

Contents

Preface xiii

PART I: THE NATURE OF SOCIOLOGY

1 The Discipline of Sociology 1

What Is Sociology? 2

Sociology Is an Academic Discipline 2

Sociology Focuses on Our Social World 3

Sociology Asks Three Questions 3

Sociology Focuses on Five Topics 4

Sociology Is a Scientific Discipline 5

The Meaning of Sociology: A Summary 8

The Beginnings of Sociology 8

Science Was an Inspiration ... 8

And So Were the Problems of Industrialization ... 9

And the Need to Understand Revolution ... 9

As Well as Experiences with Other Peoples and Societies ... 9

And a Climate for New Ideas Arose 10

The Development of Sociology 10

Conclusion and Summary 12

Questions to Consider 13

Recommended Reading 13

2 Sociology as a Perspective: How Sociologists Think 17

Humans Are Social Beings 18

Humans Exist Within Social Patterns 19

Humans Are Socialized 20

Durkheim: The Study of Suicide 22

Durkheim's Theory 23

Durkheim's Evidence 23

Extending His Theory 24

Durkheim's Influence 26

Sociology: A Summary 27

Questions to Consider 27

References	27
Recommended Reading	28

3 Humans Are Embedded in Social Organization 31

Organization Begins with Social Action	31
Mutual Social Action Is Social Interaction	33
Social Organization Is Patterned Social Interaction	34
The Forms of Social Organization	36
Dyads Are Twos	36
Groups Are More	37
Formal Organizations Write Down Their Rules	38
Communities Are Self-Sufficient Units of Organization	39
Societies Are the Most Inclusive Form of Organization	40
Social Organization Seems to Sit Right on Top of US	41
Questions to Consider	43
References	43
Recommended Reading	43

4 Social Structure 47

We All Fill Positions in Social Structure	47
Roles Are Attached to Positions	49
Roles Are Not as Simple as a Script in a Play	50
Status Positions Form Our Identities	52
Positions Are Unequal	54
Unequal Power	56
Unequal Prestige	56
Unequal Privileges	57
Our Positions Also Give Us Our Perspectives	58
Summary: The Meaning and Importance of Structure	59
Questions to Consider	59
References	59
Recommended Reading	60

PART II: THE NATURE OF SOCIAL ORGANIZATION

5 Inequality in Society 63

The Meaning of Social Class	66
Gender and Race	67
Class, Race, and Gender Structures Are Special Social Structures	68

	Social Stratification Affects Placement in Other Social Organizations	69
	The Origin of Social Stratification Systems	70
	Social Mobility	71
	Structural Change	72
	Marx's View of Social Stratification	73
	Summary	74
	Questions to Consider	75
	References	75
	Recommended Reading	75
6	Culture	81
	Culture Is a Shared Perspective on the World	81
	Culture Is Learned	82
	Culture Is a Social Inheritance	82
	Culture Is a Body of "Truth"	83
	Culture Is a Set of Values	85
	Values Are Reflected in Action	86
	There Is an American Value System, but It Is Complex and Often Inconsistent	87
	Culture Is a Set of Goals	88
	Culture Is a Set of Norms	89
	Culture, Subculture, and Counterculture	90
	Culture Is Important	91
	The Real Significance of Culture: The Social Construction of Reality	91
	Summary	92
	Questions to Consider	92
	References	93
	Recommended Reading	93
7	Social Institutions	97
	Institutions Are Social Patterns	97
	Social Institutions Are the Most Central Grooves in Society	98
	Institutions Are the Central Ways a Society Functions and Solves Its Ongoing Problems	98
	Institutions Are Widely Accepted and Deeply Entrenched	99
	Social Institutions Are Real Forces Working on Actors	101
	The Meaning of Institutions: A Summary	102
	Institutions Are Important	104
	Institutionalization and Deinstitutionalization	105
	The Rejection of Social Institutions	105

- Summary 106
- Questions to Consider 107
- References 107
- Recommended Reading 107
- 8 Organizations, Societies, and Globalization 111
 - Social Organizations Influence Each Other 111
 - Society in the World Order 113
 - Karl Marx: A Future Worldwide Capitalist Order* 113
 - Immanuel Wallerstein: Core Societies, Semi-Peripheral Societies, and Peripheral Societies* 114
 - Globalization in the Twenty-First Century: Economic, Political, and Cultural 115
 - The Meaning of Globalization* 115
 - Economic Globalization* 116
 - Cultural Globalization* 117
 - Political Globalization* 117
 - The Criticisms of Globalization* 118
 - Conclusion and Summary 119
 - Questions to Consider 119
 - References 120
 - Recommended Reading 120

