

Contents

Notes on contributors

page vii

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| | Introduction | 1 |
| | Mark Elliott and David Feldman | |
| 1 | The distinctiveness of public law | 17 |
| | David Feldman | |
| 2 | The politics of public law | 37 |
| | David Howarth | |
| 3 | The rule of law in public law | 56 |
| | Jeremy Waldron | |
| 4 | Legislative supremacy in a multidimensional constitution | 73 |
| | Mark Elliott | |
| 5 | The politics of accountability | 96 |
| | Tony Wright | |
| 6 | Rights and democracy in UK public law | 116 |
| | Aileen McHarg | |
| 7 | Public law values in the common law | 134 |
| | Mark Aronson | |
| 8 | Public law and public laws | 153 |
| | Paul Craig | |
| 9 | Public law and privatisation | 172 |
| | A.C.L. Davies | |
| 10 | State architecture: subsidiarity, devolution, federalism and independence | 193 |
| | Christopher McCrudden | |

| | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 11 | Soft law never dies Richard Rawlings | 215 |
| 12 | The impact of public law litigation Maurice Sunkin | 236 |
| 13 | Designing and operating constitutions in global context Cheryl Saunders | 256 |
| | Index | 275 |