

---

Contents

|                                                                 |              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| Preface.....                                             | V     |
| Contents .....                                           | VII   |
| Bibliography .....                                       | XXVII |
| Abbreviations .....                                      | XLIX  |
| Chapter 1 Introduction.....                              | 1     |
| § 1 Arbitration as a particular form of dispute resolution..... | 1            |
| I. The concept of arbitration.....                              | 1            |
| II. The sources of arbitration .....                            | 3            |
| 1. Priority of party autonomy .....                             | 3            |
| 2. Rules of arbitration .....                                   | 3            |
| 3. National law .....                                           | 5            |
| 4. Treaties .....                                               | 6            |
| III. Ad hoc v. institutional arbitration .....                  | 6            |
| 1. Advantages and disadvantages .....                           | 7            |
| 2. Arbitral institutions and their sets of rules .....          | 8            |
| a. International arbitration rules .....                        | 8            |
| b. Domestic arbitration rules .....                             | 11           |
| IV. Types of arbitration.....                                   | 12           |
| 1. Commercial arbitration.....                                  | 12           |
| 2. IP/IT-arbitration.....                                       | 12           |
| 3. Investment (treaty) arbitration .....                        | 13           |
| 4. Dispute resolution between States .....                      | 15           |
| a. The Permanent Court of Arbitration at The Hague .....        | 15           |
| b. OSCE Court of Conciliation and Arbitration .....             | 17           |
| c. WTO Settlement of Disputes.....                              | 18           |
| d. Other dispute resolution rules.....                          | 19           |
| 5. Arbitration within associations or federations .....         | 19           |

|                  |                                                        |           |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| a.               | The concept .....                                      | 19        |
| b.               | Jurisdiction .....                                     | 20        |
| c.               | Guarantee for independence .....                       | 20        |
| § 2              | On the sources of Swiss arbitration law .....          | 24        |
| I.               | National and international arbitration .....           | 24        |
| II.              | CCP, Part 3 and its ancestor .....                     | 25        |
| 1.               | Introductory remarks .....                             | 25        |
| 2.               | Scope of application .....                             | 26        |
| 3.               | Characteristic elements of CCP, Part 3 .....           | 28        |
| III.             | PILS, Chap.12 .....                                    | 29        |
| 1.               | On the evolution of PILS, Chap.12 .....                | 29        |
| 2.               | Characteristic elements of PILS, Chap.12 .....         | 30        |
| 3.               | Constitutional basis .....                             | 32        |
| 4.               | Scope of application of PILS, Chap.12 .....            | 33        |
| a.               | Territorial scope (ratione loci) .....                 | 33        |
| b.               | Personal scope (ratione personae) .....                | 34        |
| c.               | Subject-matter scope (ratione materiae) .....          | 35        |
| d.               | Relation to other ADR methods (functional) .....       | 36        |
| e.               | Agreement to exclude PILS, Chap.12 (opting out) .....  | 36        |
| f.               | Agreement to apply PILS, Chap.12 (opting in) .....     | 38        |
| g.               | Reservations and ancillary provisions .....            | 39        |
| h.               | Transitional provisions (ratione temporis) .....       | 40        |
| IV.              | Treaties .....                                         | 42        |
| 1.               | New York Convention of 1958 .....                      | 42        |
| 2.               | Geneva Protocol and Geneva Convention of 1923/27 ..... | 44        |
| 3.               | Bilateral treaties .....                               | 45        |
| 4.               | ICSID Convention of 1965 .....                         | 45        |
| 5.               | European Convention of 1961 .....                      | 47        |
| V.               | Switzerland's standing as a place of arbitration ..... | 48        |
| § 3              | Other forms of private dispute resolution .....        | 50        |
| I.               | Expert determination .....                             | 50        |
| II.              | Conciliation and mediation .....                       | 54        |
| 1.               | Introduction .....                                     | 54        |
| 2.               | Types .....                                            | 55        |
| 3.               | Mediation .....                                        | 58        |
| Chapter 2 | On the Authority of Arbitral Tribunals .....    | 61 |
| § 4              | Arbitrability .....                                    | 61        |
| I.               | General remarks .....                                  | 61        |
| II.              | Applicable law .....                                   | 63        |

|       |                                                                          |     |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1.    | Before the arbitral tribunal.....                                        | 63  |
| 2.    | Before state courts .....                                                | 64  |
| a.    | In proceedings concerning a substantive claim before court .....         | 64  |
| b.    | In setting aside proceedings.....                                        | 65  |
| c.    | In recognition and enforcement proceedings.....                          | 66  |
| III.  | Possible approaches to the problem .....                                 | 67  |
| IV.   | Arbitrability in proceedings under PILS, Chap.12.....                    | 68  |
| 1.    | Legal nature.....                                                        | 69  |
| 2.    | Notion of “dispute of financial interest” .....                          | 69  |
| 3.    | Relationship with other provisions on jurisdiction .....                 | 71  |
| 4.    | Particular issues.....                                                   | 73  |
| a.    | Family and inheritance law .....                                         | 73  |
| b.    | Intellectual property law.....                                           | 74  |
| c.    | Competition and antitrust law .....                                      | 74  |
| d.    | Arbitrability in sports-related matters.....                             | 76  |
| e.    | “Unenforceable claims” (Naturalobligationen) .....                       | 77  |
| f.    | Debt collection and bankruptcy.....                                      | 78  |
| g.    | Tenancy relating to residential property .....                           | 79  |
| h.    | Employment.....                                                          | 80  |
| i.    | Consumer contracts.....                                                  | 81  |
| j.    | Arbitrability and corruption.....                                        | 82  |
| V.    | Arbitrability in domestic arbitration.....                               | 83  |
| 1.    | General principle .....                                                  | 83  |
| 2.    | Applicable law.....                                                      | 85  |
| VI.   | Review of arbitrability .....                                            | 86  |
| VII.  | When to raise a plea of lack of arbitrability .....                      | 87  |
| VIII. | Arbitrability and public policy .....                                    | 88  |
| IX.   | Consequences of lack of arbitrability.....                               | 90  |
| § 5   | The arbitration agreement: cornerstone of the arbitral proceedings ..... | 91  |
| I.    | Notion and terminology .....                                             | 91  |
| II.   | Object of the arbitration agreement .....                                | 93  |
| 1.    | Salient features (essentialia) .....                                     | 93  |
| a.    | Referral to an arbitral tribunal .....                                   | 94  |
| b.    | Description of the dispute (determination) .....                         | 97  |
| 2.    | Other essential elements .....                                           | 98  |
| 3.    | Additional understandings .....                                          | 100 |
| III.  | Legal nature .....                                                       | 103 |
| 1.    | Legal writing .....                                                      | 103 |
| 2.    | Case law .....                                                           | 104 |
| IV.   | Applicable law .....                                                     | 105 |
| 1.    | Before the arbitral tribunal.....                                        | 106 |

