

Contents

List of figures and photographs	vii
Foreword	viii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Notes on contributors	xi
one Introduction	I
Bogusia Temple and Rhetta Moran
two Refugees as researchers: experiences from the project	21
'Bridges and fences: paths to refugee integration in the EU'
Elizabeth Mestheneos
three Limited exchanges: approaches to involving people	37
who do not speak English in research and service
development
Bogusia Temple and Rosalind Edwards
four Breaking the silence: participatory research	55
processes about health with Somali refugee people
seeking asylum
Rhetta Moran, Zeinab Mohamed and Hermione Lovel
five Home/lessness as an indicator of integration: interviewing	75
refugees about the meaning of home and accommodation
Priya Kissoon
six The community leader, the politician and the policeman:	97
a personal perspective
Manawar Jan-Khan
seven Complexity and community empowerment in	111
regeneration, 2002-04
Felicity Greenham with Rhetta Moran
eight Refugee voices as evidence in policy and practice	133
Kirsteen Tait

nine	Challenging barriers to participation in qualitative research: involving disabled refugees Jennifer Harris and Keri Roberts	155
ten	Why religion matters M. Louise Pirouet	167
eleven	Action learning: a research approach that helped me to rediscover my integrity Anna Maria Miwanda Bagenda	183
	Appendix: Guidelines funded through the Economic and Social Research Council Seminar Series 'Eliciting the views of refugee people seeking asylum'	203
	Index	207