

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xi
FOREWORD
Stephen J. Greenblatt	xiii
Introduction: Demanding History
John D. Cox and David Scott Kastan	1
1. World Pictures, Modern Periods, and the Early Stage
Margreta de Grazia	7
Part I. Early English Drama and Physical Space
2. The English Church as Theatrical Space
John M. Wasson	25
3. "A Commony a Christmas gambold or a tumbling trick": Household Theater
Suzanne Westfall	39
4. The Universities:
Early Staging in Cambridge
Alan H. Nelson	59
Early Staging in Oxford
John R. Elliott, Jr	68
5. Streets and Markets
Anne Higgins	77

6. The Theaters John Orrell	93
---------------------------------------	----

7. "Rowme" of Its Own: Printed Drama in Early Libraries Heidi Brayman Hackel	113
---	-----

Part II. Early English Drama and Social Space

8. Theater and Religious Culture Paul Whitfield White	133
---	-----

9. Wonderfull Spectacles: Theater and Civic Culture Gordon Kipling	153
---	-----

10. The Theater and Domestic Culture Diana E. Henderson	173
---	-----

11. Entertainments at Court Graham Parry	195
--	-----

12. The Theater and Literary Culture Barbara A. Mowat	213
---	-----

13. Theater and Popular Culture Michael D. Bristol	231
--	-----

Part III: Early English Drama and Conditions of Performance and Publication

14. Touring Peter H. Greenfield	251
---	-----

15. "Cloathes worth all the rest": Costumes and Properties Jean MacIntyre and Garrett P. J. Epp	269
--	-----

16. Censorship Richard Dutton	287
---	-----

17. Audiences: Investigation, Interpretation, Invention Ann Jennalie Cook	305
--	-----

18. Rogues and Rhetoricians: Acting Styles in Early English Drama Peter Thomson	321
--	-----

19. Personnel and Professionalization W. R. Streitberger	337
20. Playwrighting: Authorship and Collaboration Jeffrey Masten	357
21. The Publication of Playbooks Peter W. M. Blayney	383
22. Patronage and the Economics of Theater Kathleen E. McLuskie and Felicity Dunsworth	423
23. The Revision of Scripts Eric Rasmussen	441
24. The Repertory Roslyn L. Knutson	461
25. Plays in Manuscript Paul Werstine	481
BIBLIOGRAPHY	499
CONTRIBUTORS	545
INDEX	549
INDEX OF PLAYS	561

Index of Plays

- Abraham and Isaac* (Brome manuscript):
maternal presence in, 176; staging of,
32–33
- Adam* (Anglo-Norman): staging of, 29
- Ajax Flagellifer* (at Christ Church, Oxford), 73
- Alba* (at Christ Church, Oxford), 73
- Albion's Triumph* (Jones and Townshend), 207–208
- Alchemist, The* (Jonson), 190; links dissenters with Church of England reformers, 144; stage costume in,
272
- All for Money* (Lupton): Calvinist social critique in, 137; symbolic costume in,
270
- Antipodes, The* (Brome), 334
- Arcadia Reformed* (Daniel), 74
- Arden of Faversham*, 175, 191; tonal ambivalence of, 180
- Assumption, The* (Lincoln Cathedral),
27
- Assumption of the Virgin* (from York): mystery play pageant for, used in Henry
VII's royal entry, 163
- As You Like It* (Shakespeare): boy actor in,
333; costume change in, 274
- Atheist's Tragedy, The* (Tournear), 143;
righteous suffering in, 149
- Ball, The* (Shirley): performed politically, 299
- Bartholomew Fair* (Jonson): edited for different playing locations, 55
- Believe as You List* (Massinger): revised to avoid censorship, 299
- Bellum Grammaticale* (at Christ Church, Oxford), 73
- Black Dog of Newgate, The*, 447
- Blind Beggar of Bednal Green, The*: as repertory spin-off, 471
- Britannia Triumphans* (Jones and Davenant), 209
- Bussy D'Ambois* (Chapman): complex revision of, 450–52; views of revision in,
454–55
- Cambyzes* (Preston): as mature morality play, 340; doubling patterns in, 341
- Campaspe* (Lyly), 198
- Cancer* (at Trinity College, Cambridge),
62; stage plan of, 63
- Canimore and Lionley* (Yorkshire parish play): staging of, 35

