

CONTENTS

An Introductory Essay by John Moss	7
The History of Emily Montague by Frances Brooke
The History of Emily Montague: A Political Novel Mary Jane Edwards	19
An Essay on The History of Emily Montague Linda Shoet	28
The Clockmaker by Thomas Chandler Haliburton
Haliburton: A Lasting Impression Thomas H. Raddall	37
Haliburton: Mask and Ego Northrop Frye	40
Wacousta by Major John Richardson
Patterns of Deception in Wacousta Robert Lecker	47
Wacousta: The Borders of Nightmare Michael Hurley	60
Roughing it in the Bush by Susanna Moodie
Moodie and Atwood: Notes on a Literary Reincarnation Sherrill E. Grace	73
Roughing it in the Bush: A Sentimental Novel Marian Fowler	80
A Strange Manuscript Found in a Copper Cylinder by James De Mille
De Mille and the Utopian Vision George Woodcock	99
A Strange Manuscript: Sources, Satire, A Positive Utopia Kenneth J. Hughes	111

The Imperialist

by Sara Jeannette Duncan

The Historical Setting of The Imperialist 129
Alfred G. Bailey

The Imperialist: Imperialism, Provincialism, and Point of View 143
Joseph M. Zezulka

Sunshine Sketches of a Little Town

by Stephen Leacock

Sunshine Sketches: The Preposterous and the Profound 161
Douglas Mantz

Balance and Perspective in Sunshine Sketches 176
Tom Marshall

Afterthoughts: Charles G. D. Roberts, Gilbert Parker

Writing to the Reader: The Novels of
Sir Charles G. D. Roberts 189
John Moss

Myth and Prejudice in Kirby, Richardson, and Parker 198
L. R. Early

About the Contributors 213

Photo Credits 215

Acknowledgements 216