

Contents

Preface	vii
Abbreviations	ix
1 Introduction	1
2 Inter-governmental Organizations and Preventing Conflicts: Political Practice Since the End of the Cold War Klaas van Walraven	19
3 Humanitarian and Conflict-oriented Early Warning: A Historical Background Sketch Howard Adelman	45
4 Difficulties in Early Warning: Networking and Conflict Management Howard Adelman	51
5 Acting Early: Detection, Receptivity, Prevention and Sustainability. Reflecting on the First Post-Cold War Period Peter Wallensteen	83
6 From Information to Political Action: Some Political Prerequisites Ruddy Doom	101
7 Early Warning and Conflict Prevention: The Role of the United Nations James S. Sutterlin	121
8 Prospects for a Division of Labour: African Regional Organizations in Conflict Prevention Gilbert M. Khadiagala	131

9	Peace-Building and African Organizations: Towards Subcontracting or a New and Sustainable Division of Labour? Timothy M. Shaw, Sandra J. MacLean and Katie Orr	149
10	Conclusions	163
	Appendix Debating Early Warning and Conflict Prevention	175
	Bibliography	187
	Index	199
	About the Authors	203