

CONTENTS

Foreword, by Laurie Olin	vii
Preface: Gathering Strength and Drinking Dawn in the Landscape of Home	xvii
1. Geodiversity and Changes in the Bohemian Landscape	1
2. A Tree as a Family Member	19
3. A Revolution of Surface: Successful as Asphalt	31
4. Journey to Uničov or About the Gap Between the Birds	39
5. Walking Through a Landscape	47
6. Tranquility at the Fundaments of the World	51
7. The Masked Moose and Other Stories	53

8. Dreaming About Vigilance: A Nut from Nine Undersea Hazel Trees	67
9. Journey to India: In Benares One Comes to Understand That One Was Born in Libeň	73
10. The Breath of Bones and Places	83
11. The Standard Central Bohemian Vision	99
12. Places from the Other Side	111
13. On Landscape Memory and the Stone of St. Ivan at Bytíz near Přeborn	133
14. The Man Who Used to Write in a Forsaken Landscape	143
15. The Six-Cornered Snowflake	151
16. Bees of the Invisible	161
Acknowledgments	171