

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgments | vii |
| Contributors | ix |
| Introduction—DIANA TIETJENS MEYERS | 3 |
| PART ONE: Thinking Through the Meanings of Poverty | |
| 1. Surviving Poverty—CLAUDIA CARD | 21 |
| 2. Poverty Knowledge, Coercion, and Social Rights: A Discourse Ethical Contribution to Social Epistemology—DAVID INGRAM | 43 |
| 3. Rethinking Coercion for a World of Poverty and Transnational Migration—DIANA TIETJENS MEYERS | 68 |
| PART TWO: Ethical Responses to Poverty | |
| 4. Responsibility for Violations of the Human Right to Subsistence—ELIZABETH ASHFORD | 95 |
| 5. Global Poverty, Decent Work, and Remedial Responsibilities: What the Developed World Owes to the Developing World and Why—GILLIAN BROCK | 119 |

6. Trafficking in Human Beings: Partial Compliance Theory,
Enforcement Failure, and Obligations to Victims —LESLIE P.
FRANCIS AND JOHN G. FRANCIS 146
7. "Are My Hands Clean?" Responsibility for Global Gender
Disparities—ALISON M. JAGGAR 170

PART THREE: Promoting Development and Ensuring Agency

8. Agency and Intervention: How (Not) to Fight Global
Poverty—ANN E. CUDD 197
9. Empowerment Through Self-Subordination? Microcredit and
Women's Agency—SERENE J. KHADER 223
10. Paradoxes of Development: Rethinking the Right to Development—AMY ALLEN 249

PART 4: Transnational Transactions and Human Rights

11. Poverty, Voluntariness, and Consent to Participate in Research—ALAN WERTHEIMER 273
12. Children's Rights, Parental Agency, and the Case for
Non-coercive Responses to Care Drain—ANCA GHEAUS 299
13. Human Rights and Global Wrongs: The Role of Human Rights
Discourse in Responses to Trafficking—JOHN CHRISTMAN 321

Index 347