|                                                                       |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 2. Before courts .....                                                | 107 |
| a. Before the state court at the place of arbitration .....           | 107 |
| b. In proceedings concerning a substantive claim before court .....   | 107 |
| i. Introduction .....                                                 | 107 |
| ii. Form of the arbitration agreement .....                           | 108 |
| iii. Substance of the arbitration agreement .....                     | 109 |
| iv. Degree of review .....                                            | 110 |
| c. In setting aside proceedings .....                                 | 114 |
| d. In recognition and enforcement proceedings .....                   | 114 |
| V. Conditions of validity .....                                       | 115 |
| 1. Arbitrability ratione personae .....                        | 115 |
| a. Legal capacity and the capacity to be a party .....                | 116 |
| b. Capacity to be a party v. standing to sue and to be sued .....     | 118 |
| c. Capacity to act and to conduct legal proceedings .....             | 121 |
| d. Authority to initiate and conduct the arbitration .....            | 123 |
| e. The State as a party to arbitral proceedings .....                 | 124 |
| i. Content and purpose of PILS, Art.177(2) .....                      | 124 |
| ii. Legitimate expectations and good faith .....                      | 125 |
| iii. Lack of capacity to be a party to the arbitration .....          | 126 |
| iv. Lack of arbitrability .....                                       | 127 |
| v. State immunity from jurisdiction .....                             | 128 |
| vi. Plea alleging a special status under international law .....      | 128 |
| vii. Relationship to NYC, Art.V(1)(a) .....                           | 129 |
| 2. Arbitrability ratione materiae .....                        | 129 |
| 3. Consent to arbitrate .....                                         | 130 |
| a. Conflict of laws rule in favorem validitatis .....          | 130 |
| b. Issues not covered by the rule in favorem validitatis ..... | 131 |
| c. The three alternatives under PILS, Art.178(2) .....                | 132 |
| i. The law chosen to govern the arbitration agreement .....           | 132 |
| ii. The law applicable to the main contract .....                     | 133 |
| iii. Swiss substantive law .....                                      | 134 |
| d. Relationship between PILS, Art.178(2) and NYC, Art.V(1)(a) .....   | 135 |
| e. Absence of any rules for domestic arbitration .....                | 136 |
| 4. Form of arbitration agreement .....                                | 137 |
| a. Significance of mandatory requirements of form .....               | 137 |
| b. The NYC as a lodestar for requirements of form .....               | 137 |
| c. Requirement of form under PILS, Chap.12 .....                      | 138 |
| i. Content of PILS, Art.178(1) .....                                  | 138 |
| ii. Relationship to NYC, Art.II(2) .....                              | 142 |
| iii. Elements to be covered by the requirement of form .....          | 143 |
| d. Requirement of form under CCP, Part 3 .....                        | 144 |
| e. Requirements of form agreed upon by the parties .....              | 145 |

|      |                                                                                                   |     |
|------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
|      | f. Waiver of the plea of lack of form .....                                                       | 146 |
|      | g. Need for revision of PILS, Art.178(1) and CCP, Art.358?.....                                   | 146 |
| 5.   | Specific problems of validity.....                                                                | 147 |
|      | a. Conclusion of arbitration agreement by agents .....                                            | 147 |
|      | b. Conclusion of arbitration agreement by reference.....                                          | 151 |
|      | i. Compliance with requirement of form .....                                                      | 151 |
|      | ii. Consent to arbitrate .....                                                                    | 152 |
|      | iii. Relationship to FC, Art.30(2).....                                                           | 154 |
|      | c. Arbitration clauses in articles of association .....                                           | 155 |
|      | d. Arbitration by unilateral disposition.....                                                     | 157 |
| VI.  | Interpretation of arbitration agreement .....                                                     | 160 |
|      | 1. Application of general principles of contract law .....                                        | 160 |
|      | 2. Specific standards of interpretation for arbitration agreements .....                          | 162 |
|      | a. Restrictive interpretation of formation and conclusion.....                                    | 163 |
|      | b. Liberal interpretation of content and scope .....                                              | 164 |
|      | 3. Pathological arbitration agreements.....                                                       | 166 |
| VII. | Effects of arbitration agreement.....                                                             | 166 |
|      | 1. Exclusion of jurisdiction of the courts .....                                                  | 166 |
|      | 2. Subject-matter scope of application (ratione materiae).....                                    | 168 |
|      | a. General remarks .....                                                                          | 168 |
|      | b. Party autonomy .....                                                                           | 169 |
|      | c. Contractual claims.....                                                                        | 170 |
|      | d. Culpa in contrahendo; liability based on trust .....                                           | 172 |
|      | e. Extra-contractual claims.....                                                                  | 173 |
|      | f. Plurality of contracts .....                                                                   | 174 |
|      | i. Extension of arbitration clause in one contract to claimsarising from other contracts..... | 175 |
|      | ii. Cumulation of claims arising from a plurality of contracts .                                  | 176 |
|      | g. Set-off defences.....                                                                          | 178 |
|      | h. Counterclaims .....                                                                            | 181 |
|      | i. Jurisdiction to hear claims for damages for breach ofarbitration agreement.....            | 183 |
|      | 3. Personal scope of application (ratione personae).....                                          | 184 |
|      | a. General issues.....                                                                            | 184 |
|      | b. Universal succession .....                                                                     | 186 |
|      | c. Singular succession .....                                                                      | 187 |
|      | i. Assignment of claim .....                                                                      | 187 |
|      | ii. Assumption of debt.....                                                                       | 192 |
|      | iii. Assignment of contract .....                                                                 | 192 |
|      | d. Arbitration agreement in favour of a third party.....                                          | 193 |
|      | e. Extension of arbitration agreement to “non-signatories” .....                                  | 196 |
|      | f. Piercing the corporate veil.....                                                               | 199 |

