
Contents

List of methods and strategies	vii
List of figures	ix
Acknowledgements	x
1 Introduction: What will you find in this book?	1
The purposes of action research	4
Features that distinguish action research	6
Stages of action research	7
Structure and use of this book	8
2 The research diary: companion to the research process	10
Why diaries are useful for research	10
Some suggestions for writing research diaries	12
An example taken from a research diary	15
Different kinds of diary entries	19
Getting started	28
3 Finding a starting point for your own research	33
What do we mean by 'starting points for research'?	33
Finding starting points	37
Approaches to choosing a starting point	40
4 Clarifying the starting point of research	44
From the 'first impression'	44
Activating additional knowledge en route	47
Towards elaborating practical theories	50
Suggested methods for clarifying the starting point of research	57
Conversations	58
Using diagrams	61
Finding patterns in experience	64
5 Data collection	69
Gaining experience and collecting data	69
Criteria for judging the quality of action research	74

Collecting existing data	81
Observing and documenting situations	83
Interviewing	101
The written survey	110
Collecting data as part of classroom work	114
A combined method: triangulation	115
6 Data analysis	119
Making sense of data	119
Constructive methods of data analysis	123
Critical methods of data analysis	131
Complex methods of data analysis	134
7 Developing action strategies and putting them into practice	153
Practical action as an integral part of research	153
What are action strategies?	156
How can I find a variety of suitable action strategies?	160
How can I choose which action strategy to put into practice from the range of available alternatives?	162
How can I plan concrete steps to make sure I feel comfortable with my action strategy?	168
How can I check the results of action strategies and record the experiences I have gained?	170
8 Making teachers' knowledge public	176
Why is it important to make teachers' knowledge public?	176
Disseminating teachers' knowledge: what, how, to whom?	179
Writing reports to disseminate teachers' knowledge	184
Further ideas about writing	192
Assorted tool-box for producing written reports	195
9 Behind the scenes: a theoretical foundation for action research	201
Action type 1: tacit knowing-in-action	203
Action type 2: reflection-in-action	205
Action type 3: reflection-on-action	205
The importance of teachers' action research	207
References	210
Index	217