asked Byron for loan, 449; tried to keep people quiet, 457; issued proclamation of mourning, 462
 Mealey, Owen, 26
Medora Leigh (Mackay), 166 n.
 Medwin, Thomas, 358, 359, 360-1, 362, 369, 380, 473
 Megara, 75
 Meillerie, 243
 Melbourne, Lady Elizabeth: mother of William Lamb, 117; sister of Ralph Milbanke, 119; Byron's confidences to, 123, 127, 131, 132, 150, 161, 165, 166; her earlier affairs, 125; might have turned Byron's head, 127; at Cheltenham, 132; sounded out Miss Milbanke for Byron, 132; shocked by Byron's liaison with Augusta, 148; Annabella mistrusted, 149, 202; hoped for attachment to settle Byron, 149, 153, 161; sent Byron Annabella's specifications, 149-50; most agreeable friend, 157; Byron's letters fell off, 158; advice on visiting Seaham, 166; blamed Augusta for affair, 167; alarmed by Caroline's visits to Byron, 170; her blessing sought by Byron, 178; Byron defended Augusta to, 180; Mary Chaworth at her house, 202
 Melbourne, Lord, 117, 130
 Melbourne House, 117, 118, 123
 Mendele, monastery of, 90
 Mengaldo, Angelo, 282, 283
Merchant of Venice, 264
 Merendoni, Palazzo, 310
 Mestre, 258
 Metaxata, 419
 Metternich, 169
 Meyer, Dr. J. J., 433
 Michelangelo, 357
 Middleton, 136
 Milan, 255, 281
 Milbanke, Anne Isabella (Annabella): Byron saw at Melbourne House, 119; her commonplace books, 119 n., 149; her characteristics, 119-20; Byron found her "piquant," 120; first talk with Byron, 121; thought Byron could be reformed, 122, 177; sent poems for Byron's opinion, 122; "too good for a fallen spirit," 123; Byron confided attachment to Lady Melbourne, 132; a model of the virtues, 133; specifications for husband, 133-4, 150; wrote "Character" of Byron, 134; rejected Byron's proposal, 134; "Princess of Parallelograms," 134; a "cold col-

- Milbanke, Anne Isabella (continued)
lation," 136; agitated on seeing Byron again, 142-3; first letter to Byron, 148-9; Byron avowed love for, 149, 173; professed friendship for Byron, 150; Byron's letter too "Byronic," 152; "your A" in Byron's letters to Lady M., 152; "a very superior woman," 159; prim and cryptic letters, 164, 172; willing to have Byron propose again, 165; invited Byron to Seaham, 166; encumbered with virtue, 166; her consistency formidable, 174; Byron's tentative proposal, 175; accepted Byron's proposal, 176; wanted Byron to do the leading, 179; no poetry or presents, 182, 188; "the most silent woman," 182; disquieted by delays, 182, 185; "passions stronger than we supposed," 183; offered to break engagement, 183; analyzed Byron's words, 184; "Quite caressable into kindness," 184; guarded misgivings from parents, 187; "doatingly fond" of Byron, 188; "formed for my destruction," 257; "that virtuous monster," 260; see also Byron, Lady
- Milbanke, Lady Judith, 188, 195; see also Noel, Lady Judith
- Milbanke, Sir Ralph, 119, 181, 182-3, 185, 187, 188-9, 195, 203; see also Noel, Sir Ralph
- Millingen, Dr. Julius, 422, 430, 442, 443, 444, 451, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 462
- Milton, John, 240, 361
- Minerva, 78, 79
- Mirra (Alfieri), 309
- Missolonghi, 68, 74, 413, 422, 424, 425, 427, 428, 434
- Mivart's Hotel, 219
- Mocenigo, Palazzo, 280, 281, 283
- Moderate Whigs, 113, 115, 143
- Monasteraki, 76 n.
- Monkbarns (in Scott's Antiquary), 398
- Mont Blanc, 245
- Montagu, Lady Mary W., 14, 84
- Montaigne, 409
- Montalègre, 241
- Montenero, 375, 380
- Montesquieu, 29
- Montgomery, Mary Millicent, 285
- Monthly Literary Recreations*, 45
- Monthly Mirror*, 51
- Monti, Vincenzo, 255
- Montserrat, 63
- Moore, Doris Langley, 168 n., 335 n., 435 n., 473 n.
- Moore, John, 14
- Moore, Thomas: his erotic verses influenced Byron, 26-7, 41; his life
- Moore, Thomas (continued) of Byron, 28; on Byron's Harrow friendships, 31; on Byron's feminine qualities, 31; said Byron kept "nymph" at Brompton, 51; upbraided in English Bards, 57; criticized by Hobhouse, 89; sent Byron challenge, 108; ridiculed in English Bards, 108; met Byron at Rogers's dinner, 109; on friendship with Byron, 109, 122; on Byron's early friends, 110, 115; frequented Holland House, 117; trying to keep Byron out of scrapes, 127; took Byron to see Hunt in jail, 142; a man of the world, 146; with Byron and Sheridan, 147; Corsair dedicated to, 160; on a pretty wife, 161; with Byron at theater, 167, 168; promoted match for Byron, 168; his account of separation, 222 n., 225 n.; on Byron and Marianna, 277; description of Byron in Venice, 314; Byron's Memoirs presented to, 314-15, 335, 350; showed Memoirs to visitors, 335; on writing "sans y être obligé," 338 n.; Byron Life praised by Mary Shelley, 369; refused to contribute to Liberal, 380, 385; "Tommy loves a lord," 385; Byron's strictures on, 398; Byron sang his melodies, 416; singing at parties at past forty, 446; heard Byron was writing Don Juan, 447; resisted burning of Memoirs, 466-7; in last mourning coach, 470; his biography opposed by Hobhouse, 472, 473; bowdlerized Byron's letters, 473; Byron's letters to vanished, 473; his Letters and Journals of Byron, 473
- Morat, 239
- Morea, 91, 97, 412, 432, 433
- Morea, castle of, 431
- Morelli, Luigi (servant), 327
- Moretto (bulldog), 406, 427
- Morgante Maggiore*, 273
- Morning Chronicle*, 115, 132, 321, 323, 350
- Morning Post*, 162
- Morven, 15, 71
- Mosta, Elena da, 278
- Mother Barnard's, 33
- Mouctar Pasha, 70
- Mount Coffee-house, 243
- Mountcashell, Lady (Mrs. Mason), 368, 393-4
- Mountnorris, Earl of, 102
- Muir, Dr. Henry, 414, 420-1, 426
- Mule, Mrs. (Byron's firelighter), 163
- Munichia, 76 and n.
- Murray, Joe, 54, 60, 67
- Murray, John, 102
- Murray, John, II: his publishing firm, 102; to publish Childe Harold,

