

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Methodological and Theoretical Considerations	4
Solitude: Aim and Terminology	8
Scope	13
Previous Research	14
Contemporary Attitudes to Solitude	17
 Chapter 1. Powys's Solitudes	 21
Philosophy and World-View	21
The Philosophy of Solitude	22
Misanthropy versus Love	28
Anti-Anthropocentrism	30
"Reality"	31
Categories of Solitude	34
Physical and Mental Solitude	34
Transcendental Solitude and Solitude in Quotidian Reality	36
Self-Assertive and Self-Abandoned Transcendental Solitude	38
 Chapter 2. Wolf Solent	 44
Solitude	46
Solitude and Love	48
The "Mythology" and the Philosophy of Solitude	52
The Duplicitous Mythology: The "Philosophy of the Saint" and the "Philosophy of the Ichthyosaurus"	52
Death of the Mythology--Birth of the Philosophy of Solitude	62
Endure or Escape?	69
 Chapter 3. A Glastonbury Romance	 72
Yes to Solitude	75
Attitudes to Selfisness: The Ichthyosaurus and the Saint	81
The Ichthyosaurus	86
The Saint	89
Ichthyosaurian Authority?	95

Chapter 4. Weymouth Sands	103
Self-Abandoned Transcendental Solitude	110
Solitude in the World	115
Borderline Cases	124
Love and Solitude	127
The Philosophy of Solitude	131
Chapter 5. Maiden Castle	135
Double Authority: Character and Narrator	141
No-man and Solitude	149
Wizzie and Solitude	161
Chapter 6. Owen Glendower	171
Shame and Shamelessness	175
Visible and Invisible Solitudes	179
Visible Solitude: Owen the Prince	183
Invisible Solitude: Owen the Outlaw	188
White Magic	190
Black Magic	191
Enchantment	194
Chapter 7. Porius	199
Background Ideas: Pluralism and Story-Telling	202
Solitude	211
Stories of Solitude	213
Stories of Philosophy	221
Conclusion	229
Works by John Cowper Powys	233
Other Works Cited	237