

Contents

List of tables and figures	v
Notes on contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xiv
one Introduction	1
Guðný Björk Eydal and Tine Rostgaard
Theme 1: Fathers, families and family policies
two Fathering: the influence of ideational factors for male fertility behaviour	23
Tine Rostgaard and Rasmus Juul Moberg
three Nordic family law: new framework – new fatherhoods	53
Hrefna Friðriksdóttir
four Fathers' rights to family cash benefits in Nordic countries	79
Mia Hakovirta, Anita Haataja, Guðný Björk Eydal and Tine Rostgaard
Theme 2: Fathers in everyday life – culture, work and care
five Time use of Finnish fathers – do institutions matter?	103
Minna Ylikännö, Hannu Pääkkönen and Mia Hakovirta
six Parental leave and classed fathering practices in Norway	121
Berit Brandth and Elin Kvande
seven Negotiating leave in the workplace: leave practices and masculinity constructions among Danish fathers	141
Lotte Bloksgaard
eight Gender regime, attitudes towards childcare and actual involvement in childcare among fathers	163
Mikael Nordenmark
Theme 3: Constructing fatherhood in different family settings
nine Fathering as a learning process: breaking new ground in familiar territory	187
Steen Baagøe Nielsen and Allan Westerling
ten Minority ethnic men and fatherhood in a Danish context	209
Anika Liversage
eleven Making space for fatherhood in gay men's lives in Norway	231
Arnfinn J. Andersen

twelve	The long-term impacts of early paternal involvement in childcare in Denmark: what happens after nuclear family dissolution Mai Heide Ottosen	251
Theme 4: Caring fathers and paid parental leave policies
thirteen	The coming and going of the father's quota in Denmark: consequences for fathers' parental leave take-up Tine Rostgaard and Mette Lausten	277
fourteen	Policy goals and obstacles for fathers' parental leave in Finland Minna Salmi and Johanna Lammi-Taskula	303
fifteen	Caring fathers and parental leave in prosperous times and times of crisis: the case of Iceland Guðný Björk Eydal and Ingólfur V. Gíslason	325
sixteen	Parental leave use for different fathers: a study of the impact of three Swedish parental leave reforms Ann-Zofie Duvander and Mats Johansson	349
Theme 5: International reflections on findings
seventeen	Parental leave and fathers: extending and deepening the knowledge base Janet Gornick	375
eighteen	Nordic fathers: tracking diversity and complexity Margaret O'Brien	387
Conclusions
	Conclusions: 'What is constructed can be transformed' Guðný Björk Eydal and Tine Rostgaard	395
	Index	401