Murray, John, II (continued)

102, 104; showed MS. to Gifford, 105; Byron angry with, 105; sold 500 copies of quarto Harold, 116; Byron offered satire on waltzing, 135; moved to Albemarle Street, 137; Caroline sent him forged letter, 139; offered copyright of Giaour, 143; that "Anak of stationers," 150; asked to get passage for Byron, 151; offered thousand guineas for Oriental tales, 157; excited over Corsair sale, 162; sold 6,000 copies of Lara, 173; paid £700 for Lara, 173; eager for more of Byron's poetry, 199; introduced Byron to Scott, 199-200; impressed with Lady Byron, 201; sent Byron £1,500, 207; refused Byron's royalty to Godwin, 217; Byron enjoyed gossip at his house, 224; Caroline revealed Byron's "secrets" to, 229; bought Byron's screen, 230; showed Caroline stanzas to Augusta, 231; offered Polidori £500 for diary, 232 n.; in raptures over Harold, 252, 282; 7,000 copies of Harold and Chillon, 261; his letter forwarded to Rome, 265 n.; £2,000 for Harold and Chillon, 268; 600 guineas for Manfred and Tasso, 268; lack of enthusiasm for Manfred, 272; Byron irritated at his neglect, 283-4; melted Byron's malice with 1,000 guineas, 284; at his ledger, 292; asked to print 50 copies of Juan, 293; Byron's protests to, 294; asked Byron to avoid indecency, 294, 303; asked for plan of Don Juan, 308; reluctance to publish Don Juan, 315, 346; circulated ballad on Hobhouse, 323; omitted "wedlock and padlock" stanza, 335; paid Moore for Byron's Memoirs, 335; suggested Byron revise MSS., 336; Byron out of humor with, 346-7, 365; Byron's frankest letters to, 347; not to send periodicals to Byron, 350; Taaffe's Commentary recommended to, 359; treated Juan as stepchild, 361; 2,500 guineas for Don Juan and plays, 362; "the most timid of God's booksellers," 365, 467; losses on Cain, 366; arranged for Allegra's funeral, 373; looking at Byron's picture, 390; his opinion of Liberal, 390; shocked by Don Juan, 390; Byron to withdraw from as publisher, 390, 391; Byron's name connected with, 391; Byron's closer rapport with, 391; squabble over burning Memoirs, 466-7; Hobhouse irritated at, 468; commissioned official biography, 473; enthusiastic Byronian, 473; met Teresa, 477

