

Contents

Series Editor's Preface	viii
Acknowledgements	x
List of Abbreviations	xii
 Introduction	 1
1 The Rise of Emissions Trading as a Market Mechanism and the Promise of 'Civilized Markets'	13
2 Marketizing Civil Regulation: Acid Rain Regulation as the Experimental Bridge to Carbon Markets	29
3 Governing Carbon Emissions: NSW GGAS	60
4 The Technopolitics of National Carbon Accounts	95
5 'Economists in the Wild': Clean Development and the Global Politics of Carbon Offsets	120
6 The Paradox of Measurable Counterfactuals and the Fall of Emissions Trading	148
Conclusion: Beyond 8%: Resituating Emissions Trading	163
 Notes	 170
References	184
Index	205