- Captives, The* (Thomas Heywood): W. W. Greg on, 490
- Careless Shepherdess, The* (Goffe), 425
- Changeling, The* (Middleton and Rowley): anti-feminism in, 180; influence of household drama on, 56; jealous husband in, 177
- Chaste Maid in Cheapside, A* (Middleton): anti-feminism in, 176; anti-Puritan satire in, 143; cuckoldry in, 179; wet nurse in, 185
- Chester cycle: Noah's wife in, 176
- Christmas Prince, The* (at St. John's College, Oxford), 69
- Civil Wars of France, Part I* (Dekker and Drayton): composition of and rehearsal for, 324
- Cloth Breeches and Velvet Hose*: registration of, with Stationers' Hall, 387
- Coelum Britannicum* (Jones and Carew), 208–209
- Comedy of Errors, The* (Shakespeare): imitates academic comedy, 66; problematic manuscript provenance of, 492
- Concealed Fancies* (Cavendish household), 46
- Conversion of Paul* (Fleury), 29
- Coronation of the Blessed Virgin, The* (Lincoln Cathedral), 27; produced separately from civic plays, 88
- Corpus Christi play: at Coventry, 240; at Lincoln, 29; performed at Kendal till 1605, 290; variable content of, 34; and York's social structure, 79; see also Mystery plays
- Cradle of Security, The*, 263–64
- Custom of the Country, The* (Fletcher and Massinger): naturalistic costume in, 276
- Daniel* (Beauvais): staging of, 29–30
- Dead Man's Fortune, The*, 447
- Devil's Charter, The* (Barnes): in King's Men's repertory, 475
- Doctor Faustus* (Marlowe): self-scrutiny in, 150
- Duchess of Malfi, The* (Webster): anti-feminism in, 180; divided self in, 150; on script revision, 442; strong maternal image in, 184
- Eastward Ho* (Chapman, Jonson, Marston), 302; as evidence for Second Blackfriars' characteristics, 100
- Edward II* (Marlowe): male friendship in, 183
- Edward IV*: sympathetic adultress in, 180
- Endimion* (Lyly), 199
- Enough Is as Good as a Feast*: Calvinist social critique in, 137
- Epicoene* (Jonson): anti-feminism in, 176
- Every Man in His Humour* (Jonson): complex revision of, 450–52
- Every Man Out of His Humour* (Jonson): costume change in, 276; on script revision, 442
- Family of Love, The*, 143
- Floating Island, The* (at Christ Church, Oxford), 74
- Galiasso*: in Admiral's Men's repertory, 467
- Game at Chess, A* (Middleton): angers King James, 301; performed politically, 299
- Glass of Government, The* (Gascoigne): tension between Calvinist doctrine and education in, 137
- Gorboduc* (Norton and Sackville): and court standard of permissibility, 293
- Greene's Tu Quoque* (Cooke): costume unsuited to social status in, 274
- Hamlet* (Shakespeare): acting in, 323; Christian doctrine and revenge in, 150; differences between Quarto and Folio in, 443–44; Reformation interiority in, 150
- Hengist*: manuscripts of, 485
- Henry IV, Part I* (Shakespeare): Oldcastle in, 144–45