Murray, John, II (continued)

 Murray, John, III, 200
 Murray, John Grey, 90 n., 473
 Mussulmans, 99
 Musters, John, 26
 Musters, Mrs. (Mary Chaworth), 54, 159, 160, 161, 169-70, 172, 173, 202
 Myrrha, 339
Mysteries of Udolpho (Walpole), 378

 Napier, Colonel Charles James, 408, 412, 413, 416, 417, 419-20, 423, 424, 426, 430
 Naples, King of, 293
 Napoleon, 125, 163, 165, 199, 232, 237, 256, 282; see also Bonaparte, Napoleon
 Napoleonic coach, 233, 236, 237, 255, 312, 355, 387-8, 408-9
Narrative (Admiral Byron), 4
Narrative (Gamba), 473
 Nathan, Isaac, 192, 201
 Nauplia, 464
 Neapolitan revolution, 341
 Negropont (Eubœa), 422
 New Jersey Neuro-Psychiatric Institute, 463
 Newgate, 418
 Newmarket, 144, 425
 Newstead Abbey: acquired by Sir John Byron, 3; Byron arrives at, 17; Priory founded by Henry II, 17 n.; Byron and mother installed in, 18; Byron played grand seigneur at, 19; Byron at Lodge, 26; Byron with Lord Grey at, 27-8; Byron liked its spaciousness, 35, 241; Byron ordered repairs, 53, 85; servants and animals at, 53; Byron will not sell, 53, 55, 95; skull found at Abbey, 55; party at, 58; cared for by Mrs. Byron, 60; Byron wished to be buried in vault, 67; monument to Boatswain, 67; Webster at, 102; entailed on George Byron, 104; an "amiable matrimonial mansion," 106; Harness and Hodgson at, 111; Susan Vaughan at, 111; distasteful to Byron, 112; offered at auction, 131; sold to Claughton, 131-2; Byron and Augusta at, 161-2, 174-5; back in Byron's hands, 174; bought in at auction, 203; Byron wants to sell, 268; sold to Wildman for £94,500, 275; later owners of, 275-6 n.; sale papers not sent, 284; Finlay had been there, 447; Hobhouse's memories of, 470; Teresa visited, 477
 Newton, Isaac, 29
 Nicolson, Sir Harold, 78 n., 127

- Nicopolis, 69
 Noel, Judith, Lady, 214, 217, 218, 222 n., 226, 366; see also Milbanke, Judith, Lady Noel, Sir Ralph, 203, 214, 218-19, 222 n., 291; see also Milbanke, Sir Ralph Norfolk, Duke of, 175
 North, Frederick (Earl of Guilford), 362-3
 Nottingham, Corporation of, 276 n.
 Nottinghamshire, 3
Nouvelle Héloïse, 243, 244

 Odysseus (Ulysses), 412, 447, 474, 475
 O'Flaherty, Major, 153
 O'Higgins, Mr. (Irish tragedian), 204
 Olympia, 91
 Ontario (ship), 376
 Origo, Marchesa Iris, 302, 325-6, 373, 458 n.
 Orlando, Jean, 423, 470
 Osborne, Lord Sidney, 340
 Ossian, 44
 Ostend, 236
Otello, 299
Othello, 264
 Ovid, 82
 Oxford, Countess of (Jane Elizabeth Scott): recruiter for Hampden Club, 128; and Harleian Miscellany, 128, 141; met Byron, 129; invited Byron to Eywood, 135; her "autumnal charms," 135; Byron's poem to her daughter, 135-6; tirade from Caroline, 136; print of Rinaldo and Armida, 136; going abroad, 137, 141; Byron paid 100 guineas for her portrait, 139; idyllic life with Byron, 138, 139, 141; brought Byron into circle of Princess, 139, 329; Byron annoyed by, 140; more in love than ever before, 140; urged Byron to "senatorial duties," 140; Byron inclined to marry her daughter, 141; encouraged Byron's radical stance, 143; brought husband to heel, 143; Byron felt Carolinish about, 144; Byron thought of joining, 175
 Oxford, Edward Harley, 5th Earl of, 128, 139, 143
 Oxford Street, 9

