

Contents

Notes on Contributors	xi
1 Introduction Suha Taji-Farouki	i
2 Fazlur Rahman: a framework for interpreting the ethico-legal content of the Qur'an Abdullah Saeed	37
3 Nurcholish Madjid and the interpretation of the Qur'an: religious pluralism and tolerance Anthony H. Johns and Abdullah Saeed	67
4 Amina Wadud's hermeneutics of the Qur'an: women rereading sacred texts Asma Barlas	97
5 Mohammed Arkoun: towards a radical rethinking of Islamic thought Ursula Günther	125
6 From revelation to interpretation: Nasr Hamid Abu Zayd and the literary study of the Qur'an Navid Kermani	169
7 Post-revolutionary Islamic modernity in Iran: the intersubjective hermeneutics of Mohamad Mojtahed Shabestari Farzin Vahdat	193
8 Mohamed Talbi on understanding the Qur'an Ronald L. Nettler	225

Contents

9	Hüseyin Atay's approach to understanding the Qur'an Osman Taştan	241
10	'The form is permanent, but the content moves': the Qur'anic text and its interpretation(s) in Mohamad Shahrour's al-Kitab wal-Qur'an Andreas Christmann	263
11	Modern intellectuals, Islam, and the Qur'an: the example of Sadiq Nayhum Suha Taji-Farouki	297
	Index	333