|                                                                              |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| g. No application of group of companies doctrine.....                        | 200 |
| h. Joint parties and joinder .....                                           | 201 |
| i. Third-party notice and intervention .....                                 | 202 |
| j. Third-party action and intervention claim .....                           | 203 |
| 4. Temporal scope of application (ratione temporis) .....                    | 204 |
| 5. Consolidation of arbitral proceedings.....                                | 205 |
| 6. Impacts of bankruptcy and composition proceedings.....                    | 207 |
| VIII. Invalidity of arbitration agreement .....                              | 209 |
| 1. Defects of form.....                                                      | 210 |
| 2. Defects in the conclusion.....                                            | 210 |
| 3. Defects as to content.....                                                | 211 |
| 4. Consequences of invalidity.....                                           | 213 |
| a. Nullity .....                                                             | 213 |
| b. Partial nullity .....                                                     | 213 |
| IX. Termination of arbitration agreement .....                               | 214 |
| 1. Revocation by agreement .....                                             | 214 |
| 2. Conditions and term-limitations .....                                     | 216 |
| 3. Termination as a result of subsequent impossibility .....                 | 217 |
| 4. Unilateral termination.....                                               | 218 |
| 5. Effects of termination .....                                              | 221 |
| § 6 Jurisdiction despite absence or invalidity of arbitration agreement..... | 222 |
| I. Unconditional appearance.....                                             | 222 |
| 1. Entering an appearance as a procedural act .....                          | 222 |
| 2. No need to comply with any requirements of form .....                     | 223 |
| 3. Admissibility of entering an appearance.....                              | 224 |
| 4. Applicable law.....                                                       | 225 |
| 5. Requirements.....                                                         | 226 |
| a. Claim before an arbitral tribunal that lacks jurisdiction .....           | 226 |
| b. Pendency of claim .....                                                   | 226 |
| c. Conduct constituting entry of appearance .....                            | 227 |
| 6. Legal consequences and effects.....                                       | 230 |
| 7. Relationship to NYC, Art.II.....                                          | 231 |
| II. Conduct contrary to the duty to act in good faith.....                   | 233 |
| § 7 Competence-competence and autonomy of arbitration agreement.....         | 235 |
| I. Concepts and interdependence.....                                         | 235 |
| II. Competence-competence .....                                              | 236 |
| 1. Content and scope.....                                                    | 236 |
| 2. Legal consequences .....                                                  | 239 |
| III. Autonomy of arbitration agreement.....                                  | 241 |
| 1. Principle .....                                                           | 241 |
| 2. Restrictions.....                                                         | 242 |

|                  |                                                                    |            |
|------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| § 8              | The decision on jurisdiction .....                                 | 245        |
| I.               | Introduction .....                                                 | 245        |
| II.              | Requirements for jurisdiction .....                                | 245        |
| III.             | Examination of jurisdiction by arbitral tribunals .....            | 246        |
| 1.               | No examination ex officio .....                                    | 246        |
| 2.               | Limited examination ex officio in default proceedings .....        | 247        |
| 3.               | Plea of lack of jurisdiction .....                                 | 247        |
| 4.               | Scope of examination .....                                         | 249        |
| 5.               | Stay of the decision on jurisdiction .....                         | 250        |
| 6.               | Examination of jurisdiction as a preliminary question .....        | 250        |
| 7.               | Decision on jurisdiction at a later stage of the proceedings ..... | 253        |
| IV.              | Examination of jurisdiction by Swiss courts .....                  | 254        |
| V.               | Effects of the decision on jurisdiction .....                      | 256        |
| 1.               | Arbitral award declining jurisdiction .....                        | 256        |
| 2.               | Arbitral award accepting jurisdiction .....                        | 257        |
| 3.               | Binding effect of the decision on jurisdiction .....               | 258        |
| a.               | Negative decisions on jurisdiction .....                           | 258        |
| b.               | Positive decisions on jurisdiction .....                           | 259        |
| c.               | Decisions of state courts providing judicial assistance .....      | 260        |
| VI.              | Judicial control over decisions on jurisdiction .....              | 261        |
| 1.               | Arbitral awards on jurisdiction .....                              | 261        |
| 2.               | Court decisions on jurisdiction .....                              | 262        |
| Chapter 3 | The Arbitral Tribunal .....                                 | 265 |
| § 9              | Seat of the arbitration .....                                      | 265        |
| I.               | Concept of the seat .....                                          | 265        |
| II.              | Relevance of the seat .....                                        | 265        |
| 1.               | Localisation of the arbitration .....                              | 265        |
| 2.               | Localisation of arbitral awards .....                              | 267        |
| III.             | Determination of the seat .....                                    | 268        |
| 1.               | Determination by agreement between the parties .....               | 268        |
| a.               | General principles .....                                           | 268        |
| b.               | Agreements on "arbitration in Switzerland" .....                   | 269        |
| 2.               | Determination absent an agreement of the parties .....             | 271        |
| a.               | General principles .....                                           | 271        |
| b.               | Determination by an arbitral institution .....                     | 272        |
| c.               | Determination by another authority .....                           | 273        |
| d.               | Determination by the arbitral tribunal .....                       | 274        |
| IV.              | Relocation of the seat .....                                       | 274        |
| V.               | Venue for meetings and hearings .....                              | 276        |