 Padua, 258
 Paley's Evidences, 106
 Palladio, 258
 Panagia, monastery of, 75
 Paolo and Francesca, 305
 "Paphian girls," 58
 Papi, Vincenzo, 371, 378
 Parga, 74
 Parker, Mrs. Charlotte Augusta (poet's aunt), 19
 Parker, Margaret, 21, 25, 38, 294
 Parkyns, Mrs., 19
 Parliament, 112-13
 Parnassus, Mount, 75, 475
 Parnes, 77
 Parolini, 293
 Parr, Dr. Samuel, 396
 Parry, William: due to arrive with stores, 433, 434, 438; stores brought out by, 439; Byron's intimate talks with, 439, 449, 455; described Byron's forlorn state, 440; became Byron's paymaster, 440-1; and Byron's fit, 441, 442; announced quitting of mechanics, 444-5; on Byron's practical jokes, 445; on Byron and Lion, 446; noted Byron's irritability, 450; prepared to take Byron to Zante, 453; noted patient's mind wandered, 454; protected Byron from doctors, 454, 456; found confusion in sick-room, 454, 458; on pathos of Byron's situation, 454-5; marched brigade outside town, 457; Byron tried to express last wishes to, 458; noted sincere sorrow of Greeks, 462; said Byron wanted body sent home, 465
 Parthenon, 77, 465
 Partridge, Eric, 292 n.
 Patras, 68, 73, 86-7, 91, 429, 431, 437, 443
 Peachey stone, 25, 33
 Peel, Robert, 24
 Pellegrino Inn (Venice), 276
 Pellegrino Inn (Bologna), 309, 355
 Pellico, Silvio, 256
 Peninsular War, 62
 Pentelicus, 75
 Pepys, Samuel, 3
 Pera, 83, 86
 Perceval, Spencer, 267
 Perelli, Don Gaspare, 300
 Perry, James, 132
 Persia, 53, 80
 Peterloo massacre, 314
 Petrarch, 256, 265, 296, 312
 Petrobey (Petros Mavromichales), 412, 413
 Petronius: quoted, 61, 90
 Phanariot Greeks, 430
 Philhellenes, 449, 469
 Philike Hetairia, 75 n.
 Phillips, Thomas, 164, 168
 Philpot, George, 283
 Phyle, 75
 Piazza di Spagna, 265 and n.
 Piazza San Marco, 258, 280
 Piccadilly Terrace, 198
 Picini, Lucrezia, 304
 Pigot, Elizabeth, 28, 30, 33, 38, 40, 43
 Pigot, John, 40
 Pindemonte, Ippolito, 255

- Pindus (mountains), 69, 77
 Pinto, Luigi Dal, 336-7
 Pisa, 357
 Pistocchi, 343
 Pitt, Mr. (Sir John), 20, 91
 Pitt, William, 40, 114
 Pius VII, Pope, 324, 327, 380
 Plato, 88
Pleasures of Hope, 109, 110
 Plomer, William, 478
 Podera, Villa la, 359
 Poetry Society, 478
 Polidori, Dr. John William, 232 and n., 233, 236, 242, 243, 251, 255,
     257, 264-5, 272, 470
Political Register (Cobbett), 114
 Pomposa, 301
 Ponsonby, Caroline (Lamb), 118
 Ponsonby, Henrietta, 118
 Pope, Alexander, 29, 47, 57, 255, 263, 275, 291, 323, 335, 341, 343, 347
 Porta Sisi, Via di, 304
 Portland, Duke of, 20
 Portsmouth, 143
 Portugal, 62-3
 Portuguese (language), 62
 Poseidon, Temple to, 78-9
 Power, Mary Ann, 396
 Presteign, 135
 Prevesa, 68-9, 73, 96, 443
 Primrose, George, 426
 Prince of Wales, 106, 125, 129; see also Prince Regent
 Prince Regent, 113, 115, 131, 142,
     162, 364; see also Prince of Wales
Princess Elizabeth (Lisbon packet), 61
 Princess of Wales, 128, 129, 139, 140
 Prior, Matthew, 291
 Proserpine, 192
 Protestant Cemetery (Rome), 383, 403
 Provisional Government (Greece), 421
 Prussia, King of, 169
 Puccini, President Aurelio, 377
 Pulci, Luigi, 273, 291, 322, 380
Purgatory (Dante), 305
Pylades (sloop-of-war), 80

Quarterly Review, 47, 102, 335, 343, 347
Queen Mab (Shelley's), 227, 240
 Queen Street (Aberdeen), 10
Quentin Durward, 426

