

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD	7
SECTION I: INTRODUCTION TO KOREAN LAW	9
1. Korean Legal Culture in Far Eastern Context	9
2. Grouping of Legal Systems into Families of Law	18
3. Contract Culture and Settlement of Contract-related Disputes in Korea	25
4. Mediation in the Czech Republic	46
5. Korean Civil Code and its Interpretation	55
6. Private Law in the Czech Republic – Development, Presence and Prospects	63
7. Selected Issues of the Re-codified Czech Private International Law – A Comparative Czech-Korean Perspective	89
8. Interrelationship between Civil Law and Common Law: The Case of Korean Inheritance Law	98
9. On Periodization of EU Antitrust Development: Are We in a New Phase?	109
10. Executive Remuneration in Limited Liability Companies in Light of the New EU Proposal	126
11. Juvenile Justice Procedures of Korea	138
SECTION II: KOREA, THE EU AND THE CZECH REPUBLIC	143
1. On Jurisprudence of the Constitutional Court of Korea	143
2. The Constitutional Courts – the Republic of Korea and the Czech Republic – Comparison	155
3. The Right to Be Forgotten: the Korean Experience	163
4. The Right to Be Forgotten and its Criminal Law Connotations	173
5. On the Copying of EU Directives into National Legislation	184
6. The Legal Tools for the Economic Cooperation between Korea and the Czech Republic	193
7. Depoliticizing the Civil Service: the Czech Experience	202

8. Transnational Businesses in Corporate Governance	210
9. International Double Taxation in Relation to Korea	215
10. Tax Aspects of Korean Investments in the Czech Republic	228
11. The European Welfare States and a Timid Constitutional Protection against Unfavourable Social Reforms	239
12. Compulsory Insurance in the New Czech Civil Code	253
13. International Legal Perspective on the Future of International Humanitarian Law Actions	262
14. Protection of Persons in the Event of Disasters	271
15. Responsibility to Protect (R2P) Crossing Eurasia?	277