

Contents

---

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	x
Preface and acknowledgements	xv
1 Introduction	1
Hellmut Wollmann and Gérard Marcou
2 The multi-level institutional setting in Germany, Italy, France and the UK: a comparative overview	15
Hellmut Wollmann, Enzo Balboni, Jean-Pierre Gaudin and Gérard Marcou
3 New public management in continental Europe: local government modernization in Germany, France and Italy from a comparative perspective	49
Sabine Kuhlmann and Paolo Fedele
4 The local government role in pre-school child care policy in France, Germany, Italy and the UK	75
Michael Hill, Martine Long, Anna Marzanati and Frank Bönker
5 Towards marketization and centralization? The changing role of local government in long-term care in England, France, Germany and Italy	97
Frank Bönker, Michael Hill and Anna Marzanati
6 Health services: issues and trends in Italy, France and Germany	120
Dieter Grunow, Francesco Longo and Martine Long
7 Comparative study of a local service: waste management in France, Germany, Italy and the UK	146
Magali Dreyfus, Annette Elisabeth Töller, Carlo Iannello and John McEldowney
8 From public service to commodity: the demunicipalization (or remunicipalization?) of energy provision in Germany, Italy, France, the UK and Norway	168
Hellmut Wollmann, Harald Baldersheim, Giulio Citroni, Gérard Marcou and John McEldowney

9	Neither state nor market: municipalities, corporations and municipal corporatization in water services – Germany, France and Italy compared Giulio Citroni	191
10	Comparative aspects of institutional variants for local public service provision Giuseppe Grossi, Gérard Marcou and Christoph Reichard	217
11	From public sector-based to privatized service provision. Is the pendulum swinging back again? Comparative summary Hellmut Wollmann and Gérard Marcou	240
	Index	261