

Contents

|                            |    |
|----------------------------|----|
| List of figures and tables | v  |
| About the contributors     | vi |

|     |  |   |
|-----|--|---|
| one | The analysis of youth participation in contemporary literature: a European perspectiveVirginie Muniglia, Morena Cuconato, Patricia Loncle and Andreas Walther | i |
|-----|--|---|

Part One: Same word, same meaning? Participating in a changing world

|       |   |    |
|-------|---|----|
| two   | Youth participation: strong discourses, weak policies – a general perspectivePatricia Loncle, Pat Leahy, Virginie Muniglia and Andreas Walther         | 21 |
| three | Participation and individualisation: the emergence of a new (political) consciousness?Reingard Spannring   | 39 |
| four  | Informal education in an historical perspective: between an instrument of social education and a socioeducational practiceFilip Coussée and Tony Jeffs | 57 |

Part Two: National and local policies for youth participation

|       |   |     |
|-------|---|-----|
| five  | Celebrating pluralism: beyond established forms of youth participationLasse Siurala and Heini Turkia   | 77  |
| six   | Youth participation in the framework of the reformulation of local youth policies in ItalyMorena Cuconato, Nicola De Luigi and Alessandro Martelli | 93  |
| seven | Barriers to participation within a recessionary state: impediments confronting Irish youthPat Leahy and Paul Burgess                               | 109 |
| eight | Youth participation and local social and youth policies in SpainLourdes Gaitán   | 125 |

Part Three: Extending spaces of participation

|      |  |     |
|------|--|-----|
| nine | Interplay of youth culture, Web 2.0 and political participation in Europe: new reflections after the 'youth quake' in Northern Africa and the Middle EastMorena Cuconato and Natalia Waechter | 143 |
|------|--|-----|

|  |   |     |
|--|---|-----|
| ten  | Young people and online civic participation: key findings from a pan-European research projectShakuntala Banaji and David Buckingham                         | 159 |
| eleven                                       | Young people and mental health: when ICT becomes a tool of participation in public health in FinlandCamilla Granholm   | 173 |
| Part Four: Participation and learning |   |     |
| twelve                                       | Learning to participate or participating to learn?Andreas Walther  | 189 |
| thirteen                                     | Pupils' participation in French secondary schools: the interplay between tradition and innovationValérie Becquet   | 207 |
| Part Five: Outlook and conclusions    |   |     |
| fourteen                                     | Participation or non-participation? Getting beyond dichotomies by applying an ideology-critical, a comparative and a biographical perspectiveAndreas Walther | 227 |
| Afterword                                    | Dynamic and socially embedded: biographies of participation in youthGill Jones   | 245 |
| Index  |   | 255 |