|      |                                                              |     |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| § 10 | Constitution of the arbitral tribunal .....                  | 278 |
| I.   | Qualifications for the mandate of arbitrator .....           | 278 |
| 1.   | Qualifications agreed between the parties .....              | 279 |
| 2.   | Independence and impartiality .....                          | 280 |
| a.   | General remarks .....                                        | 280 |
| b.   | Standards applicable in Switzerland .....                    | 282 |
| c.   | No lesser standards for party-appointed arbitrators .....    | 284 |
| d.   | Consequences of engagement in settlement discussions .....   | 285 |
| e.   | Consequences of procedural failures .....                    | 286 |
| II.  | Appointment of arbitrators .....                             | 286 |
| 1.   | Party autonomy .....                                         | 286 |
| 2.   | Appointment by a designated appointing authority .....       | 289 |
| 3.   | Appointment by a state court .....                           | 291 |
| a.   | Absence of any agreement .....                               | 291 |
| b.   | Jurisdiction .....                                           | 293 |
| c.   | Applicable law .....                                         | 295 |
| d.   | Principles of appointment .....                              | 295 |
| e.   | Summary examination of arbitration agreement .....           | 296 |
| 4.   | Appointment in multi-party proceedings .....                 | 298 |
| III. | Judicial control over decisions on appointment .....         | 301 |
| 1.   | Court decisions to appoint arbitrators .....                 | 301 |
| 2.   | Court decisions declining requests for appointment .....     | 302 |
| 3.   | Decisions of private authorities .....                       | 302 |
| § 11 | Challenge of arbitrators .....                               | 304 |
| I.   | Grounds for challenge .....                                  | 304 |
| 1.   | Absence of agreed qualifications .....                       | 304 |
| 2.   | Justifiable doubts as to independence and impartiality ..... | 306 |
| II.  | Challenge of the arbitral tribunal .....                     | 307 |
| III. | The right to challenge .....                                 | 309 |
| 1.   | General principles .....                                     | 309 |
| 2.   | Duty of the parties to act in good faith .....               | 310 |
| 3.   | When to raise a challenge .....                              | 311 |
| a.   | Domestic arbitration .....                                   | 311 |
| b.   | International arbitration .....                              | 313 |
| c.   | Obligation of the parties to make their own enquiries .....  | 314 |
| d.   | Miscellaneous .....                                          | 315 |
| 4.   | Waiver of the right to challenge .....                       | 315 |
| IV.  | The challenge procedure .....                                | 316 |
| 1.   | Priority of party autonomy .....                             | 316 |
| 2.   | Request for challenge .....                                  | 317 |
| 3.   | Decision on the challenge .....                              | 317 |

|      |                                                               |     |
|------|---------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| a.   | Jurisdiction .....                                            | 317 |
| b.   | Time-limit for seising the competent authority .....          | 319 |
| c.   | Applicable rules of procedure .....                           | 319 |
| 4.   | Effects of a challenge on the arbitral proceedings .....      | 320 |
| V.   | Judicial control over decisions on challenge .....            | 321 |
| 1.   | Decisions of a private authority .....                        | 321 |
| 2.   | Court decisions on challenge .....                            | 324 |
| VI.  | Consequences of a challenge .....                             | 325 |
| § 12 | Revocation and removal of arbitrators .....                   | 326 |
| I.   | Revocation .....                                              | 326 |
| II.  | Removal .....                                                 | 327 |
| § 13 | Resignation of an arbitrator .....                            | 331 |
| I.   | Admissibility and conditions of resignation .....             | 331 |
| II.  | Decision on the validity of resignation .....                 | 333 |
| III. | Consequences of resignation .....                             | 333 |
| § 14 | Replacement of an arbitrator .....                            | 336 |
| I.   | Requirements for replacement .....                            | 336 |
| II.  | Replacement procedure .....                                   | 336 |
| III. | Stay of the arbitral proceedings .....                        | 338 |
| IV.  | Decision on repetition of prior proceedings .....             | 338 |
| V.   | Continuation of proceedings without replacement .....         | 340 |
| § 15 | Relationship between arbitrators and parties .....            | 342 |
| I.   | Legal nature .....                                            | 342 |
| 1.   | Contractual basis (receptum arbitri) .....                    | 342 |
| 2.   | Statutory basis .....                                         | 343 |
| II.  | Applicable law .....                                          | 344 |
| III. | Rights and obligations of arbitrators .....                   | 345 |
| 1.   | Duties of care, diligence and expedition .....                | 345 |
| 2.   | Obligation of performance in person .....                     | 346 |
| 3.   | Duty to disclose potential conflicts of interests .....       | 346 |
| 4.   | Adjudication of the dispute .....                             | 348 |
| 5.   | Duty to apply the law .....                                   | 348 |
| 6.   | Determination of arbitral procedure and equal treatment ..... | 349 |
| 7.   | Judicial assistance .....                                     | 349 |
| 8.   | Communications with arbitrators .....                         | 349 |
| 9.   | Confidentiality .....                                         | 350 |
| 10.  | Liability .....                                               | 351 |
| 11.  | Arbitrators' fees .....                                       | 351 |
| 12.  | The role of party representatives .....                       | 353 |
| IV.  | Commencement and termination of relationship .....            | 354 |

|                                                                   |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1. Principle .....                                                | 354        |
| 2. Term of mandate.....                                           | 355        |
| § 16 Secretary and other assistance to the tribunal.....          | 356        |
| I. General .....                                                  | 356        |
| II. Secretary.....                                                | 356        |
| III. Other assistance to the tribunal .....                       | 357        |
| Chapter 4 The Arbitral Procedure .....                     | 359 |
| § 17 Commencement of the arbitration.....                         | 359        |
| I. Recourse to arbitration.....                                   | 359        |
| II. Pendency of proceedings (lis pendens).....                    | 360        |
| 1. Concept and significance.....                                  | 360        |
| 2. Beginning of pendency .....                                    | 361        |
| a. Arbitrator(s) designated in the arbitration agreement.....     | 361        |
| b. Arbitrator(s) not designated in the arbitration agreement..... | 362        |
| c. Decisive point in time.....                                    | 364        |
| III. Preclusive effect of pendency (lis alibi pendens).....       | 365        |
| 1. Introduction .....                                             | 365        |
| 2. Court seised second when arbitral tribunal seised first.....   | 366        |
| a. Arbitral tribunal with seat in Switzerland seised first.....   | 366        |
| b. Arbitral tribunal with seat abroad seised first.....           | 366        |
| 3. Arbitral tribunal seised second when court seised first.....   | 367        |
| a. Foreign court seised first.....                                | 367        |
| b. Court in Switzerland seised first.....                         | 373        |
| 4. Lis pendens between two or more arbitral tribunals .....       | 373        |
| a. Arbitral tribunal with seat abroad seised first.....           | 374        |
| b. Arbitral tribunal with seat in Switzerland seised first.....   | 374        |
| 5. No lis pendens between arbitration and debt enforcement .....  | 375        |
| IV. Further effects of pendency .....                             | 375        |
| 1. Procedural effects .....                                       | 375        |
| 2. Complying with limitation and forfeiture periods .....         | 375        |
| 3. Complying with periods for filing an action.....               | 378        |
| V. Termination of pendency .....                                  | 379        |
| 1. Effect on the lis alibi pendens rule.....                      | 379        |
| 2. Impact on limitation or forfeiture periods.....                | 379        |
| § 18 The proceedings before the arbitral tribunal.....            | 381        |
| I. Organising the proceedings.....                                | 381        |
| 1. Introduction .....                                             | 381        |
| 2. Issues to be determined.....                                   | 382        |
| 3. Format of organizing the proceedings .....                     | 383        |