 Rabelais, François, 29
 Radical Whigs, 469
 Radicals, 113, 114, 143, 469
 Ramadan, 70
 Rancliffe, Lady, 145
 Rangone, Giuseppe, 279
 Ravenna, 235, 298, 318
Recollections (Trelawny), 464, 475
 Reddish's Hotel, 56

 Reform movement, 321
Relapse, The (Vanbrugh), 164
Remorse (Coleridge), 199
Revenge, The (Young's tragedy), 33
 Rhiga, Constantine, 74
 Rhine, 237
 Rialto, 258, 264
 Richard III, 162
 Richmond, Duchess of, 237
 Ridge (Newark printer), 44
 Rinaldo and Armida, 136, 140
 Roberts, Captain Daniel, 365, 376,
     381-2
 Robespierre, Maximilien, 341 n.
 Rochdale, 55, 60, 203, 433
 Rochdale, Baron Byron of, 3, 16
Roderick Random, 14 Roe-Byron Library, 276 n.
 Rogers, Dummer, 19
 Rogers, Samuel, 109, 110, 118, 121,
     142, 164, 173, 230, 238, 355, 372,
     470
 Romagna, 330, 360
 Romaic (language), 83, 96
 Romanelli, Dr., 91
 Rome, 264, 265, 266, 270
 Romilly, Sir Samuel, 217, 218
 Roque, Phokion, 79
 Roscius (actor), 32
 Rose, William Stewart, 275
 Rossetti family, 232 n.
 Rossi, Pellegrino, 246
 Rossini, Gioachino Antonio, 276, 299, 380
 Rousseau, Jean Jacques, 29, 168, 244
 Rubens, 236
 Ruddiman's Grammar, 13
 Ruffhead, Owen, 47
 Rusconi, Cardinal, 333, 339, 343, 345
 Rushton, Robert, 54, 58, 60, 63, 67,
     103, 111, 171, 230, 233
 Rusticucci, Jacopo, 225 n.

 Sade, Marquis de, 211
 St. Athanasius, 166
 St. Augustine, Canons Regular of the Order of, 17 n.
 St. Christopher's, Island of, 25
 St. Euphemia, 415, 416
 St. Giles-in-the-Fields, 280
 St. James's Palace, 231
 St. James's Square, 396
 St. James's Street, 121
 St. Paul, 49, 81
 St. Paul's Church, 468
 St. Peter's, 266
 St. Preux, 243
 St. Ursula, 239
 Salamis (island), 76, 91
 Salisbury, Lord, 156
 Salona (Greek town), 449, 464
Salsette (frigate), 82, 86
 Saluzzo, Casa, 388
 Samos, 416

