

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 The Importance of Image and Affect in Politics	1
2 Historical Traces and Relevant Concepts	15
3 The Role of Information Processing	39
4 The Methods Behind the Research: How We Did These Studies	51
5 The Two Levels of Agenda Setting: Issues and Attributes	79
6 Visual Cues in the Formation of Affect	97
7 The Valence of Affect: Accentuate the Negative or Put Your Best Foot Forward?	117
8 The Make-up of Affect: Emotions and Traits	137
9 New Media and Demographic Differences in Agenda Setting	151
10 An International Investigation of Affective Agendas	173
11 What We Now Know About Affect and Implications for Democracy	193
Bibliography	205
Index	233
About the Authors	237