

Contents

Preface	v
List of Contributors	xi

PART ONE ADJUDICATION

1	Towards Proportionality as a Proportion Between Means and Ends Martin Luteran	3
2	Blown Out of Proportion: The Case against Proportionality as an Independent Ground of Judicial Review Paul Daly	23
3	Constitutional Judicial Review: The Eclectic Approach to Constitutional Interpretation Nelson Dordelly-Rosales	43

PART TWO EUROPEAN LAW AND POLITICS

4	The End of the Pillars? A Single EU Legal Order after Lisbon Eulalia Sanfrutos Cano	67
5	Rule and Let Rule: Four Strategies to Overcome the 'Democratic Deficit' in the EU and their Implementation in the Treaty of Lisbon Matthias C Kettemann	89
6	Human Rights Protection in ECHR and EU Law: A Claim of Non-divergence Marion Varju	113

PART THREE MIGRATION

7	Directive 2003/109 on Long-term Residence for Third-country Nationals: Possible Future Interpretation by the European Court of Justice Diego Acosta	143
---	---	-----

x Contents

- 8 Coexistent yet Interdependent Spheres of Competence:
The Interface between Immigration and the Internal Market 167
Stephen Coutts
- 9 Social Human Rights and Third-country Nationals in the EU:
The Case of Social Dumping? 187
Egle Dagilyte

PART FOUR
MINORITIES, IDENTITY AND RIGHTS

- 10 What Have Women Got to Do with Peace? A Gender Analysis of the Laws of War and Peacemaking 209
Benedetta Faedi Duramy
- 11 Europe's Changing Approach Towards Blasphemy: The 'Right'
not to be Offended, Sensitive Identities and Relativism 233
Dorota A Gozdecka
- 12 Particular or Universal? National Identity and Human Rights:
A Legal Approach 249
Vincent Depaigne

PART FIVE
THE LIMITS OF LAW

- 13 Judgment and Solidarity: Toward a Phenomenology of Moral and Legal Judging in Arendt and Adorno 271
Craig Reeves
- Index* 291