- San Benedetto, 276, 278
 San Giorgio, 419
 San Giorgio Maggiore, 258
 San Giovanni Battista (convent), 342
 San Giuliano, Baths of, 358
 San Lazzaro, 260, 261, 364
 San Lucca, 276
 San Moïse, 276
 San Spiridione, 465
 Sanders, George, 58, 60
 Sanguinetti (guide), 63
 Santa Chiara, Convent of, 296
 Santa Croce, 265
 Sass, Lieutenant, 443
Satirist, The, 51
 Savioli, Palazzo, 309, 311
 Savoy, Duke of, 244
 Sawbridge, 59
 Scala, Teatro alla, 255, 257
 Scarmentado, 171
 Schlegel, August Wilhelm von, 245-6
 Scott, Alexander, 282, 295, 310
 Scott, Captain (Hercules), 409, 418
 Scott, Sir Walter, 6, 29, 37, 57, 129, 146, 200, 205, 331-2, 343, 350, 398
 Scottish Highlands, 46
 Scrofos rocks, 429, 432
 Seaham, 155, 164, 166, 174
Secret de Byron, Le, 166 n.
 Segati, Marianna, 259, 260, 262, 265, 269, 271, 273, 277, 279, 283
 Segati, Pietro, 258, 272
 Selim, 155
 Semiramis, 334
 Sestos, 83
 Seven Towers, 83
 Severn, Joseph, 475
 Seville, 63
 Sgricci, 276
 Sharp, "Conversation," 156, 164
 Sheerness, 99
 Sheldrake, 20
 Shelley, Mary: returned to Venice with Shelley, 290; asked to refute Elise's story, 348; charmed with Byron, 358, 359-60, 392, 394; called Pisa "nest of singing birds," 358; rode with Teresa, 359; her novels with Byronic heroes, 360; Teresa admired her intellect, 363; on Trelawny, 364; on Byron's charm in Moore's Life, 369; in the Pisan affray, 370; on disfiguring of sail, 376; her illness, 377; search for news of Shelley, 381-2; Byron and Teresa consoled, 382; wanted Shelley's remains in Rome, 383; preserved Shelley's heart, 384; left for Genoa, 386; at Casa Negroto, 389; Byron to be her banker, 389; copied Don Juan, 391; prospects at death of Sir Timothy, 392, 394; Shelley, Mary (continued) thought Byron henpecked by Teresa, 394; on Pietro's joy at going to Greece, 400; on Teresa's objection to Greek plan, 400; touchy about Byron's financial aid, 404; tried to console Teresa, 405; reaction to Byron's death, 466; saw Byron's hearse pass, 470; Trelawny's letters on Byron to, 474
 Shelley, Percy Bysshe: a visionary out of the world, 146; at Geneva, 190; elopement with Mary Godwin, 227; could not endure the theater, 228; left for Geneva, 239; met Byron at Geneva, 240; dosed Byron with Wordsworth, 241; at Diodati with Byron, 241-2; challenged by Polidori, 242; tour of lake with Byron, 243-4; coolness in storm, 243-4; on torture chamber at Chillon, 244; read Nouvelle Héloïse, 244; tour to Chamouni, 245; arranged with Byron for Claire, 248; came alone to Diodati, 249; carried MS. of Harold to England, 250; wrote "atheist" after name, 250; plans for Allegra, 267, 276; influence on Harold III, 272; bringing Allegra to Italy, 280; invited Byron to Como, 281; to Venice with Claire, 286; rode on Lido with Byron, 286; conversation in Julian and Maddalo, 286; "League of Incest" with Byron, 288; on Byron's dissipations in Venice, 290; treatment of children in his family, 325; questioned validity of social laws, 326; defended Claire as unhappy, 332; story of his child by Claire, 332; defended by Byron, 333; sent Byron Adonais, 347; visit to Byron in Ravenna, 347; and Elise's scandal, 347-8, 349; on Byron's menagerie, 348; admiration for Don Juan, 348; visit to Allegra, 349; "incapable of cruelty," 349; secured house for Byron in Pisa, 349; hoped to bring Hunt to Italy, 350; Byron welcomed to his circle, 356, 358; in the Tre Palazzi, 358; admiration for Cain, 358, 361; saw "canker of aristocracy" in Byron, 358; admiration for Byron's poetry, 358, 361, 369; drawn into Byron's circle, 359, 360; Byron's respect for, 361, 369; differed with Byron on religion, 362; and the auto da fé, 362; took Trelawny to see Byron, 364; literary conversation with Byron, 364; scheme for boat, 365; warned Byron about Hunt's borrowing, 367; angry with Byron over Claire, 368; in the Masi affray, 370-1;

