

Contents

	Table of cases	ix
	Table of legislation	xiv
	Preface to the second edition	xviii
1	The concept(s) of Europeanisation	1
	Introduction	1
	The context for Europeanisation	2
	Europeanisation by the EU – themes and arguments to be explored	18
2	Framework of Europeanisation	23
	Introduction	23
	National contract rules and free movement	23
	Europeanisation and competence	26
	Europeanisation by Directives	37
	Role of the CJEU	45
	Conclusion	51
3	Europeanisation – the story so far	52
	Introduction	52
	Areas not covered	53
	Overview – key Directives	55
	Pre-contractual phase	67
	Contract formation and validity	80
	Substance of the contract	91
	Performance	101
	Remedies for non-performance	107
	Beyond contract law – enforcement by injunction	114
	Conclusion	115

4	Impact on national law	117
	Introduction	117
	Implementation into domestic law – general considerations	118
	Post-implementation issues	122
	Implementing EU law in the UK	126
	Interpretation and application by national courts	131
	Impact on contract law generally	145
	Conclusion	150
5	Deeper Europeanisation – the common frame of reference	151
	Introduction	151
	Commission's trilogy on European contract law	151
	EU-wide standard contract terms	153
	CFR	155
	DCFR and beyond	170
	Conclusion	174
6	Towards an optional instrument on EU contract law	176
	Introduction	176
	An optional instrument	176
	Competence – the perennial problem	181
	From an optional instrument to a CESL?	185
7	The future of Europeanisation	196
	Introduction	196
	Europeanisation – summary and evaluation	196
	A European Contract Code?	199
	An alternative? – the open method of co-ordination	207
	Europeanisation – conclusions	207
	Bibliography	210
	Index	223