|      |                                                                        |     |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
|      | a. Agreement between parties and arbitrators .....                     | 383 |
|      | b. Determination by the arbitral tribunal .....                        | 383 |
|      | c. Mixed forms .....                                                   | 384 |
|      | 4. Solutions under selected rules of arbitration .....                 | 384 |
| II.  | Determination of the arbitral procedure .....                          | 385 |
|      | 1. Introduction .....                                                  | 385 |
|      | 2. Determination by the parties .....                                  | 386 |
|      | a. Reference to rules of arbitration .....                             | 388 |
|      | b. Submission to a procedural law of the parties' choice .....         | 389 |
|      | 3. Determination by the arbitral tribunal .....                        | 390 |
| III. | Fundamental procedural guarantees (due process) .....                  | 392 |
|      | 1. General considerations .....                                        | 392 |
|      | a. Statutory basis .....                                               | 392 |
|      | b. Constitutional basis .....                                          | 393 |
|      | c. Contents of the fundamental procedural guarantees .....             | 393 |
|      | d. Mandatory nature .....                                              | 396 |
|      | e. Scope of application .....                                          | 397 |
|      | f. Remedies .....                                                      | 398 |
|      | g. Procedural guarantees in rules of arbitration .....                 | 398 |
|      | 2. Specific aspects of fundamental procedural guarantees .....         | 399 |
|      | a. Presentation of claims and defences .....                           | 399 |
|      | b. Evidentiary issues .....                                            | 400 |
|      | c. Participation in hearings .....                                     | 401 |
|      | d. Access to files .....                                               | 402 |
|      | e. Right to representation .....                                       | 402 |
|      | 3. Duty to act in good faith and waiver .....                          | 404 |
|      | a. Duty to avoid surprises .....                                       | 404 |
|      | b. Duty to promptly state any objections .....                         | 404 |
| IV.  | Focal points in the course of the proceedings .....                    | 406 |
|      | 1. Examination of conditions of admissibility .....                    | 406 |
|      | 2. Language of the arbitration .....                                   | 407 |
|      | 3. Legal representation and assistance .....                           | 408 |
|      | 4. Default .....                                                       | 409 |
|      | 5. Suspension of the arbitration (stay of proceedings) .....           | 411 |
|      | 6. Records and minutes .....                                           | 414 |
|      | 7. Expedited procedure .....                                           | 416 |
|      | 8. Failure of the tribunal to perform its functions (inactivity) ..... | 418 |
| V.   | Selected issues concerning the parties' submissions .....              | 419 |
|      | 1. Relief or remedy sought by the parties (prayers for relief) .....   | 419 |
|      | 2. Amendments or supplements to the claim or defence .....             | 422 |
|      | a. Preliminary remarks .....                                           | 422 |
|      | b. Amendments to the prayers for relief .....                          | 423 |

|                                                                    |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| c. Amendments to the cause of action .....                         | 424 |
| d. New claims .....                                                | 425 |
| 3. Counterclaims and set-off defences .....                        | 426 |
| VI. Judicial assistance by Swiss courts .....                      | 427 |
| VII. Confidentiality .....                                         | 429 |
| § 19 Provisional and conservatory measures .....                   | 432 |
| I. Introduction and overview .....                                 | 432 |
| II. Power of arbitral tribunal to order provisional measures ..... | 434 |
| 1. Party autonomy .....                                            | 434 |
| 2. Scope of application .....                                      | 435 |
| 3. Conditions for granting provisional measures .....              | 436 |
| 4. Applicable procedure .....                                      | 438 |
| 5. Types of provisional measures .....                             | 439 |
| 6. Limits to the power of an arbitral tribunal .....               | 440 |
| 7. No judicial control .....                                       | 442 |
| III. Judicial assistance by Swiss courts .....                     | 442 |
| IV. Power of state courts to order provisional measures .....      | 445 |
| V. Emergency arbitrator .....                                      | 449 |
| VI. Provision of security .....                                    | 451 |
| VII. Recognition and enforcement of provisional measures .....     | 453 |
| 1. Provisional measures ordered by an arbitral tribunal .....      | 453 |
| 2. Provisional measures granted by a state court .....             | 454 |
| § 20 Taking of evidence .....                                      | 456 |
| I. Subject-matter of the taking of evidence .....                  | 456 |
| II. Authority and procedure .....                                  | 457 |
| III. Burden of proof .....                                         | 459 |
| IV. Presentation of evidence .....                                 | 460 |
| 1. Admissibility .....                                             | 460 |
| 2. Timeliness .....                                                | 462 |
| 3. Documents .....                                                 | 462 |
| 4. Witnesses of fact .....                                         | 467 |
| 5. Experts .....                                                   | 470 |
| a. Introduction .....                                              | 470 |
| b. Party-appointed experts .....                                   | 471 |
| c. Tribunal-appointed experts .....                                | 471 |
| 6. Inspections .....                                               | 475 |
| V. Assessment of evidence .....                                    | 476 |
| VI. Judicial assistance by state courts .....                      | 478 |
| § 21 Decision on the merits .....                                  | 482 |
| I. Definition .....                                                | 482 |
| II. Decision in accordance with the law .....                      | 483 |