- Henry IV, Part 2* (Shakespeare): Oldcastle in, 144–45
- Henry V* (Shakespeare): costume change in, 273; distinguishes gentlefolk from commoners, 231; licensing of, 399
- Hick Scornor*, 51
- Horestes* (Pickering): doubling patterns in, 341; as mature morality play, 340
- If You Know Not Me You Know Nobody, Part 2* (Thomas Heywood): complex revision of, 450–52
- Impatient Poverty*: costume change in, 272
- Interlude of Youth*, 51
- Jack Juggler*: attacks transubstantiation, 138
- Jacob and Esau*: sanctions resistance to reprobate authority, 138; tension between Calvinist doctrine and education in, 137
- Johan Johan* (John Heywood): cuckoldry in, 179
- Julius Caesar* (Shakespeare): Folger manuscript of, 216
- Killing of the Children* (Digby manuscript): staging of, 33
- King and the Subject, The* (Massinger): censored by Sir Henry Herbert and King Charles I, 300
- King Johan* (Bale): anti-papal aspects of, 136; cites its own literary sources, 229n7
- King Lear* (Shakespeare): costume change in, 274; differences between Quarto and Folio in, 443–44; performed at Gowthwaite Hall in 1609, 213
- Knight of the Burning Pestle, The* (Beaumont): discredits female spectators, 180
- Labyrinthus* (at Trinity College, Cambridge), 62
- Lady Mother, The* (Glapthorne): script revision in, 455
- Leander* (at Trinity College, Cambridge), 62
- Life and Repentaunce of Mary Magdalene, The* (Lewis Wager): Calvinism in, 137; cites its biblical origin, 222
- Like Will to Like* (Fulwell): costume change in, 275; stage costume as symbol of moral condition in, 277
- Longer Thou Livest the More Fool Thou Art, The* (W. Wager): criticizes Catholic child-rearing, 137
- Love's Hospital* (at St. John's College, Oxford), 75, 484
- Love's Labor's Lost* (Shakespeare): costume change in, 272; imitates academic comedy, 66; on social status and economic exchange, 427; traditional court masque in, 197
- Love's Triumph through Callipolis* (Jonson and Jones), 206
- Lusty Juventus* (Wever): Calvinism in, 137
- Magnetic Lady, The* (Jonson): as evidence for Second Blackfriars' characteristics, 100
- Malcontent, The* (Marston and Webster), 217; on additions to the established script, 449
- Mankind*: costume change in, 274
- Marcus Geminus* (at Corpus Christi College, Oxford), 71
- Masque of Augurs, The* (Jonson and Jones), 205
- Masque of Blackness, The* (Jonson and Jones): first Stuart court masque, 200–202; staged at Whitehall Banqueting House, 95; staging of, 201
- Masque of Queens, The* (Jonson and Jones): and female power, 203; first to have anti-masque, 202
- Massacre at Paris* (Marlowe): W. W. Greg on, 491
- Measure for Measure* (Shakespeare): anti-Puritan satire in, 144
- Merchant of Venice, The* (Shakespeare): male friendship in, 183
- Merry Knack to Know a Knave, A*: anti-Puritan satire in, 144

- Merry Wives of Windsor, The* (Shakespeare): as repertory spin-off, 472
- Midas* (Lyly), 199
- A Midsummer Night's Dream*, A
(Shakespeare): dramatizes script revision, 441; influence of household drama on, 57; literary sources of, 224;
- Misogonus*: criticizes Catholic childrearing, 137
- Muse's Looking Glass, The* (Randolph): anti-puritanism in, 133
- Mystery plays: decline of, 135; economic reasons for decline of, 135; official opposition to, 135; revised to suit Protestant outlook, 135; stage costume in, 270–72; Glynne Wickham on decline of, 290; see also Corpus Christi play
- Nature of the Four Elements, The* (John Rastell): as household play, 55; playbook includes suggestions for cuts, 215
- Nice Wanton*: criticizes Catholic childrearing, 137
- Othello* (Shakespeare): 192; staged at Whitehall Banqueting House, 95
- Palamon and Arcyte* (at Corpus Christi College, Oxford), 71
- Pammachius* (Kirchmayer), 291
- Pardoner and the Friar, The* (William Rastell): staging of, 33
- Passion play*: Protestant revision of, at Shrewsbury, 135; staged at Kendall in 1609, 135
- Patient Grissil*, 175
- Pericles Prince of Tyre* (Shakespeare): acknowledges its sources, 223; exemplifies complexities of theater and literary culture, 218–22; performed at Gouthwaite Hall in 1609, 213
- Philopo and Hippolito*: in Admiral's Men's repertory, 466
- Philotas* (Daniel), 217
- Pierce of Winchester* (Dekker, Drayton, Wilson): acting in, 324
- Play of the Sacrament* (at Croxton): staging of, 31
- Prince Henry's Barriers* (Jonson and Jones), 203
- Princely Pleasures of Kenilworth, The*, 43–44
- Processus Satanae*: staging of, 34
- Prodigal son plays, 181
- Progne* (at Christ Church, Oxford), 71
- Quem Quaeritis*: at Winchester: 28
- Return from Parnassus, The, Part 1*: on academic staging, 64
- Return from Parnassus, The, Part 2*: depicts an author selling his manuscript, 395
- Richard III* (Shakespeare), 335; divine ordination and volition in, 149
- Rivales* (at Christ Church, Oxford), 73
- Roaring Girl, The* (Middleton): links playbooks with playhouses, 118
- Romeo and Juliet* (Shakespeare): naturalistic costume in, 275; wet nurse in, 185
- Royal Slave, The* (at Christ Church, Oxford), 74
- Salmacida Spolia* (Jones and Davenant), 209–10
- Sapho and Phao* (Lyly), 198
- Second Maiden's Tragedy, The*: script revision in, 444
- Secunda Pastorum* (from Wakefield), 55; anti-feminism in, 177; as chapel production, 55; costume change in, 273; domestic space in, 186
- Sejanus* (Jonson): causes political concern, 217
- Seven Deadly Sins, The*, 346
- Shoemaker's Holiday, The* (Dekker): and socioeconomic change, 190
- Siege of Rhodes, The* (Davenant), 211
- Sir John Van Olden Barnavelte* (Fletcher and Massinger): censored by Sir George Buc, 298

