

Contents

Notes on Contributors	7
Michael Y.M. Kau Foreword	11
Jens Damm and Paul Lim Introduction: European Perspectives on Taiwan	14
 Part I: Europe and the Historical, Political and Social Development of Taiwan
Ann Heylen Taiwan's Historical Relations with Europe: Perspectives on the Past and the Present	27
Yoshihisa Amae Europeans and the Formation of a Presbyterian Enterprise: A Prototype of a Civic Taiwanese Nation?	46
Gunter Schubert Taiwan's Political Evolution from Authoritarianism to Democracy and the Development of Cross-Strait Relations	66
Jens Damm Multiculturalism in Taiwan and the Influence of Europe	84
 Part II: Taiwan in the Context of Global Strategic Considerations
Masako Ikegami Taiwan's Strategic Relations with its Neighbors: A Countervailing Force to Rising China	107
Jean-Pierre Cabestan The Strategic Triangle between Taiwan, China and the USA: A European Perspective	125

Part III: Taiwan, the European Union and International Organizations

Jana Sehnálková and Ondřej Kučera

- Taiwan's Participation in International Organizations: Obstacles, Strategies, Patterns? 147

Paul Lim and Sigrid Winkler

- The European Union's Relations with the Republic of China (Taiwan) 170

Lutgard Lams

- Cross-Strait Relations from a Linguistic Perspective 196

Part IV: Cross-Strait Relations vis-à-vis the European Integration Process

Stefan Fleischauer

- Cross-Strait Relations, Integration, and the Case of Europe
Modes of Economic Interdependence and the Prospects of Political Integration between Taiwan and the Chinese Mainland in Light of the European Experience 217

Joseph Lee

- Legal Transplant of the European Integration Model to the Cross-Strait Polity: A Common Market Model 237