|      |                                                                 |     |
|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1.   | Prevailing concept .....                                        | 483 |
| 2.   | Development in Switzerland.....                                 | 484 |
| 3.   | Applicable law or rules of law?.....                            | 486 |
| 4.   | The rules of law chosen by the parties.....                     | 488 |
| a.   | The choice of law agreement.....                                | 488 |
| b.   | Content of the reference to the law chosen by the parties ..... | 489 |
| c.   | Scope of the reference to the law chosen by the parties .....   | 491 |
| d.   | Limits of party autonomy .....                                  | 493 |
| 5.   | The rules of law determined by the arbitral tribunal.....       | 493 |
| a.   | Autonomy of the arbitral tribunal.....                          | 493 |
| b.   | Determination of the closest connection.....                    | 494 |
| c.   | Scope of the determination by the arbitral tribunal .....       | 497 |
| 6.   | Mandatory rules (positive public policy).....                   | 497 |
| a.   | Mandatory rules of the lex causae .....                  | 498 |
| b.   | "Foreign" mandatory rules .....                                 | 498 |
| 7.   | Public international law .....                                  | 501 |
| 8.   | Jura novit curia (and arbitrator ).....           | 501 |
| III. | Decision ex aequo et bono .....                          | 504 |
| 1.   | Definition and scope of application .....                       | 504 |
| 2.   | The agreement on a decision ex aequo et bono .....       | 509 |
| IV.  | Provisions of the contract and relevant trade usages.....       | 510 |
| § 22 | The arbitral award .....                                        | 512 |
| I.   | Definition and types of awards .....                            | 512 |
| II.  | Closing and reopening of the proceedings .....                  | 513 |
| III. | Making of the award.....                                        | 513 |
| 1.   | Party autonomy.....                                             | 513 |
| 2.   | Deliberations .....                                             | 514 |
| 3.   | Votes .....                                                     | 516 |
| 4.   | Confidentiality of the deliberations .....                      | 517 |
| 5.   | Failure to participate in the deliberations and votes.....      | 519 |
| IV.  | Form and content of the award .....                             | 520 |
| 1.   | Party autonomy.....                                             | 520 |
| 2.   | Requirements of form.....                                       | 520 |
| 3.   | The reasons upon which the award is based .....                 | 521 |
| 4.   | Date of the award and signatures.....                           | 523 |
| V.   | Dissenting opinions.....                                        | 524 |
| 1.   | Concept.....                                                    | 524 |
| 2.   | Admissibility .....                                             | 525 |
| 3.   | Content, procedure and communication to the parties.....        | 526 |
| 4.   | Effects.....                                                    | 527 |
| VI.  | Notification of the arbitral award.....                         | 528 |

|                                                                  |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Form and procedure.....                                       | 528 |
| 2. Effects.....                                                  | 529 |
| VII. Confidentiality and publication of awards .....             | 530 |
| VIII. Deposit of the award.....                                  | 530 |
| IX. Interpretation and correction; additional award .....        | 532 |
| 1. Objective .....                                               | 532 |
| 2. Admissibility .....                                           | 532 |
| 3. Procedure and time-limits.....                                | 534 |
| 4. Interpretation and correction.....                            | 535 |
| 5. Additional award .....                                        | 538 |
| § 23 Settlement and other grounds for termination .....          | 540 |
| I. Settlement of the dispute.....                                | 540 |
| 1. General remarks.....                                          | 540 |
| 2. Award on agreed terms (consent award) .....                   | 541 |
| a. Requirements.....                                             | 541 |
| b. Form, content and notification .....                          | 541 |
| c. Effects .....                                                 | 542 |
| 3. Order for the termination of the proceedings.....             | 543 |
| 4. Defects in consent.....                                       | 544 |
| II. Acceptance of claim.....                                     | 545 |
| III. Withdrawal of claim .....                                   | 546 |
| IV. Other grounds for the termination of the proceedings.....    | 547 |
| § 24 Costs of arbitration.....                                   | 549 |
| I. Advance to cover the costs of arbitration.....                | 549 |
| 1. Authority of the arbitral tribunal.....                       | 549 |
| 2. Allocation of the deposits between the parties.....           | 550 |
| 3. Consequences of non-payment .....                             | 551 |
| a. Suspension or termination of the arbitration.....             | 551 |
| b. Renunciation of the arbitration.....                          | 552 |
| c. No power to make a default award.....                         | 555 |
| d. Separate award for reimbursement of substitute payment? ..... | 555 |
| 4. Statement of account on deposits received .....               | 556 |
| II. Security for costs (cautio judicatum solvi).....             | 557 |
| 1. General remarks.....                                          | 557 |
| 2. Legal qualification of an order for security for costs .....  | 558 |
| 3. Authority and jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal .....     | 558 |
| 4. Requirements for ordering security for costs .....            | 559 |
| 5. Order or Award? .....                                         | 560 |
| 6. Circumstances justifying security for costs .....             | 560 |
| 7. Determination of the amount of the security .....             | 562 |
| 8. Consequences of non-payment .....                             | 563 |

