

Peter Nygh, LLD (Syd) SJD (Mich)*

Choice of Forum and Laws in International Commercial Arbitration

Contents	Page
I. Introduction	1
II. The autonomy of the parties	2
III. Does arbitration have a forum?	3
IV. The arbitration clause as an independent source of the arbitrator's authority	7
A. The separability of the arbitration clause.	7
B. What if , it is alleged, there never was a contract at all?	9
C. Pervasive illegality	10
D. What law determines the question of separability?	11
E. Competence to determine the existence of the arbitration agreement itself	11
V. The choice of the arbitral seat	12
VI. Choice of law as regards the arbitration agreement	13
VII The scope of the law governing the arbitration agreement	15
A. Capacity	15
B. The existence of the agreement	16
C. Form	16
D. Arbitrability	17
1. The law of the forum	17
2. The law governing the arbitration agreement	18
3. The law of the seat of arbitration	19
4. The law of the place of enforcement.	19

*Barrister at law (NSW) and visiting professor at the University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia. This is the extended and annotated version of the lecture given at the forum Internationale in The Hague on November, 1 1996.

VIII. The substantive law to be applied by the tribunal	19
A. Application of the choice of law rules of the arbitral seat.	21
B. Choice of conflict rules by the arbitral tribunal	21
C. A direct choice of national law	22
D. The application of general principles of law	22
IX. The law governing procedure	23
X. Mandatory rules	24
A. The law governing the agreement	25
B. The law of the arbitral seat	25
C. Mandatory laws of a third country	26
XI. Conclusion	27