- Shelley, Percy Bysshe (continued) leaving Pisa for summer, 371-2;
 on Claire's reaction to Allegra's death, 373; at Casa Magni, 373; Pisan circle dissolved, 374; chagrined by Don Juan on sail, 376;
 "link between two thunderbolts,"
 377; settled Hunt in Byron's house, 378, 379; left for Leghorn, 379; in storm on gulf, 381; body indentified by Trelawny, 382; impact of his death on Byron, 382, 386;
 Byron's defense of, 382; Hunt was Byron's legacy from, 382, 386-7;
 Mary wanted remains in Rome,
 383; Trelawny performed pagan rites, 384; heart did not burn, 384;
 ashes in Protestant Cemetery,
 Rome, 403; Byron rejected legacy,
 404; his views of Hunt's poetry,
 404; at Diodati, 470; glorified by Trelawny, 475; memorial in West-minister, 478
- Shelley, Sir Timothy, 392, 394
- Shelley, William, 383
- Sheridan, Richard Brinsley, 29, 114, 144, 147, 164, 206, 246
- Sherwood Forest, 17
- Shiloh (Shelley), 333
- Sicily, 137
- Siddons, Mrs., 6, 110, 204-5
- Sierra Morena, 63
- Sigum, 82
- Silvestrini, Fanny, 298, 300, 313, 317
- Simplon, 255
- Sinclair, George, 24
- Sismondi, 312
- Sittingbourne, 101
- Six Mile Bottom, 144, 151
- Skilitzy, Constantine, 406, 425
- Slater, Joseph, 201
- Sleep and Poetry* (by Keats), 323
- Sligo, Marquis of (Lord Altamont),
 89 n., 141
- Sloane Terrace, 21, 24
- Smiles, Samuel, 361
- Smith, Constance Spencer, 67-8, 70, 80, 97
- Smith, Thomas, 415
- Smollett, Tobias, 14, 29, 292
- Smyrna, 80-1, 85
- Socrates, 49, 92
- Sotheby, William, 200, 224
- South America, 313, 376
- Southcott, Joanna, 175 and n.
- Southey, Robert, 29, 57, 102, 288, 289, 292, 351, 352, 390
- Southwell, 26, 28, 33
- Spenserian stanza (of Childe Harold), 73
- Spetziot vessels, 431, 434, 437
- Spider (brig-of-war), 68
- Spina, Cardinal, 333
- Springhetti, Angelo, 255, 288
- Springs of Action* (Bentham), 423
- Staël, Madame de, 149, 164, 169, 245, 248, 249, 259, 311, 317, 331
- Stamboul, 83
- Stanhope, Earl ("Citizen"), 143
- Stanhope, Lady Hester, 91
- Stanhope, Colonel Leicester, 423, 424, 426, 432, 433, 439, 440, 443, 445-
 6, 465, 468, 469
- Stendhal, 366
- Sterne, Laurence, 29
- Story of Rimini, The* (Hunt), 142, 202, 217, 284
- Stowe, Harriet Beecher, 476
- Strané (English Consul, Patras), 87
- Stromboli, 409
- Stuart, Princess Annabella, 6
- Suli, 74
- Suliot, 413, 414, 418, 422, 425,
 431, 434, 437-8, 439-41, 443-4,
 446, 449
- Sultan (Mahmoud II), 85-6
- Sunium, 78, 92
- Surrey, Earl of, 175
- Surrey Gaol, 142
- Sussex, 40
- Swift, Jonathan, 47, 119 n., 195, 257, 409, 444
- Swinburne, A. C., 467
- Switzerland, 239
- Sylla, 156
- Sylvester, John, 289
- Syria, 94-5
- Taafe, John, Jr., 359, 363, 370-1
- Tagus River, 62-3, 82, 282
- Tahiri, Dervish, 74, 95
- Talleyrand, 203
- Taruscelli, Arpalice, 283, 293
- Tasso, 158, 265
- Tavell, George Frederick, 46
- Taylor, Miss, 154
- Temple of Zeus, 76
- Ten Commandments, 49
- Tennyson, Alfred, 467
- Tepelepe, 70, 71, 72, 73
- Thebes, 89, 92, 95
- Themistocles, 76, 77, 79
- Theotoky, Jean Baptiste, 421
- Theseum, 76, 465
- Thorwaldsen, Bertel, 266, 477
- Thrale, Mrs. (later Piozzi), 4
- Thyrza (Edleston), 107, 126, 130
- Tiberius, 340
- Tillotson, John, 29
- Tom Thumb, 57
- Tooke, Horne, 156
- Torelli (spy), 374, 378, 388
- Tories, 143
- Torlonia (Byron's banker), 265 n.
- Townshend Packet*, 67
- Tre Palazzi di Chiesa, 358
- Treiber, Dr. Enrico, 456
- Trelawny, Edward John: on Byron's view of antiquities, 76-7; on Byron's uncertain skepticism, 362;