|                                                                          |            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 9. Security for costs under CCP, Art.379.....                            | 563        |
| III. The decision on costs.....                                          | 564        |
| 1. Authority and jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal.....              | 564        |
| 2. Assessment of arbitration costs .....                                 | 565        |
| 3. Apportionment of arbitration costs .....                              | 566        |
| 4. Determination and allocation of party costs .....                     | 568        |
| 5. Timing of the decision on costs .....                                 | 569        |
| 6. Remedies against the decision on costs .....                          | 570        |
| Chapter 5 The Effects and Limits of Arbitral Awards.....          | 571 |
| § 25 Effects of the award .....                                          | 571        |
| I. Introduction .....                                                    | 571        |
| II. Enforceability of the award.....                                     | 572        |
| III. Conclusive and preclusive effects of the award (res judicata) ..... | 573        |
| 1. Concept and significance.....                                         | 573        |
| 2. Commencement and termination .....                                    | 574        |
| 3. Types of awards with res judicata effects.....                        | 574        |
| 4. Scope and limits of res judicata .....                                | 576        |
| a. Subject-matter scope (ratione materiae).....                          | 576        |
| b. Personal scope (ratione personae) .....                               | 577        |
| c. The dispositive part as the decisive point of reference .....         | 578        |
| d. Further limits of res judicata.....                                   | 579        |
| 5. Consequences of res judicata.....                                     | 579        |
| a. Swiss court v Swiss award .....                                       | 579        |
| b. Swiss court v foreign award .....                                     | 580        |
| c. Swiss arbitral tribunal v Swiss court judgment or award.....          | 581        |
| d. Swiss arbitral tribunal v foreign court judgment .....                | 581        |
| e. Swiss arbitral tribunal v foreign award.....                          | 582        |
| 6. Res judicata and public policy .....                                  | 583        |
| 7. The ILA Report on Res Judicata and Arbitration .....                  | 583        |
| § 26 Setting aside of international arbitral awards .....                | 586        |
| I. Introduction .....                                                    | 586        |
| II. General requirements for challenge .....                             | 586        |
| III. Awards subject to challenge .....                                   | 588        |
| 1. Final awards .....                                                    | 589        |
| 2. Partial awards .....                                                  | 589        |
| 3. Preliminary or interim awards .....                                   | 591        |
| 4. Decisions on applications for provisional measures .....              | 593        |
| 5. Procedural orders.....                                                | 594        |
| IV. Party autonomy.....                                                  | 595        |

|      |                                                              |     |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| V.   | Grounds for annulment .....                                  | 595 |
| 1.   | Irregular composition of the arbitral tribunal.....          | 596 |
| 2.   | Incorrect decision on jurisdiction .....                     | 599 |
| a.   | Scope of application .....                                   | 599 |
| b.   | Relevant point in time for raising the plea and waiver ..... | 601 |
| c.   | Scope of review by the Swiss Federal Tribunal .....          | 601 |
| d.   | Admissibility of requests for declaratory relief .....       | 604 |
| 3.   | Decision beyond claims or failure to answer claims.....      | 605 |
| 4.   | Violation of equal treatment or the right to be heard .....  | 608 |
| a.   | Equal treatment .....                                        | 608 |
| b.   | Right to be heard in adversarial proceedings.....            | 608 |
| i.   | Failure to give reasons .....                                | 610 |
| ii.  | Incorrect establishment of the facts, obvious errors .....   | 610 |
| iii. | Failure to deal with decisive issues .....                   | 611 |
| iv.  | Jura novit curia v. right to be heard.....                   | 612 |
| v.   | Issues of procedure.....                                     | 612 |
| c.   | Relevant point in time for raising the plea and waiver ..... | 612 |
| d.   | Formal nature of the right to be heard .....                 | 613 |
| 5.   | Incompatibility with public policy.....                      | 614 |
| a.   | Background and content of the rule.....                      | 614 |
| b.   | Swiss or universal public policy? .....                      | 616 |
| c.   | Substantive public policy .....                              | 619 |
| i.   | Introduction.....                                            | 619 |
| ii.  | Canon of accepted principles .....                           | 619 |
| iii. | Failure to apply the applicable law.....                     | 620 |
| iv.  | Failure to apply (“foreign”) mandatory rules .....           | 622 |
| v.   | Open issues .....                                            | 624 |
| d.   | Procedural public policy.....                                | 625 |
| i.   | Introduction.....                                            | 625 |
| ii.  | Accepted principles.....                                     | 626 |
| iii. | Declined complaints.....                                     | 627 |
| e.   | No plea against findings of fact.....                        | 628 |
| VI.  | Setting aside proceedings.....                               | 629 |
| 1.   | Competent authority and procedure.....                       | 629 |
| 2.   | Effects of a motion to set aside.....                        | 633 |
| 3.   | Conditions of admissibility.....                             | 634 |
| 4.   | Motion to set aside and parallel request for revision .....  | 637 |
| 5.   | Examination of the case.....                                 | 638 |
| 6.   | Exchange of written submissions .....                        | 638 |
| 7.   | Provisional and conservatory measures .....                  | 639 |
| 8.   | Taking of evidence .....                                     | 640 |
| 9.   | Court costs and party costs .....                            | 640 |

|       |                                                             |     |
|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| VII.  | Decision on the motion to set aside .....                   | 642 |
| 1.    | Unsuccessful challenge.....                                 | 642 |
| 2.    | Successful challenge.....                                   | 643 |
| 3.    | Full or partial annulment .....                             | 644 |
| 4.    | Remand to the same arbitral tribunal.....                   | 644 |
| 5.    | Conclusive effect (no incurably invalid awards) .....       | 645 |
| VIII. | Remedies against decision on motion to set aside .....      | 646 |
| 1.    | Revision.....                                               | 646 |
| 2.    | Interpretation and correction.....                          | 648 |
| IX.   | Waiver of annulment .....                                   | 648 |
| 1.    | Introduction .....                                          | 648 |
| 2.    | Waiver agreement.....                                       | 651 |
| a.    | Applicable law .....                                        | 651 |
| b.    | Personal requirements .....                                 | 651 |
| c.    | Temporal requirements.....                                  | 652 |
| d.    | Requirements of form.....                                   | 653 |
| e.    | Requirement of “express statement” .....                    | 653 |
| f.    | Waiver agreement and arbitration agreement.....             | 656 |
| g.    | Subject-matter scope of waiver .....                        | 657 |
| h.    | Personal scope of waiver .....                              | 658 |
| 3.    | Effects and consequences of waiver .....                    | 660 |
| a.    | Full waiver .....                                           | 660 |
| b.    | Partial waiver .....                                        | 662 |
| X.    | Publicity and publication of judgment .....                 | 663 |
| § 27  | Setting aside of domestic arbitral awards.....              | 664 |
| I.    | Introduction .....                                          | 664 |
| II.   | Awards subject to challenge .....                           | 664 |
| III.  | No waiver of annulment .....                                | 665 |
| IV.   | Grounds for annulment .....                                 | 666 |
| 1.    | Irregular composition of the arbitral tribunal.....         | 666 |
| 2.    | Incorrect decision on jurisdiction .....                    | 666 |
| 3.    | Decision beyond claims or failure to answer claims.....     | 667 |
| 4.    | Violation of equal treatment or the right to be heard ..... | 667 |
| 5.    | The concept of “arbitrariness” .....                        | 667 |
| a.    | General remarks .....                                       | 667 |
| b.    | Scope of “arbitrariness” under CCP, Art.393(e).....         | 668 |
| c.    | Findings of fact manifestly contrary to the record.....     | 669 |
| d.    | Manifest violation of the applicable law .....              | 670 |
| e.    | Manifest violation of the principles of equity.....         | 671 |
| f.    | No review of the assessment of evidence .....               | 672 |
| 6.    | Manifestly excessive fees and expenses .....                | 672 |

