

Contents

Introduction	1
Kenneth Teitelbaum and Joseph L. DeVitis
Part One – Education in a Democracy
1 Education in a Democracy	7
Nel Noddings
2 And They Call It Education Reform	15
Susan Ohanian
3 Picking Up the Pieces of Neoliberal Reform Machines in Urban Schools	31
Dennis Carlson
Part Two – Contexts and Policy Implications
4 Subverting Learning and Undermining Democracy: A Structural and Political Economy Analysis of the Standards Movement	45
Lawrence C. Stedman
5 “It Need Not Have Been This Way”: School Reform Around the Socially Just School in Australia and Lessons from the Finnish Educational Miracle	59
John Smyth
6 Schooling in Disaster Capitalism: How the Political Right Is Using Disaster to Privatize Public Schooling	71
Kenneth J. Saltman

Part Three – Teachers and Teacher Education

- 7 Teacher Education in Volatile Times: Forward to the Basics97
Kenneth Teitelbaum
- 8 A Critical Examination of Today's (Un)Democratic Reform Agenda for Teachers, Administrators, and Teacher Education113
Carolyn M. Shields
- 9 Teacher Education and Markets Matter.131
Daniel P. Liston

Part Four – Diversity and Social Justice

- 10 Diversity, Social Justice, and Resistance to Disempowerment147
Christine E. Sleeter
- 11 Rethinking School Reform and Neighborhood Schools.159
Donyell L. Roseboro
- 12 Obama and Antiracist Education: Lessons for Teachers175
Tian Yu

Part Five – Voices from the Field

- 13 No Voices Left Behind.189
Martin J. Wasserberg
- 14 Teaching Under the Weight of Race to the Top in New York State201
Christopher Leahey
- 15 Danger Signs: Neglecting the Systemic Complexities of School Reform211
Joshua P. Starr
- Contributors223
- Index.227