

CONTENTS

EDITORS AND

CONTRIBUTORS

About the editors and contributors	ix
1 Taking a critical perspective Linda Miller and Linda Pound	1
Part 1 Theoretical and Analytical Positions	19
2 Not just the tip of the iceberg: psychoanalytic ideas and early years practice Julia Manning-Morton	21
3 Postmodern and post-structuralist perspectives on early childhood education Deborah Albon	38
Part 2 Foundational Theories	53
4 Froebel today Tina Bruce	55
5 Maria Montessori in the United Kingdom: 100 years on Martin Bradley, Barbara Isaacs, Louise Livingston, Dawn Nasser, Anne Marie True and Margaret Dillane	71
6 Steiner-Waldorf early childhood education: offering a curriculum for the 21st century Jill Tina Taplin	86

Part 3 Contemporary Theories	99
7 The HighScope approach Ann S. Epstein, Serena Johnson and Pam Lafferty	101
8 The wisdom of Vivian Gussin Paley Trisha Lee	119
9 Forest Schools in the early years Sarah Blackwell and Linda Pound	133
10 Relationships with people, places and things: Tē Whāriki Anne B. Smith	149
11 Critical issues Linda Pound and Linda Miller	163
Index	173