- Trelawny, Edward John (continued) his background, 364; first meeting with Byron, 364; caricature of Byron's Corsair, 365; ordered boats for Byron and Shelley, 365; on Byron's abstemiousness, 369; in Masi affray, 370-1; on Byron baiting Rogers, 372; suggested name of Don Juan for boat, 376; in charge of Bolivar, 377, 386, 387, 388, 392; rode with Byron and Hunt, 381; news of Shelley's boat, 381; identified Shelley's body, 382; preserved Shelley's heart, 384; swam with Byron to Bolivar, 387; on Byron's illness at Lerici, 387-8; on Byron's thoughts of Greece, 392; hunting in the Maremma, 392; asked to join Greek venture, 402-3; no enthusiasm for helmet, 403; repaired horses' stalls, 406; found Byron good shipboard companion, 409; took dim view of Suliotes, 413; on journey to Ithaca, 415, 416; impatient with Byron's dawdling, 418; proud of being Byron's confidant, 418 n.; left for mainland, 418, 419; butt of Byron's jests, 419; favorable report of Government, 421; wrote disparagingly of Byron, 421; with General Ulysses, 421; urged attendance at Salona, 446-7; Byron's nostalgia for, 447; on Byron's foot, 464-5; his later history, 474-5; equivocal attitudes toward Byron, 474; Byron's jackal, 475; correspondence with Claire, 476
- Trevanion, 469
 Trevanion, Henry, 475
 Trevanion, Sophia, 4, 21 n.
 Tricoupi, Spiridion, 420, 463
 Trinity Chapel, 38
 Trinity College, 34, 35, 36, 39, 40, 108, 267 n., 477
Trip to Scarborough, The (Sheridan), 164
 Tripolitz, 87, 413
 Troppau, Congress at, 333
 Troy, 82
 Tucker, Surgeon, 99
Turba (Mob), 330
 Turcolimani, 76 n.
 Turkey, 61, 72, 83, 86, 235
 Turkish (language), 83
 Turkish brig, 443
 Turkish fleet, 428, 434, 437
 Turks, 71, 76, 84, 85, 86, 89, 98
 Tuscan government 353
 Tuscany, 378
- Ulysses (Odysseus), 412, 421, 446
 United States squadron, 375
 Urquhart, Miss, 7
 Ussières, Henrietta d', 168-9
- Vaccà, Dr., 359 and n.
 Valentia, Viscount, 102
 Valeriano, 328
 Valletta, 68
 Valley of the Sweet Water, 84
Vampyre, The, 243
 Vanbrugh, Sir John, 164
 Varassova Mountain (Chalkis), 432
 Vasilidi, 451
 Vasily (Albanian servant), 73, 78
Vathek (Beckford), 63, 170
 Vaughan, Susan, 111, 112
 Vavassour, Mrs., 308
 Vaya, Dr. Loukas, 456
 Veli Pasha, 73, 74, 87, 93
 Venice, 235, 254, 258, 259, 262
 Venus de Medici (Florence), 265
 Verona, 258
 Vevey, 244
 Via Galleria, 309
 Viareggio, 382, 384
 Vicari, Geltrude, 307
 Vicenza, 258
 Victoria, Queen, 473
 Villa Gamba (at Filetto), 330
 Villiers, Mrs., 239, 247, 251
Vindication of the Rights of Women (Wollstonecraft), 227
 Virgil, 19, 44
Vision of Judgment, A (Southey's), 351
 Vitali, George, 408
 Vivie de Régie, Roger de, 166 n.
 Vivien, Charles, 381
Volage (frigate), 98
 Voltaire, 193, 245, 249, 264, 291, 409, 414
 Vostitza, 87
- Waiwode, 76, 89, 92, 94
 Wallachia, 94, 430
 Ward, J. W., 156
 Washington, George, 156
 Waterloo, 236, 237
 Webb, William Frederick, 275-6 n.
 Webb & Co., 393
 Webster, Lady Frances, 110, 151, 152, 153-4, 155, 156, 160, 224, 392, 472
 Webster, Sir Godfrey, 117
 Webster, James Wedderburn, 58, 102, 105, 110, 151, 154, 169, 392, 393
 Wellesley, Sir Arthur, 62
 Wellington, Duke of, 126, 171, 202, 224
 Welsh, Jane, 467
 Wentworth, Lord, 181, 183, 195, 198, 200, 203
 Wentworth Estate, 366
 Werry, Mr. Francis, 81
 Westminster Abbey, 468, 477-8
 Westmoreland, Lady, 118
Wheel of Fortune (Cumberland), 41
 Whig Club (Cambridge), 47
 Whigs, 113, 144

Whistlecraft, 273, 275
 Whitbread, Samuel, 144
 Wildman, Major Thomas, 275-6,
     275 n, 470
 Wilkes, John, 234
 William the Conqueror, 3
 Williams, Edward, 358, 360, 364, 365, 371-2, 373, 376, 379, 384
 Williams, Jane, 358, 381-2
 Wilmot, Mrs., 169
 Wilmot, Robert John, 225 n.
 Wilson, Harriette, 321, 363
 Windham, William, 156
 Wingfield, John, 103
 Wollstonecraft, Mary, 227
 Wordsworth, William, 36, 45, 57,
     241, 288, 331

Yiotes, 443
 Yorke, Captain (of Alacrity), 437
 Yorkshire, 188
 Young, Edward, 33
 Ythan (river), 6
 Yussuf Pasha, 430, 437

 Zaimes, Andreas, 413
 Zambelli, Lega, 313, 326, 350, 409, 414, 427, 432, 461, 476
 Zanga, 33
 Zantachi, Andreas, 74, 92
 Zante, 72, 408, 412, 427, 453, 465
 "Zea" (Keos), 86
 Zeluco, 14, 194
 Zinanni, Contessa Placidia, 300
 Zitza (Zitsa), 70-1
 Zuleika, 155