

Contents

Preface to the Second Edition	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
1. Concerted Cultivation and the Accomplishment of Natural Growth	1
2. Social Structure and Daily Life	14
PART I. ORGANIZATION OF DAILY LIFE
3. The Hectic Pace of Concerted Cultivation: Garrett Tallinger	38
4. A Child's Pace: Tyrec Taylor	66
5. Children's Play Is for Children: Katie Brindle	82
PART II. LANGUAGE USE
6. Developing a Child: Alexander Williams	108
7. Language as a Conduit for Social Life: Harold McAllister	134
PART III. FAMILIES AND INSTITUTIONS
8. Concerted Cultivation in Organizational Spheres: Stacey Marshall	165

9. Concerted Cultivation Gone Awry: Melanie Handlon	182
10. Letting Educators Lead the Way: Wendy Driver	198
11. Beating with a Belt, Fearing "the School": Little Billy Yanelli	221
12. The Power and Limits of Social Class	233
 PART IV. UNEQUAL CHILDHOODS AND UNEQUAL ADULTHOODS
259
13. Class Differences in Parents' Information and Intervention in the Lives of Young Adults	263
14. Reflections on Longitudinal Ethnography and the Families' Reactions to Unequal Childhoods	312
15. Unequal Childhoods in Context: Results from a Quantitative Analysis Annette Lareau, Elliot Weininger, Dalton Conley, and Melissa Velez	333
Afterword	342
Appendix A. Methodology: Enduring Dilemmas in Fieldwork	345
Appendix B. Theory: Understanding the Work of Pierre Bourdieu	361
Appendix C. Supporting Tables	365
Appendix D. Tables for the Second Edition	377
Notes	385
Revised Bibliography	429
Index	453