

Activity	Page	Activity	Page
Introduction	4	15 Teaching Styles	34
1 Favourite Animals	6	Helping students understand how they can best learn from any teaching style
To get students talking about themselves		16 How Do I Look?	36
TEACHING AND LEARNING		Understanding how the NLP eye movements indicate thinking styles
2 Learning English	8	17 The Forest	38
Establishing students' learning preferences – and discovering their present level of awareness		To encourage students to think about their approach to important issues, such as life, death, problems, etc
3 Sixes And Sevens	10	INTELLIGENCE
Introducing students to their natural style of working and interacting with others		18 Multiple Intelligences	40
4 Good Teacher, Bad Teacher	12	Introducing the Multiple Intelligences theory and helping students identify their different intelligences
Making explicit students' understanding of what makes a teacher more or less effective		19 Language Of Multiple Intelligences	42
5 Good Student, Better Student	14	Helping students link language to the different intelligences
Identifying students' strengths and weakness, and improving their study habits		20 Multiple Intelligences Profile	44
6 Toxic Teaching	16	Continuing students' identification of their own range of intelligences
Getting students thinking about the roles of teachers and learners		21 Study With Multiple Intelligences	46
7 The Bridge	18	Helping students extend their intelligences and use different approaches to learning
To get students thinking about their values		22 The Eagle	48
THE BRAIN		To get students thinking about the roles people play in life
8 Left/Right Brain	20	FUTURE PLANNING
Introducing the specialisations of the two hemispheres of the brain		23 Looking To The Future	50
9 Brain Likes	22	Helping students determine their ideal future
Helping students identify their learning preferences		24 Future Dreams	52
10 Brainways	24	Helping students realise their dreams
Helping students understand the practical application of their learning preferences		25 Symbols	54
11 My Picture	26	To help students think about their priorities in life
To help students think about their current priorities		ME AND OTHERS
SENSORY LEARNING		26 Ways Of Listening	56
12 VAK Learning Preferences	28	Helping students become better listeners
Introducing Visual, Auditory and Kinaesthetic learning styles from Neuro-Linguistic Programming and helping students establish their own preferences		27 Opposing Views	58
13 Language-Learning Strategies	30	Encouraging students to present their beliefs about human nature
Exploring the value of different language-learning activities in relation to VAK		28 Team Making	60
14 Study Techniques	32	Determining how students like to operate when working with others
Helping students understand more about their learning preferences and enhancing their visual learning techniques		29 Teamwork	62
		Examining the practical implications of different team roles

These are free-standing activities designed to get the teacher and the students thinking about themselves in a new way. They can be done at any time in any order – just for fun!