

Contents

Foreword xi

Selected Bibliography xxv

Acknowledgments xxix

I. A BIOGRAPHY OF IDEAS

1. The Purpose of Biography 5
2. The Value to the Clergyman of Training in the Classics 16
3. Autobiographical Sketch 23
4. Anarchist's Progress 34
5. The Path to the River 52

II. THE CASUALTIES OF WAR

6. Peace the Aristocrat 67
7. The End and the Means 76
8. An Exhausted Virtue 81
9. Anglo-American Relations 85
10. Pointing a Moral 89

III. THE SOCIAL CRITIC

11. A Cultural Forecast 95
12. Criticism's Proper Field 107
13. Artemus Ward 109
14. Study in Paradoxes 121
15. Isaiah's Job 124

IV. THE HUMANE LIFE

16. What We All Stand For 139
17. Prohibition and Civilization 149
18. Our Pastors and Masters 154

- 19. The Decline of Conversation 158
- 20. One's Own Smoke 169
- 21. American Education 173
- 22. Snoring as a Fine Art 188
- 23. Pantagrulism 200

V. THE CULT OF POLITICS

- 24. In the Vein of Intimacy 215
- 25. The Leadership of Ideas 219
- 26. The State 222
- 27. Officialism and Lawlessness 230
- 28. Return of the Patriots 244
- 29. 'A Little Conserva-tive' 256
- 30. The Criminality of the State 269
- 31. Liberalism, Properly So Called 276

VI. MISCELLANY

- 32. Culture and Freedom 287
- 33. Miscellany 291
- 34. The Oxometer 295
- 35. Sinclair Lewis 297
- 36. Thoughts from Abroad 301

VII. CULTIVATING A SINGLE GARDEN

- 37. On Doing the Right Thing 317

Index 327