|      |                                                                             |     |
|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| V.   | Setting aside proceedings.....                                              | 674 |
| 1.   | Competent authority and procedure.....                                      | 674 |
| a.   | Action for annulment before the Swiss Federal Tribunal .....                | 674 |
| b.   | Action for annulment before the cantonal court .....                        | 674 |
| 2.   | Effects of a motion to set aside.....                                       | 675 |
| 3.   | Conditions of admissibility.....                                            | 676 |
| 4.   | Remand for correction and completion of the award.....                      | 676 |
| VI.  | Decision on the motion to set aside .....                                   | 677 |
| § 28 | Revision of arbitral awards .....                                           | 678 |
| I.   | Purpose of revision .....                                                   | 678 |
| II.  | Revision of domestic awards .....                                           | 679 |
| 1.   | Awards subject to revision .....                                            | 679 |
| 2.   | Grounds for revision.....                                                   | 679 |
| a.   | Result of the award affected by a criminal offence .....                    | 680 |
| b.   | Subsequent discovery of material facts or decisive evidence ....            | 681 |
| c.   | Invalidity of acceptance or withdrawal of claim or of consentaward..... | 682 |
| d.   | Violation of the ECHR.....                                                  | 682 |
| 3.   | Competent authority, procedure and time-limits .....                        | 682 |
| 4.   | Effects of a request for revision.....                                      | 684 |
| 5.   | Decision on a request for revision .....                                    | 685 |
| 6.   | Remedies against the decision of the cantonal court .....                   | 686 |
| 7.   | Final remarks.....                                                          | 686 |
| III. | Revision of international awards.....                                       | 687 |
| 1.   | No provisions on revision in PILS, Chap.12 .....                            | 687 |
| 2.   | Grounds for revision.....                                                   | 688 |
| a.   | Preliminary remarks .....                                                   | 688 |
| b.   | Result of the award affected by a criminal offence .....                    | 690 |
| c.   | Subsequent discovery of material facts or decisive evidence ....            | 691 |
| 3.   | Awards subject to revision .....                                            | 694 |
| 4.   | Competent authority, procedure and time-limits .....                        | 695 |
| 5.   | Effects of a request for revision.....                                      | 696 |
| 6.   | Decision on a request for revision .....                                    | 697 |
| 7.   | Waiver of revision .....                                                    | 698 |
| 8.   | Remedies against the decision on a request for revision.....                | 700 |
| § 29 | Recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards.....                         | 702 |
| I.   | Certificate of enforceability .....                                         | 702 |
| 1.   | Purpose and effects.....                                                    | 702 |
| 2.   | Requirements.....                                                           | 704 |
| 3.   | Competent authority and procedure.....                                      | 705 |
| II.  | Enforcement of awards rendered in Switzerland .....                         | 707 |

|                                                                          |            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1. Monetary claims .....                                                 | 708        |
| 2. Non-monetary claims .....                                             | 710        |
| 3. Foreign sovereign immunity and enforcement .....                      | 711        |
| III. Enforcement of foreign arbitral awards .....                        | 713        |
| 1. Introduction .....                                                    | 713        |
| 2. Procedural issues .....                                               | 714        |
| a. Monetary claims .....                                                 | 714        |
| b. Non-monetary claims .....                                             | 715        |
| 3. Scope of application of the New York Convention .....                 | 716        |
| a. Limitation to "foreign" arbitral awards .....                         | 716        |
| b. Limitation to "arbitral awards" .....                                 | 717        |
| c. No restriction to disputes of private (civil) law .....               | 718        |
| d. No restriction to contractual disputes .....                          | 719        |
| e. Personal scope of the Convention .....                                | 719        |
| 4. Documents to be provided .....                                        | 720        |
| 5. Grounds for refusal .....                                             | 722        |
| 6. Grounds to be examined at the request of the defendant .....          | 724        |
| a. Invalidity of arbitration agreement .....                             | 724        |
| b. Violation of due process .....                                        | 727        |
| c. Scope of arbitration agreement, decision beyond claims .....          | 728        |
| d. Failure to respect the applicable arbitral procedure .....            | 729        |
| e. Award not yet binding, set aside or suspended .....                   | 730        |
| i. Award not yet binding .....                                           | 731        |
| ii. Award set aside or suspended .....                                   | 732        |
| iii. Adjournment in case of pending application (Art. VI) .....          | 733        |
| 7. Grounds to be examined ex officio .....                               | 734        |
| a. Dispute not capable of settlement by arbitration .....                | 735        |
| b. Incompatibility with public policy .....                              | 736        |
| 8. Rules of procedure .....                                              | 739        |
| 9. Reservation of "more favourable law" .....                            | 739        |
| a. National law .....                                                    | 740        |
| b. International law .....                                               | 741        |
| IV. Recognition of awards .....                                          | 742        |
| Swiss Private International Law Statute of 18 December 1987 ..... | 743 |
| Swiss Code of Civil Procedure (CCP) of 19 December 2008 .....     | 749 |
| Table of Cases .....                                              | 761 |

|                                          |            |
|------------------------------------------|------------|
| Index.....                        | 793 |
| Index of PILS, Chap.12.....       | 825 |
| Index of New York Convention..... | 829 |