- Sir Thomas More*: censored by Edmond Tilney, 298; W. W. Greg on, 490–91; script revision in, 452; as source of clues for acting style, 326–28
- Spanish Tragedy, The* (Kyd): in Admiral's Men's repertory, 470
- St. Christopher*: accused of seditious import in Star Chamber, 213
- St. Judith* (?) (at Donington), 34–35
- Supposes* (Gascoigne), 65
- Swetnam the Woman Hater*: costume change in, 273
- Tamburlaine* (Marlowe): divine scourge in, 149; in Admiral's Men's repertory, 472
- Taming of A Shrew, The*, 39
- Taming of the Shrew, The* (Shakespeare), 39, 191; domestication in, 186; imitates academic comedy, 66; influence of household drama on, 57; influences contemporary writers, 225; unruly wife in, 178
- Tempest, The* (Shakespeare): colonial attitudes in, 474; exemplifies complexities of theater and literary culture, 226–27; influence of household drama on, 57
- Three Laws* (Bale): alleges monastic homosexuality, 141
- Tide Tarrieth No Man, The*: allows time for costume changes, 273
- 'Tis Pity She's a Whore* (Ford), 185
- Titus Andronicus* (Shakespeare), 222
- Tragedy of Thomas of Woodstock, The*: costume unsuited to social status in, 274; stage horse in, 281
- Travailes of the Three English Brothers*, 213
- Trial of Treasure, The*: Calvinist social critique in, 137
- Trick to Catch the Old One, A* (Middleton), 179; subverts social categories, 179
- Troilus and Cressida* (Shakespeare): publication of, 417n5
- True and Honorable History of the Life of Sir John Oldcastle*: response to Shakespeare's Henry IV, 145
- Twelfth Night* (Shakespeare): anti-Puritan satire in, 144; male friendship in, 183
- Two Lamentable Tragedies* (Yarington), 185
- Two Noble Kinsmen, The* (Shakespeare and Fletcher): "conversation" in, 359
- Vertumnus* (at Christ Church, Oxford), 73
- Volpone* (Jonson): influence of household drama on, 57; jealous husband in, 177
- Warning for Fair Women, A*, 141; sympathetic adultress in, 180
- Wealth and Health*, 51
- White Devil, The* (Webster): opens in winter, 314
- Winter's Tale, The* (Shakespeare): costume change in, 273, 276; family relationships in, 182–83
- Wisdom*, 55; as household play, 51; staging of, 32
- Wise Man of West Chester, The*: in Admiral's Men's repertory, 466
- Wit in a Constable* (Glapthorne): libraries a commonplace in, 115
- Witch of Edmonton, The* (Dekker, Ford, William Rowley), 188; sympathetic maidservant in, 189
- Wits, The* (Davenant): censored by King Charles I, 300
- Woman Killed with Kindness, A* (Thomas Heywood): allows time for costume changes, 273; and economic change, 187; guest as domestic threat in, 188; male friendship in, 183; religious assumptions in, 148; symbolic use of domestic space in, 187; sympathetic adultress in, 180
- Woman's Prize, The* (Fletcher): feminism in, 178
- World and the Child, The*, 51; costume change in, 272
- Yorkshire Tragedy, A*, 175