PART III: ORDER AND POWER IN SOCIAL ORGANIZATION

- 9 Social Order, Social Control, and Social Deviance 123
 - Social Order Is Established Through Structure and Culture 124
 - Social Order Depends on Working Institutions 126
 - Social Order Depends on Socialization 127
 - Loyalty to the Organization Is the Fifth Foundation for Social Order 129
 - Social Controls Contribute to Social Order 131
 - Social Deviance 132
 - Summary 134
 - Questions to Consider 135
 - References 136
 - Recommended Reading 136
- 10 Social Power 139
 - The Meaning of Social Power 139
 - Three Definitions of Power* 139

Resources and Social Power	140
Influence, Control, and Powerlessness	140
Authority	141
The Inevitability of Inequality in Organization	142
Class Position and Power	143
Organization as Power	144
Three Theories of Power	145
Pluralism	145
The Power Elite	146
The Corporate Elite	147
Summary	148
Questions to Consider	149
References	149
Recommended Reading	150

PART IV: THE DYNAMIC NATURE OF HUMAN SOCIAL LIFE

11	Symbols, Self, and Mind: Our Active Nature	153
	Individuality and Freedom	154
	How Can We Explain Individuality?	155
	The Origin of Human Freedom	156
	Human Beings Are Symbol Users	156
	The Meaning of Symbols	157
	The Importance of Symbols	158
	Symbols and Freedom	159
	We Possess Self and Mind	159
	Summary	161
	Questions to Consider	162
	Recommended Reading	163
12	Social Change	165
	Individual Change and Social Change	165
	Acts of Individuals and Groups Change Organization	166
	Social Conflict Changes Organization	169
	External Social Organizations and Environments
	Change Social Organization	170
	Technology Changes Social Organization	172
	Changes in Population Change Social Organization	174
	Change in Social Patterns Causes Change in Other Social Patterns	175

Summary	176
Questions to Consider	177
References	177
Recommended Reading	177

13 The Family in Society 181

The Importance of the Family to Sociology	181
Meaning of the Family	182
Is the Family Universal?	182
Why Is Definition Difficult?	183
The Family: A Primary Group in a Household	183
The Family: The Socialization Function	184
The Family: Economic and Social Functions	184
The Family: The Social Class Placement Function	184
The Family: The Expressive Function	185
The Meaning of the Family: A Summary	185
Marriage as an Institution	185
The Changing Structure of Marriage	187
Marital Satisfaction	188
Divorce	189
Children and Socialization in the Family	190
Individual Choice and the Changing Family	191
Summary	192
Questions to Consider	193
References	193
Recommended Reading	194

14 Religion, Society, and the Individual 197

The Industrial Revolution: Religion and the Beginning of Sociology	197
Auguste Comte (1798–1857): The Death of the Sacred	198
Ferdinand Toennies (1855–1936): Religion and Community	199
Karl Marx (1818–1883): Religion as the Opiate of the Masses	200
Emile Durkheim (1858–1917): Meaning and Function of Religion	201
Religion and the Creation of the Sacred	201
Religion's Creation and Function Is Social	201
Religion Creates and Upholds the Morality of Society	202
Religion Is Important for the Individual	202
The Future of Society	203
Max Weber (1864–1920): Religion, the Rationalization of Life, and Social Change	203
The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism: Religious Thought Influences Economic Action	203

Rationalization of Life and the Future of Religion	204
Charismatic Authority and the Role of Religion in Social Change	205
Weber: A Summary	205

The Heritage of Sociology from the Early Sociologists: Conclusion	205
---	-----

The Study of Religion in the Late-Modern World	206
--	-----

Secularization: Is Religion Becoming Less Important Today?	206
---	-----

The Role of Fundamentalism	208
-----------------------------------	-----

Organized Religion and Individual Spirituality	209
---	-----

Summary: The Sociology of Religion	210
------------------------------------	-----

Questions to Consider	211
-----------------------	-----

References	211
------------	-----

Recommended Reading	212
---------------------	-----

PART V: CONCLUSION

15 The Meaning and Uses of Sociology 215

The Uses of Sociology	217
-----------------------	-----

Questions to Consider	219
-----------------------	-----

Reference	219
-----------	-----

Recommended Reading	219
---------------------	-----

Index	221
-------	-----