

Table of Contents

Introduction	5
1. Traditional Law in Untraditional environment	7
2. The concept of a domain name and its legal nature	11
2.1. Technical and legal definition of domain names	11
2.1.1. The concept of a domain name	11
2.1.2. Organizational security of the Internet and the allocation of domain names	12
2.1.3. Principles of creation of domain names	14
2.2. Legal aspects of domain names	16
2.2.1. Analysis of the concept of a domain name from the perspective of Czech law	16
2.2.2. The legal regulation of domain names	19
2.2.3. Legislation in the United States	21
2.2.4. Legal regulation of domain names in the European Union	23
3. Traditional means of protection of domain names in the Czech Republic	24
3.1. Domain Names and Trademarks	25
3.1.1. Decisions of the Office of Industrial Property	29
3.1.2. Judicial resolution of the dispute	31
3.2. Domain names and unfair competition	33
3.2.1. Judicial resolution of the dispute	36
3.3. Domain names and company	39
3.3.1. Judicial resolution of the dispute	40
3.4. Domain names and personal protection	41
3.4.1. Judicial resolution of the dispute	41
3.5. Domain names and copyright work	42
4. Alternative ways of resolving disputes about domain names	44
4.1. Procedural rules for resolving disputes about domain names	46
4.1.1. Procedural rules UDRP Dispute Resolution gTLD	47
4.1.2. UDRP Rules	50
4.1.3. Additional rules ADR Service Providers	53
4.2. Procedural rules for resolving disputes about ccTLD .cz	54
4.2.1. CZ.NIC Rules	54
4.2.2. Rules of the Arbitration Court of online under EC and AC	56
5. Characteristics of .eu domain names	60
5.1. Historical excursions	60
5.2. Policy concerning the registration of .eu domain	61
5.2.1. Regulation (EC) no. 733/2002	61
5.2.2. Regulation (EC) no. 874/2004	63
5.3. Terms and conditions of domain name registration set by Register	68
5.3.1. Eligibility of applicants for registration .eu domain name	68
5.3.2. Availability .eu domain name	69
5.3.3. Obligations of the holder of the domain name	69
5.3.4. Rights of the holder of the domain name	70

5.3.5.	Suspension, annulment and blocking domain name.....	71
5.3.6.	Transfer of domain names	72
6.	The ADR legal basis for domain name .eu	73
6.1.	The legal basis of Art.21 and 22 of Regulation (EC) 874/2004.....	73
6.2.	The rules for resolving disputes about .eu	74
6.2.1.	Phase I. Complaint.....	75
6.2.2.	Phase II. The Response of the respondent	77
6.2.3.	Phase III. Decision	78
6.3.	Comparison with the procedural rules UDRP and the Order on-line.....	80
7.	Analysis of the ADR and the creation of a "domain case law"	82
7.1.	Disputes with the Registry.....	84
7.2.	Disputes with the domain name holder.....	90
7.2.1.	Protected names	90
7.2.2.	Identity or similarity	93
7.2.3.	The nature of the unauthorized registration.....	96
7.2.4.	Result of a legal proceeding	108
7.3.	The common practice of ADR	111
8.	Key word advertising.....	112
8.1.	Internet search engines and their services.....	112
8.2.	The EC Court of Justice's legal decisions.....	113
8.3.	Another decisions in the case of the services of Google AdWords in the EC Court of Justice	116
8.4.	Another decisions in the case of the services of Google AdWords in the National Courts	119
8.5.	The impact of the decision in the case "Vuitton" on copyrights	121
8.6.	The decisions in similar cases in front of the Court in the USA	122
	Conclusion.....	125
	Summary.....	128
	References and other resources	129
	List of charts and graphs.....	140