

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

"A Better Sort of Love": An Introduction to the Life and Thought of Wilson Carey McWilliams 1

Patrick J. Deneen and Susan J. McWilliams

Part 1. Political Thought in America

Liberty, Equality, and the Problem of Community 21

Religion and the American Founding 44

Civil Religion in the Age of Reason: Thomas Paine on Liberalism,
Redemption, and Revolution 56

The Anti-Federalists 92

Standing at Armageddon: Morality and Religion in Progressive Thought 98

America's Two Voices in a World of Nations 120

Part 2. Political Thinkers

George Orwell and Ideology 133

Reinhold Niebuhr: New Orthodoxy for Old Liberalism 141

Community and Its Discontents: On Amitai Etzioni and the Future of Communitarianism 162

Bertrand de Jouvenel on Politics and Political Science in America 178

Leo Strauss and the Dignity of American Political Thought 192

Power After Power: Reflections on Liberalism in Sheldon Wolin's Politics and Vision 207

Part 3. Theory and Practice

- On Time and History 229
On Political Illegitimacy 240
Civil Disobedience and Contemporary Constitutionalism:
The American Case 265
The Case for Censorship, Rightly Understood 286
Equality and Citizenship: The Rights of Man and the Rights of Women 293
Honor in Contemporary American Politics 319

Part 4. Democracy as a Moral Enterprise

- Democracy as Means and End 329
The Search for a Public Philosophy 336
Toward Genuine Self-Government 353
Democratic Multiculturalism 361
Critical Rebound: Why America Needs a Catholic Recovery 371
Religion, Morality, and Public Life 380
Index 399